DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his residence, Brunswick-street, aged 30 years after an illness of two days, Mr. William Burgess, jun of the firm of Burgess & Son, to the inexpressible grief of his widow and family. How sadly has the Scriptural saying been verified in this instance—"Truly in the midst of life we are in death." But two days since, in the bloom of youth and strength of manhood, with every prospect of a long life—his death has made desolate a happy home and has severed domestic ties, the close bond of which in happy unity is the brightest blessing and sweetest comfort this earthly life affords. Beloved in his family circle for his amiable disposition, and endeared to his friends by the genuine warmth of an honest, manly heart, he won the respect of all who knew him by his strict integrity and engaging manners. The only consolation left to his bereaved widow and family is, that as he practised a life of virtue here, he died trusting in the merits of his Redeemer to reward him with everlasting happiness in the world to come. His lamented remains will be interred in St. Munchin's church on Tuesday morning.
