THE Half-yearly Examinations were held proto Vacation, when Prizes (amounting to seven) were awarded to those young Gentlemen distinguished themselves by their answering.
Examinations were carried on as usual by p-papers; any person, therefore, that may wish the style of those questions, can have one of ea-the papers on application to Mr. HERBERT.
Lists have been forwarded to the several Parent Guardians, by which they can see at a glance position their boys occupy in each particular B-of Study. Mr. H. will be most happy to send these Lists to any one that may desire to see th-

In consequence of the daily increasing impo-the services of a Professor of French and G(a Parisian) as a Resident Master, whose wholis to be devoted to the instruction of those Bra-and, thereby, a great opportunity will be af-to the boys of acquiring a knowledge of sp-those Languages, Mr. H. is assisted in the Branches of the Study by six first-rate Masters of whom are resident in the School. One of Masters time is altogether devoted to the very boys, for whom there is a distinct Schoolroom.

Boarders are under the constant eye of the Pri-One of the Masters always remains in the play during the play hours, and communication wit-
