

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Evening. Mr. Thomas Fitt delivered the above association, at their meeting. The subject chosen was "The grandeur and seldom has it been our privilege to hear a heart-stirring lecture, or one in which the spirit of his theme with an unequalled magnificence of the Scripture—the grandeur of its poetic fervour of its delineations of His glory" who fileth eternity—and tenderness with which our sufferings are laid bare—and the grandeur of the final triumph of the Redeemer in language for which we find no parallel elsewhere than in the glorious part of the material of this very subject as received with frequent bursts of large audience present. The Rev. Mr. Fitt's discourse was expressed in very glowing action which in common with the subject derived from the Lecture, and the Rev. Mr. Fitt conveyed the thanks of the Society for his discourse broke up with the customary ill has been prevented by severe lecturing at the Augustinian chapel last, but he is now convalescent. Mr. Farrell will preach on to-morrow at St. Michael's Chapel.

Mr. Anrahan, O.S.A. celebrated his birthday in the Augustinian Church last, and was vested on the Altar by Rev. T. Ryan. In the evening the gentlemen of the community entertained at dinner, Mr. Ryan, and a large party of

P.P. begs thankfully to acknowledge £5 from Henry Lyons, Esq. Croom's Lane, of the new Roman Catholic chapel held in St. John's Chapel, on Sunday last. Dr. Ryan, R.C.B. in the chair, and donations, to the amount of 47l., were made towards the erection of the new Church. Mr. Ryan may be relied upon to have been appointed by his Holiness, Dr. Walsh to the Catholic bishopric of Leighlin.

Shandon-street, took the black and white Presentation Convent Cork, on Daniel M'Gottigan, now P.P. of Carrigrohane, for years curate of Letterkenny, is now adjutor to the Bishop of Raphoe.

MARRIAGES.

On the 19th inst. at Taney church, by the Rev. John Heard, assisted by the Rev. A. N. Bredin, Charles Furlong Harding, Esq. Royal South Downshire Militia, and of Charleville, co. Cork, to Jane Adelaide Pickering, daughter of Charles Pickering, Esq. of Roebuck Grove, county Dublin.

On Wednesday last, at Clonsilla, county Waterford, Mr. John Carroll, of Mullinahone, to Miss Ellen Hally, and Mr. Patrick M'Keon, of the same place, to Miss Kate Hally.

At Kirriemuir, on the 18th inst. by the Rev. John Thomson, George Mitchell, Esq. Athlunkard, county Clare, to Isabella, third daughter of Mr. Alexander Deuchar. After the ceremony was performed the happy pair started immediately in an open carriage, drawn by milk white steeds, amidst the rejoicings of the inhabitants.

Astley Paston, son of the late Bransby B. Cooper, Esq. to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Thomas Croft, Esq. of Kingstown.

In Cavan, Gore Mervyn, Esq. Banbridge, to Mary Anne, daughter of the late William Howe, Esq. Rathhills, co. Cavan.

At Hastings, Mr. J. Morris Jones, of Barnsbury, to Mary Ann, daughter of the late Richard Porter, Esq. formerly of Regent-street.

At St. Peter's church, John H. Jephson, Esq. MD, late 49th Regt. to Margaret, daughter of the late William Gray, Esq. of Graymount, county Antrim.

At St. Peter's church, R. S. M'Clure, Esq. of Dublin, to Ellen, daughter of the late Wm. Deveril, Esq. Tullamore.

At Stonehouse, Devon, Capt. Symonds, RN. CB. HM's ship Conqueror, to Prestwood Mary, daughter of the late Capt. Thomas Wolrige, RN.

At New York, U.S. Maurice E. Harnett, son of Edmund Harnett, Esq. of Listowel, county Kerry, to Ellen, daughter of Mrs. Mary Traynor, of Cork.

At Quebec, Mr. W. D. Fraser, son of the late Capt. John Fraser, HM 76th Regt. to Harriet Isabella, daughter of the late Lt-Col. Leslie Walker, HM 5th Regt.

At Bonares, G. B. Parsley, Esq. Bengal Civil service, eldest son of the late Lt-Col. Parsley, HM 49th Regt. to Ellen Ann, second surviving daughter of the late Capt. T. Nicholl, of the Bengal army.

DEATHS.

This morning, at his house, Brunswick-street, Mrs. Burgess, the beloved wife of William Burgess, Esq.—a lady much esteemed and lamented. Her remains will be interred on Friday morning.

On Sunday last, at Corcamore, in this county, after a protracted illness, to the deep affliction of his family and numerous friends, Mr. James T. Mulqueen, a gentleman who by his courteous, amiable, and sincere manners, combined with the most unostentatious liberality, secured for him the love and esteem of all who had the happiness of knowing him.

On Friday last, in Frankford, King's County, at an advanced age, Mr. Abernethy—a gentleman much respected.

At the White Walls, Nenagh, aged 72, Mr. James Egan, father of the Rev. Mr. Egan, CC, Castleconnell.

In Bridge-street, Mrs. O'Leary, aged 24, the wife of Nicholas Seymour, Esq. and daughter of the late John Murphy, Esq.

At Goleen Skibbereen, Mr. Jeremiah M'Carthy.

At Glasnevin, Capt. Ralph Smyth, late of the 7th Dragoon Guards.

In Blessington-street, Harriett, the beloved child of Wm. G. Chamney, Esq. barrister-at-law.

In Belfast, Miss Elizabeth M'Alister.

At Hyde-park, William Harnett, Esq. formerly of Sandville, county Kerry, aged 62.

At Harrogate, the Hon. Montagu Henley Ogle.

At Blithfield, Lord Bagot, aged 82.

At the Albany, Piccadilly, George Arkwright, Esq. MP.

At Illinois, U.S. Dr. George Smith Crawford, formerly of Drogheda.

At Hammersmith, James Morgan, Esq.

"Sir Harry" Strawberry

FINE Plants of this greatly celebrated Strawberry (warranted genuine) from the propagator, in numbers not less than 100 plants £4; 80, £3 13s. 6d.; 60, £1 18s.; 20, £1; in pots for forcing, 10, 2s. each. Apply to Mr. RICHARD SIR Harry's Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham to receive attention must be accompanied by Office Order on Birmingham. Also, a useful Treatise on the Cultivation, &c., of Strawberry.

THOROUGH-BRED SIRE FOR

Marlborough, THE property of FRANCIS FOSBERY Cover Mares this Season, at CURR within One Mile of Adare, at the following Prices, viz:—Gentlemen's Mares, £1 10s. Mares, £1; and 2s. 6d. Groom's Fees. Marlborough is one of the highest bred in the kingdom. He was got by the celebrated Defence, out of Vinegar by Picton (a son) out of the famous Wire, sister to Whal-bone (both winners of the Derby) gr. dam Penelope by Trumpator, gr. dam Brunella the dam of Waxy Pope (also a Derby) by Highflyer, gr. gr. dam Snap, Julia by Blank Spectators dam by The celebrated Sire Defence was got by out of Defiance the dam of Dangerous (a Derby) He was also the sire of the Emperors &c. &c. and of the dams and Pyrrhus the First (Winner of Vinegar was the dam of Montague, Must Marlborough is brother to The Emperor horse that ever beat Faugh-a-ballagh; a champion, winner of the Oaks. He is a beauty, stands over 15 hands 3 inches high, shows beautiful action. His stock are large and promise to bring very long prices; many to be seen in the neighbourhood of Linn are two colts of his (one rising two, the other old), bred by Frank Fosbery, Esq., of K Marlborough. There is no surer foal produced from Mares which have proved unfruitful. Marlborough was in most of the heats of his year, but while in training he fell ill, which incapacitated him from running. The money must be paid on the 1st next. Groom's Fees at first service. T not be accountable for injury or accident to Grass for Mares, at 1s per night.