DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at the Rectory, Croom, Mary Jane, the beloved and dearly attached daughter of the Rev. Edward Croker, the excellent rector of Croom. The death of this amiable young lady—snatched away in the bloom of youth and pride of beauty—has been a source of the most poignant grief to her family and friends. Gifted and accomplished she seemed destined to live many a year, diffusing happiness through whatever circle she mingled—but “whom the Gods love die young.” Her lamented remains will be interred tomorrow at the cemetery of the Croker family, Croom.
