

that a statement of the
the Office of the Treas-
the Town Hall, Rutland-
the Rate Payers.
January, 1857.
SEPH MURPHY,
the Borough of Limerick.

S T,
a BROWN WATER
ANIEL.
will be given, if sent to Mr.

January 21.

Profession.

Apothecary to the County has a Vacancy for an Intern properly qualified Young on affords one of the best (known) of studying his Pro-as heretofore, and enjoying tion.

AFFAIRS.

IMPORTANT THINGS.
than Oranges—I can supply
aring.
all the timber in Ireland.
e without fine plants, shrubs,
ancholy.
with the new peaches, pears,
, &c., &c., is essential.
fences gives warmth and pro-rops and you will have plenty attle.
a well stocked green-house—a o the ladies.
he above wants on as liberal er man, having lately added
e Nursery Department. FRUIT
SES, SCARLET, WHITE, CRIM-
t Rhododendrons, Camellias,
ble other beautiful things.
post or at my Nurseries, Pal-promptly attended to.
WILLIAM WILSON,
Asparagus, 20s. per 1000,

At Aberdeen, Capt. James Henry, Esq., eldest son of James Wyatt, Esq. of Bangor, to Jane Forbes, daughter of William Hogarth, Esq. Aberdeen.
At Dover, Griffin Nicholas, Esq. Major (retired full pay) 5th Fusiliers, to Fanny, second daughter of the late John Scriven, Esq. of Sandgate, Kent, surgeon.
At Old Charlton, Kent, by the Rev. G. Batho, Arthur Lloyd Monk, Esq., 32d Regt., to Anne Cole, eldest daughter of Capt.
G. W. Baker.
At Naples, Joseph Lewis Franklin, Esq. to Susan St. Clair third and youngest daughter of Francis Dennis Massey Dawson, Esq.
At Shahjehampore, Bengal Presidency, Lieut. Alexander
Key, 28th BNI, to Mary E. L., daughter of the late Lt-Col W.
Rutherford.
At Ahascragh, Martin Colahan, Esq., of Ballyeigher, co
Galway, to Amelia, daughter of Joseph Sharpe, Esq.,
At the Church of St Francis, East Hedden, John Ganly Esq.
Serpentine Creek, to Miss Kate O'Shaughnessy, third, and amiable daughter of the late David O'Shaughnessy, Esq.

DEATHS.

At 53 Upper Saokville-street, James B. Ellis, Esq. aged 38 years.
At Dublin, aged 52 years, Mr. D. B. Duggan, of Bristol.
At Rathmines, the Rev. Dr. O'Connell, of Waterford.
At Chapalizod, County Dublin, aged 72 years, Miss Sarah Teresa Lawler,
At his residence, 28, Pembroke-place, Alderman Fry, in the 53d year of his age,
At 78, Ranelagh Road, Dublin, William Andrews, Esq.,
At Rutland-square, North, Henrietta, wife of Rev. W. C.
O'Neill,
At No. 12 Mountjoy-street, Mrs. Elizabeth Skelly.
At Rathmines, Mr. Robert Maunsel White.
In Dublin, Wm. de Boudry Falls.
At Miltown, co. Dublin, Anna Maria Sarah Walsh.
In Newcastle, Mr. Thomas Madigan, grocer and spirit merchant.
At Cheltenham, Miss Mary Anne Comyn.
At Badby house, Northamptonshire, Mary Ann, widow of Richard John Uniacke, Esq. Judge of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia.
In London, Colonel William Ovenden Massey, formerly of the Austrian service.
In Court Palace, the Hon. Mrs. Bradshaw.
At Stourhead, Wilts, Sir Hugh Richard Hoare, Bart.
At Great Wolford, Warwickshire, Margaret, relict of the late Rev. George Wheeler, and daughter of the late Charles Domville, Esq. of Santry house, county Dublin, and sister of Sir Compton Domville.
At Honiton, Devon, Annie Charlette, wife of Capt. John Corbett, Esq.
At Southwark, London, aged 48, G. W. Blanch, Esq. surgeon.
At Calcutta, John Dunbar, Esq. one of the Sudder Judges, son of the late the Hon. Sir Archibald Dunbar, Bart. of Northfield, Elgin, NB.
In Jamaica, Charles Le Gallais, Esq. Lieutenant Royal Engineers, youngest son of Mr. Judge Le Gallais, of Jersey.
At Ballarat, Australia, Penelope, wife of John Henry Harris, Esq. solicitor, and youngest daughter of Capt. J. R. R.
Webb, RN
At Gort, Anne, relict of the late John Shannon, of Cahirduff, co. Clare.
At the Deanery house, Clogher, Lieut. Thomas Francis Mande, 15th Hussars.
At New York, Mr. Walter Spring, master tailor, formerly of Limerick.
At Cambridge, Dr. Tatham.
At Rapla, Jane Jackson, aged 85 years.
At Honiton, Anne Charlette, wife of Capt. John King, HM's 50th Regt. Town Major of Hong Kong, and only daughter of Col. M'Pherson, Inspecting Field Officer of York.

under the above heads, and be had on applying to me. Pr-der (none other than which, excetishment, and Shoeing Mule) will be also had gratis from me.
Samples must, in all cases whpany Tenders; but the Board o-hold themselves responsible for Supplies must be delivered, free
which may be sent as Packing,
free of expense for carriage.
Tenders must be sealed, addre-Chairman, and endorsed "Te-case may be.

By Order,

Clerk's Office, 15th Jan.

FISH AGE

GEORGE

For many years the Principa

VENDING ALL KIN

MOST respectfully returns have honoured him wit
Fish, and pledges himself, if fa-ance of their support, to merit gence and integrity he has hi long experience, and numerou and elsewhere, he is enabled to the highest market price, for employ his services.

G. G. having Agents in Li
London, is constantly forward places.

Commands received at G.
Wholesale Fish Market; or January 21.

GREAT SOUTHERN Railway C

IRELA

NOTICE IS HEREBY
for Books will be Close
DAY, the 29th day of Janu
DAY, the 28th day of F inclusive; and that the D
Proprietors, for the Half-ye 2856, will be Payable to the the date of the next Half-ye

By Order of t

WILL

Kingsbridge Terminus
Dublin, January 17th, 1