

acknowledgment of her munificence in the restoration of the Church, is now a very handsome addition to the window of the South aisle was filled with stained glass; and the purity and appropriateness of the subjects are the theme of general praise. The subjects include the acts of mercy mentioned in the xxv.—visiting the prisoners—clothing the naked—receiving the poor—will doubt the correctness of the examples of the good works of the Good Samaritan, who has this winter, by previous benefactions, sent a quantity of clothing to be distributed among the poor.

A committee is about to be formed in the city, consisting of the Wardens of Galway, the Protestant Clergy, and the Protestant Clergy of the neighbourhood. The Dean of Kilmore has stated to the Clergy the necessity of forming a Society for the town and county, and the hope will be responded to and carried out as its importance demands. The Irish Church Mission stationed in the city has made a most valuable accession to its staff, in the person of Theophilus, an Irish speaking and preaching minister, whose promise the most triumphant success among the Roman Catholics.

The Protestant Association have sent printed petitions against the Maynooth grant to all the episcopal clergy of Ireland, to obtain signatures from their parishioners thereto.

Mr. R. O. B. presided at a meeting of the Wesleyan Chapel, on Sunday, to promote the building of a new Church.

Mr. Hill commenced a series of Lenten Lectures at the Augustinian Chapel, George-st., on Monday, and the edifice was filled to hear the lecturer.

At the Shrove Tuesday, numerous petitions were entered into at the Wesleyan Chapel in Gort. The late plentiful harvest has enabled the farmers to pay their rents.

At the Criminal Court, London, on Friday, Mr. Han, late incumbent of St. Matthew's, was arraigned to take his trial. The charge against him with false entries in the parish registers.—Verdict, Not Guilty.

At the Central Criminal Court, the defendant was tried on a second indictment, for a similar offence to that of which he was convicted the previous day. The circumstances, but varied as to the names of the parties. After a long investigation, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal, which was received with cheers.

The Corporation has granted a site for a new Wesleyan Chapel in the parish of Ballinabag.

Dr. Delany presided at the quarterly meeting of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, on Monday. The amount weekly distributed to the poor-keepers was stated to be £30, and the balance to £40.

At St. Luke's, Jersey, Robert Fayer Hickey, Esq. 1st Lieutenant in the 1st European Regt. (Fusiliers), 2d in command of the 15th Irregular Cavalry, Bengal Army, to Mary, eldest daughter of John Hume, Esq. Beau Regard, St. Laurence's Valley.

At Hove church, Brighton, Louis Twyden, Esq. to Helen, daughter of the late Capt. Bazalgette, RN.

J. P. Paiba, London-wall, to Jennetta, daughter of the late Lieut. Benedictus Leman, Westbourne park Villas.

At Sydney, NSW, W. C. M'Dona, Esq. MD, formerly of Dublin, to Sophia Elizena Gertrude, second daughter of the late John Wheeler, Esq. formerly of Wheeler Grove, in the county Londonderry.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at Curragh Chase, in this county, to the infinite regret of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and deep bereavement of a beloved family, the Dowager Lady de Vere, relict of Sir Aubrey de Vere, Bart. and sister of the Lord Monteagle. Her Ladyship's remains will be interred on tomorrow in the family vault at Askaton.

At 13, Cullenswood avenue, Dublin, on the 7th inst aged 63, Anna, relict of the late Henry Davis Hunt, Esq. of Cappawhite, county Tipperary, and Captain in the Tipperary Militia.

At Scarteen, the seat of her brother, Mrs. M'Namara, wife of Morgan M'Namara, Esq. of this city, and London—a lady highly esteemed, and whose death is universally regretted.

In Cork, sincerely regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances, Daniel Murphy, Esq.—a most respectable, honorable, and upright citizen.

The daughter of George M'Dowal, Esq. FTCD. At his residence, Ellen street, Mr. John Hackett, formerly Poor rate collector of the city and suburban districts of the Limerick union.

In Thomondgate, on Saturday, Mr. Timothy O'Brien, aged 55 years.

On his voyage to Malta, of fever, Lieut. Wm. F. Kelly, 1st Royal's, and late of the Galway Militia, son of Capt. Kelly, of Longford Lodge, county Galway.

At Crusheen, county Clara, Mr. Thomas Kennedy.

At Clone house, county Kilkenny, Lydia, relict of the late Henry Nixon, Esq. and daughter of the late John Hobson, Esq. formerly of Bushy park, county Dublin.

In Youghal, Susan, wife of Thomas Cooke, Esq. Dispensary Physician.

At Queenstown, the Rev. Andrew Lavalin Savage, aged 31, vicar of Castletown, diocese of Meath.

At Lower Glanville road, Cork, Eva Mary Townsend, youngest daughter of the late Charles Evans, Esq. of Skibbereen.

At Ballintarmin, Ellen, wife of John Tuite, Esq.

In Cork, Frederick Fitz-Thomas, youngest son of the Rev. Thomas Dorman.

At Adelaide place, Cork, Miss Heard, daughter of the late Major Heard.

At Desertmore glebe, the Rev. Robert Pratt, Prebendary of Desertmore, aged 70.

At Richmond place, Mountjoy square, Jane, eldest daughter of the late Richard Fletcher, Esq. of Cahernaheny, county Galway.

At Old Leighlin glebe, the residence of her son, sincerely and deservedly lamented by a large circle of relatives and friends, Eliza, wife of John Read Bindon, Esq. Captain RN.

In Loughrea, Mr. Patrick Hickey, victualler.

In Tuam, Mr. Wm Brogan, baker and provision dealer.

At Carrigacunna castle, Jane, infant daughter of Richard Spratt, Esq.

At Sandycove, John Duffey, jun. Esq. son of John Duffey, Esq. of Cypress Grove, Templeogue.

In Dublin, Capt. George Sweet, connected with the post of Dublin for nearly 40 years.

In Dublin, John Dobbyn, Esq. second son of Michael Dobbyn, Esq. of Waterford.

Mr. Thomas Mooney, Cole's lane, Dublin.

In Portumna, Harriet Jane Mulholland, of Sutton, county Dublin.

At Roebuck, county Dublin, Martha, relict of Robert Billing, Esq. solicitor.

In Newry, aged 85, Mary, relict of John Quin, Esq. of Drum, county Monaghan.

The wife of Mr. James Plunkett, James's-street, Dublin.

At Hants, Capt. Wm. Garwood (late of the ship Vanguard).

In Cumberland terrace, Regent's park, the Rt. Hon. Lady Emily Henry, aged 78.

At the Albany, Piccadilly, George Arkwright, Esq. MP for Leominster.

At Bath, the Rev. G. R. Baker, second son of Col. George Baker, and Fellow of Exeter College, Oxford.

keep alive a branch of manufacture otherwise have been extinct in this country. Orders forwarded by post or thro' the

Mr. J. P. FITZGERALD, 1, Thomas-street, will have prompt attention. Dublin-glass Bottle Works North

TO BE SOLD.
A GROUND Rent of £21 per annum on well circumstanced Property in Limerick, with Parliamentary Title. Application to ROBERT ANGLIM, 49, Limerick.

COUNTY OF LIMERICK TO WIT.
GENERAL QUARTER SESSIONS OF EASTER, 1856
DIVISION OF RATHKEALE
At Newcastle, Wednesday, 26th March, at 10 o'clock,
At Rathkeale, Friday, 28th March, at 10 o'clock,
DIVISION OF LIMERICK.
At Bruff, on Wednesday, April 2nd, at 10 o'clock,
At Limerick, on Saturday, April 5th, at 10 o'clock,
(By Order,)
M. H. DE COCK
D. C. Peace, County Limerick Peace Office.
20th January, 1856.

GARDEN AND FLOWER SEEDS.
THE new Priced Catalogue, giving a full description of the best Garden and Flower Seeds now ready, and will be sent free by post on application. Please write for it.
Several new and valuable varieties of Flower Seeds have been added, while less merit have been kept out. Purchasers, therefore, have no difficulty in making a good selection.
W. DRUMMOND AND SON
58, DAWSON-STREET, DUBLIN, AND 10, NORTON STREET, SCOTLAND.
Imported Spring Wheat, Oats, Peas, Vetches, &c.

Limerick and Castlebliss Railway.
NOTICE TO SHAREHOLDERS
2nd Call of £2 per Share, making £5 per Share.
NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of a Resolution passed by the Board of Directors, the Proprietors are hereby required to pay £2 per Share to any of the undermentioned persons on or before Monday, the 10th day of April, 1856.
Should any Call remain unpaid after the above date, interest at the rate of 5 per cent will be charged thereon.
(By order of the Board.)
E. WILLIAMSON, Secretary.
BANKERS.
The Provincial Bank of Ireland, 10, Broad-street, London.