Captains of Militia have a stronger claim on Government for pecuniary recompense than other officers, including responsibility for company debts.

Every English Militia Regiment in Ireland is under orders for embarkation.

The 2d Warwick militia arrived on Tuesday at Ship street, Dublin, from Armagh, embarked on Wednesday for Leamington, to be disbanded. The Nottingham militia take up their barracks on Monday, in Dublin.

The 4th Lancashire Militia were inspected yesterday at Newry, by Major-General Gough.

The officers of the Londonderry and 3d West York Light Infantry, gave a grand ball on Wednesday night to the leading families of Belfast, and adjoining counties.

The West York Rifles will leave Clonmel next week for England.

James Murphy and Thomas Dunne, the former for being one of the actual murderers of the unfortunate Miss Hinds, and the latter for instigating that murder, were executed yesterday. A troop of the 8th Hussars under Capt. M'Naghten, and the Monaghan Regiment, commanded by Lient.-Col. Forster, were on duty there.

A poor man named Coffee, in the employ of Mr. Cavanagh, of Tipperary, while assisting to remove the roof of the old Barrack on last Wednesday, fell from the ruin, and was removed to the Workhouse, where he died yesterday.

A woman from the Irishtown received treatment at the City Hospital on Wednesday, for concussion of the brain caused by falling down a flight of stairs. A little boy, whose shoulder was broken by a fall from a loft, was also admitted to the Hospital.

On Tuesday evening a man living in the neighbourhood of Drombiggle, Ennis, who went to bed apparently in good health and spirits, was found dead next morning.

At the concert in the Athenæum, on Thursday night, great satisfaction was expressed at the splendid qualities of the hall, for sound. There was not the slightest reverberation or echo, and a pin could be heard falling. This is a great point, since the Cork Athenæum and the St. George's-Hall, Liverpool, are very badly adapted for music, notwithstanding their splendid proportions.

Mendelsohn's celebrated and sublime compositions, the "Hymn of praise, and 42d psalm," will be performed by the Limerick Harmonic society, at their next concert, on Thursday evening, at the Athenæum.

A dandy clerk, in a house in Dublin, owes £20,000 to the Tipperary Bank.

A young boy found 160l. at the fair of Ballina, county Mayo, which he restored to the owner, who liberally rewarded him with six-pence!

A special general meeting of the Limerick Literary and Scientific Society will be held on Friday-evening next, the 23d instant, at 8 o'clock, at the Board Room of the Athenæum, to consider urgent and important business of the Society. A large attendance is expected.

This day the Erin-go-Bragh steamer, of which Captain Kennedy is the popular Commander, took up the passenger trade for the season between Limerick and Kilrush. This first-class boat has been fitted up in a superior style, and the cabin accommodation is excellent.

This day was bitter cold and heavy showers of hail stones prevailed.

Mr. Michael Moore has been unanimously elected clerk of the Newcastle union, at a salary of £120 per annum, vice his brother, Mr. James Moore, promoted to a situation in the Customs, and who for Major Pakenham, M.P., county Antrim, has arrived in London from the Crimea.

A few days since the constabulary at Banaha, arrested a man named James O'Donnell, residing at Gurtavoher, on suspicion of being concerned in the murderous assault on James Peters, of Ballough, on the 4th of February last. Though the police have been unwearied in their search for the perpetrators of this daring outrage, until the above date, no trace of them could be discovered. O'Donnell on being conveyed to the bridewell, was identified by Peters's wife, as being the man who first entered their house, saying he had a message from Mr. Murphy's agent, to Mr. Moore, on whose property Peter's was employed as caretaker; and requesting him to get up as he wanted him outside. O'Donnell has been fully committed for trial by P. C. Howley, Esq. R. M. Tipperary.

A Ladys' brooch, advertised in our last, has been restored through the exertions of Const. Nash; it cost the owner £100.

The celebrated fair of Cluggan, on Wednesday, was well attended. Sheep sold at advanced prices.

The shopkeepers of Ennistymon have resolved not to open on the Sabbath.

A heavy metal boiler, weighing about three tons, while being put on board a vessel at Clare Quay on Monday, fell on an old man named Charles Bailey, a pensioner, and killed him on the spot.

Dr. Murphy, coroner, held an inquest on Wednesday, at Dunkipe, on the body of Bridget Bolster, of Croom, who was killed by the upsetting of a car, while on her way to Bruff the previous night. A verdict of accidental death was returned.

M. D. Johnston, of William-street, has been declared contractor for supplying the city jail with clothing.

THRASHING MACHINES—W. BURGESS & SONS beg to inform their friends that they have completed a new set of Thrashing Machine Patterns on the most approved principle, and are now in a position to supply a first rate Machine considerably under the Dublin, Cork, and English houses.

Warehouse, Brunswick-street; Works, North Strand.

N.B.—Two and three-horse Machines, on the above principles, can now be seen at the works.

STOLEN.

A MARE supposed to be stolen is now in Livery Stables. The owner can have her, on proving property and paying all expenses, on application to CONSTABLE NASH, William-street, Limerick.
