

contingents raised by these corps,) are to the arrival of a vessel at Kingstown. ds of 4000/. has been issued at the post-office. a, from the soldiers there to their relatives in itain.

Furnell City Limerick Militia Artillery will be transferred to the Line.

Death, by fever of Surgeon James Newton, Fusileers, which occurred at Nenagh on is deeply regretted by the officers of the and his numerous circle of acquaintances.

MARY ARTILLERY.—This splendid corps was on Thursday at Kinsale, by Lt. Col. Paynter, ant of Artillery in the Cork district, who complimented Major Massy on the effective is Regt. Lt. Col. Paynter afterwards invited s from the corps to the Royal Artillery, when young men stepped out of the ranks, and were on the following day. This makes nearly 100 n in the present year by the South Tipperary; still number near 500 men.

been visited the Aldershot camp on Friday, much pleased with the Irish Regts. stationed othecary and his assistant, whose carelessness melancholy death of Capt. Kent, will be sorrow at Armagh assizes, where his brother rother-in-law Dr. White, have arrived.

ddlesex Militia at Buttevant, have been preth a new stand of colours.

enerable Archdeacon Keating, of this city, h in the Lord Lieutenant's chapel. Dublin Sunday next.

v. Archdeacon Goold will preach at Adare Sunday next.

day last, the Rev. Edward Hassard preached rmon at the Cathedral as Prebend of Bally- he is now Chancellor of this diocese and Rathkeale, shop of Derry has returned to Derry.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—On st, a sermon, in behalf of this Society, was by the Ven. and Rev. Frederick Goold, Arch- Raphoe, in St. Michael's Church, which ded in every part. This charity has long ocated by some of the most able and of our Divines, and perhaps, with the excep- he eloquent, pious, and benevolent Lord e (Bishop of Killaloe) none could have been lected as the advocate of our staple charity erable Archdeacon Goold, who preached ext closing the 1st chapter of the General St. James, "Pure religion, and undefiled od and the Father, is this, to visit the and widows in their affliction, and to keep spotted from the world." We regret that we e an outline of this able eloquent and tive discourse. The collection amounted to

v. J. Gabbett Kilmallock, thankfully ges the receipt of the following sums towards n of the Protestant Orphan Hall:—Lady a. £2; Joseph Gabbett, Esq. Dublin, £2; ad Mrs. Tuthill, £2; Mrs. T. W. Evans, £1; James Ievers, Esq. £1; William and eed, Esqrs. £2.

reasurer of the Limerick Protestant all thankfully acknowledges the receipt owing contributions in aid of the Building —The Hon. John W. Massy, £10; Thomas Esq. 10s; Thomas F. Bennett, Esq. £1; elsworth, Esq. £1; James Sexton, Esq. £2; Vere Benson, £1.

. Maurice T. de Burgh acknowledges, with l. for the Protestant Orphan Society, and Female Penitentiary, from the Foreman of grand jury.

At the British Legation, Lima, James, son of the late Hugh Henry, Esq. of Dublin, to Anita, daughter of Mr. Wens, of Lima.

DEATHS.

At Beech Hill, county Galway, on the 29th ult., Edward Crips Villiers, Esq. late of Kilpeacon, in this county. He served the office of High Sheriff in the year 1851. In every relation of life he was a perfect gentleman, a sincere friend, a good landlord, and excellent neighbour.

In Henry-street, the widow of Mr. Richard Trousdell. Yesterday, in Mary-street, at an advanced age, Mr. Patrick Hogan, provision dealer.

Of fever, at Nenagh, Dr. Newton, Surgeon Kilkeney Militia. His remains were interred at 8 o'clock on Monday morning in Nenagh church.

At Cork, Edward Atkinson, Esq. son of the late Henry Francis Atkinson, Esq. of Mullavilla, county Armagh.

In Clonmel, Sophia Ewing, daughter of Wm. H. Deane, Esq. CE, County Surveyor Tipperary South Riding.

Nicholas Whiting, Esq. late of Mountrivers, county Cork, aged 84

At Cahir Lodge, near Kenmare, Miss Eliza O'Donovan, aged 19, fourth daughter of Timothy O'Donovan, Esq. late of Ardahill house, county Cork.

In Amiens-street, Alicia, daughter of the late William Brunakill, Esq. of Wellfield, Maryborough.

In Eccles-street, Anyas Deane, Esq. formerly Captain 96th Regt.

In Lower Merrion-street, Dublin, Caroline, eldest daughter of Mr. Nicholls.

Christina, relict of Arthur Williams, Esq. Richard de Verdon, Esq. JP. of Monksland Dundalk.

At Kingstown, Mrs. Rexanna Morley, daughter of the late William, and sister of the late Sir Mark Anthony Gerrard, of Liscaister castle, in the county of Meath.

In Dublin, the son of Counsellor Levy. At Rathmines road, Eugene John Fitzgibbon, Esq.

Mary, second daughter of Edward Beaman, Esq. of Furness, county Kildare.

In Lower Leeson-street, Mr. Philip M. Leaby. Rosanna, wife of Mr. Michael Keane, of Sheriff-street.

Andrew Cassidy, Esq. Brucklass, county Donegal. At Warrenpoint, Mary, relict of the late John Donnelly, Esq. and youngest daughter of the late Alexander M'Clintock, Esq. of Newtown house, county Louth.

At Holywood, Henry Atkinson, Esq. of Mullertown house, county Down.

Mr. Henry M'Dermott, of Boyle, Roscommon. At Willsbrook, county Roscommon, Miss Bridget MacDonnell.

The Rev. Daniel O'Brien, CC of St. Michan's parish, Dublin.

In Dungarvan, Mr. James Byrne, father of the Rev. P. Byrne, CC of Carrick-on-Shannon.

In Belfast, Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. John Wharton. At Ballymagarrick, county Down, William Shannon.

At Portrush, Marcus Gage, Esq. In Belfast, Mrs. Duncan.

At Torquay, from the effects of over-exertion with the Baltic Fleet, Herbert William Wilberforce, Lieutenant RN, and eldest son of the Lord Bishop of Oxford.

At Camberwell, Surrey, Col. Henry Thornton, CB, late of the 82d

At Harley-street, Sir James E. Anderson, MD. Capt. Henry Lawson, of Fortess-terrace, Kentish-town.

At Rose Bank Cottage, Scotland, Capt. James Tasker, late of HM 57th Regt.

In Warwick-street, Hannah, widow of the late Lieut. James Findlay formerly of the 11th RVB

At Brighton, Col. Bonham, of Carlton Hall, Suffolk, and Orsot Essex, lately Lieut-Colonel 10th Hussars, aged 47.

At Newlands, Col. J. F. S. Clarke, Commandant of the South Wales district, formerly Quartermaster General of the Horse Guards

At Ford, Capt. P. C. Campbell, late of the 4th Regt. aged 53 Also Christina Colina, aged 8, and Lucinda Norcott, aged 4, his two daughters.

At Kingston, Surrey, Rear Admiral Godby. At Craigforth house, Stirlingshire, Thomas Smith, Esq. late Physician General, HEIC service.

At Boulogne, Mrs. Tait, widow of the late Dr. William Tait, RN.

At Sierra Leone, Edward Lemon, Esq. merchant of London.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

Generals—Sir W G Davy, CB, KCH, Colonel Commandant, 60 F; Sir J Grey, KCB. Colonels—H F Bonham, Unatt; J P S Clarke, Unatt Majors—J Snodgrass, 86 F; J Lepper, h p 7 F. Captains—T W Storer, 68 E; A Briggs, h p 5 F; F Munter, h p 7 L, Batt KGL. Lieutenants—W C F Kelly, 1 F; A M Tuck, 36 F; J H Messenger, 45 F; J B MacLennan, 84 F; R C Brown, 86 F; J W Gray, 80 F; J Russell, ret f p 3 Roy Vet Batt; W Russell, ret f p 5 Roy Vet Batt; W Godfrey, ret f p 5 Roy Vet Batt; W M D Mathews, h p 62 F. Ensigns—J C Segrave, 4 F, Croft-y-Balla; R Saunders, Gold Coast Corps. Paymasters—C P Geneste, 21 F; G J Cull, h p 13 F. Quarter Masters—W Tiller, h p 5 F; Alex Dallas, h p Bourbon's Reg. Surgeon—C B Bassano, Staff Surg 2d Class. Assistant Surgeons—J H Gilborne, 71 F; J Hendrick, h p 24 F. Acting Assistant Surgeon—J Mayne.

These Le may be had

New

RESPEC the Lit ing the Sho in Limerick ground, th he formerly to state, th be especially to direct the

Timb

IS now d about 8, 26 Feet Lo sold on Rea together wi Pine Laths Also, ab feet Long,

Stat

WILL NU into Terms and receive be removed rick and C The Sale.

Dublin

BEG t patro Trade, wh keep alive otherwise Orders

Dublin

Pack

TO be SU 8th MAR consistin and will and a Fo seasoned The ab Moore, on acco Grounds the Pack which th The H Sale a

Cork,