

Martin Hawkins and Terence O'Donoghue were found a box of matches and nails, one of which was covered with a small box like a writing desk was also discovered. They were brought up at the trial, when, as will be seen elsewhere, they were sentenced to take their trial at the Quarter Sessions for burglary and larceny, Mr. M'Leod, S. P. O. will have further enquiries instituted into the matter. It appears the prisoners got into the habit of climbing up the side of a water pipe. There will be a stag hunt and regatta on the Lake on the 21st August. Arrangements are in progress, whereby tourists from all parts of the country shortly be enabled to visit Connemara and the lakes at very low rates. A young man named O'Brien died at Killaloe last week, from glanders, which he caught from his horse. Miss O'Connell, Miss Kelly, Mrs. Molony, and her son, very nearly died of cholera, being poisoned on Sunday, at Ennistymon, by eating for their breakfast a cake, in which was mixed, in mistake for bread soda. Dr. O'Connell was promptly in attendance, and to his extraordinary providence, they owe their speedy recovery. A young man named O'Connell was struck on the head on Sunday by a stone which a man named Skerritt, who was travelling with some others on the road between Ennistymon and Woodmount, threw with great force. He lingered till Saturday last, when he died. A coroner's inquest was held on the body, and a verdict of manslaughter was returned against the man named Skerritt. A young man named O'Connell was robbed of £45 on Friday, at the Ennistymon Petty Sessions on Wednesday. A young man named Kelly, was sent to gaol for a week, for having been on the roof of Mr. John Martin's house, and having broken his chimney for the purpose of catching fish. A young woman named O'Connell had her pocket picked on Friday last at the cross of William-street. A young man named O'Connell was fined 10s. and costs at the Coroner's Court, on Wednesday, for selling spirits without a licence. The Court of Bankruptcy, on Friday, ordered a person named George Creed, refused to sign a declaration, because it contained the words "religious belief," on the ground that he was an avowed Athiest. A young man named O'Connell, who has just returned from Peru, has discovered that guano is produced from fetid seals, on the islands, and not from droppings of birds. The direct steam communication between Glasgow, which will be of great advantage to the public.

At St. George's church, County Dublin. John Bragwell, Esq. of the county Tipperary to Agnes Sarah, youngest daughter of Frederick Lindsey, Esq. DL and JP, of Mountjoy-square.
 In St. Peter's church, Dublin. Thompson M. M'Clintock, Esq. of Hampstead hall, Londonderry, late Captain 91st Regt. to Sarah Maria, elder daughter of the Rev John Coningham M'Canisland, incumbent of Killylea, Armagh.
 At Mohill church, county Leitrim. John, youngest son of Robert Devanish, Esq. JP. Rush-hill, county Roscommon, to Elizabeth Frances daughter of the late Thomas Jones, Esq.
 In St. George's church, Charles F. Phillips, Esq. of Philipshurst, to Caroline Jane, youngest daughter of the late Lodge Phillips, Esq. of Lodgefield, both in the Queen's County.
 At Tully, county Longford, the Rev. James Mawhinny, Athlone, to Mary Caroline, only child of the late Capt. Thos. Walsh, 5th Fusiliers.
 At Newark, Charles John Blagg, Esq. of Abbot's Hay, Chesdale, Staffordshire, to Frances Caroline, daughter of the late James Footitt, vicar of Farnsfield, and Barnby-in-the-Willows Notts.
 At Chesham, Bucks, the Rev. James L. Gilborne, Her Majesty's Forces, Pembroke Dock Garrison, to Maria, daughter of Mark Dewnap, Esq. of Hammersmith.
 At Goddington, Thomas D. Acland, Esq. to Mary, daughter of the late John Erskine, Esq. of Gore house, Kensington.
 At St. George's, Hanover-square, Adolphus F. W. Lloyd, to Mathilde Catherine Vantini
 At Newark church, Mr. Robert Lounds, to Miss H. O'Connell, formerly of Goddington.
 In Griffintown, Massachusetts Mr. George Peacock, Printer, (late of Limerick), to Jane Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. Charles Kyte, of Chenneville-street.
 At Chicago, US, James Sproat Johnson, Esq. late of Ball's-bridge Mills, now of the firm of Swift, Brother and Johnston, bankers, Chicago, to Miss Paine, of that city.

DEATHS.

At Killea, on Friday last, the beloved wife of John C. Palmer, Esq. Superintendent of the Monster establishment of Anson & Co. George's-street, and of Richmond Terrace, in this city. The death of this endearing lady, in the prime of life, is a source of deep regret, and has cast a gloom of sorrow amongst her family and friends.
 In Shannon street, Limerick, Mrs. Barry Ryan, relict of the late Mathew Barry Ryan, Esq.
 In Dublin, aged 48, Mr. William Magrath, a native of this city.
 On Friday morning last, at Doyle's Hotel, Tipperary, after a few days illness, Richard Hoops, Esq. of Leigh House, near Thurles.
 In Dublin, Mr. John Cannon.
 At Rathgar, Maria, daughter of Richard Worthington, Esq.
 At Drumcondra-hill, Mr. Wm. McIlwaine.
 In North Richmond-street, Rebecca, relict of the late John Young, Esq. of Castlelea, county Roscommon
 At Church Avenue, Leishtown, Eleanor, relict of the late Mr. George Macklin, of Dublin.
 At Drumcliff house, county Roscommon, George Digby, Esq. JP.
 At Kesh, Newtown Stewart, aged 89, Lady Heron Maxwell, daughter of Sir John Shaw Heron Maxwell, Bart. of Springfield, Dumfriesshire.
 At St. James's, Major James Douglas De Wend, staff officer of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards.
 At Rathfriland, late of the Royal Artillery, Col. Thomas Vincent Lettbridge.
 The Rev. John Water Jordan, rector of Waterstock, County Wick, aged 84.
 At Waterstock, aged 80, Captain (Brevet-Major) Thomas Long

Lot 16—Part of said lands, containing 32p. statute measure, upon which a large building has been erected in erecting an excellent dwelling known as "Albert Villa" demesne, producing the yearly rent of 116l. 11s. 5s. per annum.
 Lot 17—Part of said lands, containing 32p. statute measure; there is a portion of the Crown, and other portions are set for grazing producing the yearly rent of 58l. 9s. 0d. per annum.

Signed this 7th day of May, 1856
JOHN LOCKE

DESCRIPTIVE PARTICULARS OF THE CITY OF LIMERICK PROPERTY TO BE SOLD IN THE CITY OF LIMERICK

The property to be sold in the City of Limerick is situate in the most central and best part of the city, and consists of dwelling houses in George-street, and extensive corn houses in other districts of the city, the sums of money have been recently advanced for the purchase of the same. Also, the head rent of Custom House government offices attached, and premises out of nursery grounds and premises adjoining the present Terminus of the Waterford Railway. Proposals for purchase, by private contract, or any of the lots, will be received by the Solicitor having the carriage of the same, on or before the 1st day of July next, and submitted to the Board of Commissioners for the City of Limerick, at the City Hall, Limerick, by the Solicitor having the carriage of the same.

The fee-simple Lands of Corbally, in the parish of St. Nicholas, and rough of Limerick, scarcely a mile from the centre of the City, bounded on three sides by the River Shannon, the very prime quality of Townparks, and be sold, contains about 285a statute measure. The rents, the greater number of which are thoroughly secured, and are upon which large sums have been expended in building of beautiful modern Villas and Mansions, with Out-offices and ornaments, and are for the chief part held by the well-known and extensive Messrs. Russell, Esq. and Sons, called Corbally, which, nearly 20,000l. have been expended upon the Lands, and the celebrated Lax Weir, abuts upon Corbally. From the immediate contiguity of the City of Limerick, their delightful situations, and the trout fishing in the River Shannon, and trout fishing in the River Shannon surround them, Corbally has been the favourite retreat for many years to the wealthy and aristocratic of the City. The Lands command a view of the City. The Lands command a view of the City.