

BUILDINGS, LIMERICK.
 lished 1803.
 Freshfield, M.P., P.R.S.,
 Chairman.
 Esq., Deputy Chairman.
 Esq., M.P., Treasurer.

be prepared to entertain propo-Life Business for the above
 ty afforded to persons insuring, erate, which can be known on

Thony and Son,
 BE INSURANCE AGENTS.
 AND SALES IN THE
 SH FUNDS TRANSACTED
 STOCK PRICES DAILY

Fire Premiums due 25th March, livery, and should be paid on or ril.

APRIL 3RD, WILL BE PUB-LISHED,
 FIRST NUMBER OF
LIMERICK DISPATCH,
 ARE ADVERTISER.
 NEWSPAPER, PRICE 3D.

gress, when almost every Town
 e Kingdoms has its own Weekly
 ed strange, that the large and im-

LIMERICK AND CLARE,
 long without one. Talented and re the existing Papers, yet it is felt ey never can fully supply the want y Journal. Under these circum-

LIMERICK DISPATCH,
 CLARE ADVERTISER,
 tence, not as the organ of any sect
 e faithful and unbiassed exponent sing events, especially those having e Trade, Manufactures, and Agritricts; giving at the same time a ll the News of the week,—Home, estic; with every information usually ns of a Weekly Newspaper.
 n has been fixed at such a moderate
 it within the reach of every House-an Adverting medium, (being the spaper published in Limerick.)

THE DISPATCH
 eive that Support from Advertisers, t once our interest and our study to advance.....3sOn credit, 4s.

3d.
 tions to be addressed to
S MAGUIRE, Proprietor,
 No. 20, George's-street, or No. 3,
 enry-street, Limerick.

Agnes, widow of the late Thomas Grove, Hertford.
 Feb. 12, at Quebec, Serjeant John Gould Inasdell, 17th Regt. to Miss Sarah Anne Kerr, of Quebec; and on the same day, Serjeant James Smart, 17th Regt. to Miss Jane Kerr, of Quebec.
 In Calcutta, Capt. James Wallace, ship Malakhoff, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Mr. John Young, late of HM Customs, Liverpool, and formerly of Derry.

DEATHS.

At his residence, at Lisinisky, near Knockaderry, after a long illness, John Langford, Esq. aged 67 years—a gentleman endeared to all who knew him, for the kindness and goodness of his disposition; a good neighbour, a true and sincere friend, remarkable for his hospitality and charity to the poor. He has been sincerely regretted by his neighbours, with whom he was on the most friendly terms.
 March 25th, at Kingstown, at an advanced age, Edward Ferrar, Esq. son of the late John Ferrar, Esq. of Limerick.
 In Cork, Mary, relict of the late Lt-Col. Wilson, and niece of General Blunt, of Southampton.
 In Taylor-street, Mr. Daniel Kennedy.
 In Galway, Miss Maria Bloomfield.
 At Corbally, near Ballinasloe, Mrs. Mary Whyte, mother of the Rev. F. Whyte, CC Portumna.
 On Friday last, at Kilkee, aged 5 years, Bedelia, daughter of B. Behen, Esq.—a beautiful and interesting child.
 At the residence of his mother, New-street, Mallow, Master
 James Daly, aged 17 years
 In Waterford, Edward Commins, Esq. an old and respected citizen.
 At Thurles, Thomas Henesy, Esq. for many years chairman of the town commissioners.
 At Ballygarvey, near Tagoat, county Wexford, Margaret, relict of the late Gregory Scallan, Esq.
 At Ballyregan, county Wexford, Anne, wife of Mr. Thomas Devereux.
 At Granby-row, Robert Ball, Esq. LL.D. Dr. Ball for many years filled the office of Curator to the Museum of TCD, and was Secretary to the Queen's University in Ireland.
 In Dublin, Hugh, the infant son of William Nevin Wallace, Esq. of Downpatrick.
 At Rathmines, Sarah Alicia Telford, second daughter of the late John Telford, of Ballyboughlin, King's County.
 In Syngestreet, Mrs. Fetherston, the wife of Mr. William Fetherston.
 At the Glebe, Clane, aged four years, William Arthur, son of the Rev. W. Caulfeild, rector of Clane.
 Thomas Knox Kelly, Esq. MD.
 In Dublin, Jonathan Hill, Esq. aged 70.
 William Henry, third son of the Rev. Loftus T. Shire.
 Anne, wife of William Corbet, Esq. MD, Dundrum, and daughter of the late John Costigan, Esq. of Rathmines.
 At Killick Lodge, county Kildare, Miss Bridget Coffy, aged 80 years.
 In Dublin, Mr. Patrick Martin.
 In Dublin, Mr. Henry Baylee, printer.
 At Galgorm, Mr. George Raphael, aged 88.
 In Monaghan, Mr. Mathew Vallely.
 At Tunbridge-wells, the Lady Susan Maria Hotham.
 The Rev. John Bluck, rector of Walsoken, Norfolk.
 The Lady Caroline Graham, daughter of James, late Duke of Montrose.
 The Countess Dowager of Westmorland, daughter of Dr.
 Saunders, of Lymington.
 In London, Marian, widow of the late R. C. Walker, Esq.
 MD, 3d Light Dragoons.
 At Stonehouse, Admiral Henry Manaton Omanney, Reserved Half Pay, aged 82.
 Alice Mary, third daughter of the late Lt-Col. Oakley, 56th Regiment.
 At Redhill, Surrey, Dr. Brinsley William Hewitson Nicholson, F.R.C.S., Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals.
 At Ramsgate, Elizabeth, widow of Lt-Col. the Hon. John Massy, and daughter of the late Edward Homewood, Esq. of Maidstone.
 Suddenly, in a railway carriage, the Rev. Dr. H J Symonds.
 It was Dr. Symonds who read the burial service over the body of Sir John Moore, at Corunna.
 At Lisbon, aged 23, Grace Caroline, wife of Ladislau da Salva Franco, Esq. daughter of Major Cotter, KISPS, and granddaughter of the late Edward Cotter, Esq. of Bandon.
 At Niagara, Canada West, James Edward, youngest son of the late Deputy Assistant Commissary General Allinson.

of Mr. Adair, allow me to attend the second days poll,
 at all, unless absolutely requi
 I have the honour to
 Your obd
 Of
 (Who has left his name at March 31st, 1857.

County Limer

RESIGNATION OF
A T A MEETING of
ADAIR'S Election,
 Esq., J.P., in the Chair.
 Mr. Adair having been ca of his Canvass through the
 that the very great majorit
 the Western side of the C support him, and there bei
 Rev. Mr. Maher, Mu
 Rev. James Ryan, P
 Rev. Mr. O'Brien, P
 Rev. Mr. Hackett, C
 Rev. Mr. Meagher, I
 Lieut.-Colonel Dickson,
 Lowe, A. Tomkins, Esq..
 S. Dwyer, Esq., J.P., W Costelloe, Esq., Coroner.
 thy O'Brien, Esq, Mr. Ev Esq., and several others,

It was proposed by Rev
 unanimously,
 "That this Committee
 report of his Canvass, ar
 friends as to the prospect that, under the circumsta
 able to continue a contest
 doubtful."

They wish to express
 Adair's straightforward putting himself into the regret his late appearanc
 sole reason for his withdr

But this meeting deen
 itself to record its delibe
 bers of Parliament supp
 of which the leading pr Constituencies do not f
 the trust reposed in the duty to the Country.

April 1.

I HEREBY notify to accountable for any MARGARET DREAPER fr
 rick or elsewhere.
 April 1, 1857.

A LADY'S Diamon
 in pearls.—The
 tion to CONSTABLE NA
 the expenses.
 April 1.