's Mind for the late Right Rev. Dr Bishop of Cloyne, took place this day er which the clergy of the diocese pro-election of his successor. The Right n left Park House yesterday to be present n. We understand that it is likely that e election will be the choice of the Rt. ne, Bishop of Ross, as successor to Dr. that the diocese of Cloyne and Ross will efore, the latter being a very small one, f which is insufficient to maintain the of the episcopal office. Dr. Kane is a
