England is so proud, and that I shall be always ready to earnestly co-operate in carrying any Measure having for their object the settlement of the Land Question, on a surer basis, and one which will give Tenant security for real improvements, without justice to the rights of the Landlord.

In conclusion, it will be my constant endeavour to promote every Measure tending to advance the material Interests of Ireland, and to ameliorate the condition of the People.

I have the honour to be
Your obedient Servant,
LUKE WHITE
