

MENTS.

wledges £3
uction of the
m. Johnson, use, 5s.; and stant Orphan

ully acknow-tributions :—
sh of Porteen
ale, 197.

gratefully ac-
an Quinlivan

artnell, Esq,
Rose Esq.
rd Grubb, G.
n, and Wil-

ost gratefully
Earl of Dune—their lord-
new laundry.
ost gratefully
ring contribuch collections
and decrepid,
ent, in Lon-Sisters of the reet Convent,
y. Newport,
r and Murroe,
; Cappamore,

ms as may be

Thomas-street
ay, Dublin.

ER A L D ,

Public that he nies :—
ANY.

ANCE SOCIETY.
MANUFACTORY.
Y'S

s, bridges, iron ratus wire net-achines, iron

D PLAISTER OF

ILE, FIRECLAY

ND CASUALTY

ANCE COMPANY
ASSURANCE

MPANY:

try, and Cash
Sales.

ALD,
reet, Limerick.

Esq. of Dublin.

DEATHS.

In Upper William-street, Mrs. Hanly, widow of Mr. James Hanly, Classical Teacher, and daughter of the late Captain Deane, 18th Hussars.

In Rutland-street, aged four years, Joseph, son of Mr. Francis Ryan, carver and gilder.

At Killaloe, on the 6th inst. Kate, daughter of Mr. Sylvester Hurley, aged 16 years.

In Kilrush, aged 4 years, William, the interesting child of William Foley, Esq. MD.

On the 7th inst. John Lee, of Ballymartin, parish of Manister—sincerely regretted by a numerous circle of relatives and friends.

At Ballincollig, Selina Moore Hodder, last surviving daughter of the late Col. Hodder, of Hoddersfield.

In Clenmel, suddenly, Mr. Samuel Bradford, the eminent cutler.

At Mallow, Henrietta, daughter of George Westropp, Esq. of that town.

In Cork, Miss Maria Long, daughter of the late John Long, Esq. of Rathourcy, county Cork.

Mr Michael Ryan, of Ballinvarig, Minanebridge.

At Rahard, John Thomas Rowland, Esq. eldest son of the late Richard Rowland, Esq. of Hermitage, county Cork.

At Ballysax Rectory, of scarlatina, Maria, wife of Thomas Collins Simon, Esq.

At Claremont Cottage, Glasnevin, Catherine Maria Josephine, the wife of Edward Hely, of Lower Ormond-quay, aged 34 years.

In Rathgar, Eliza Jane, wife of Mr. Thomas Carter, and daughter of Mr. Wm. Fitzsimons, of Enniskillen.

In Edgeworthstown, aged 81, Frances, wife of George Cowen, Esq. of that town.

John Lawrence Mathews, only child of Thomas Mathews, Esq. of Kingstown.

In Dublin, Mr. Augustus Tighe.

At Portarlinton, aged 82, Mr. John M. Moore.

At the residence of his son, Woodlawn, county Kildare, John Wolseley, Esq. MD.

At Charlemont-place, William Arthur, youngest son of Mr. Roger Horner, aged 2 years and 8 months.

At Clontumpher, near Drumlish, county Longford, the Rev. John Stephenson.

In Roscommon, Mr. Michael Grealy.

H. P. O'Connor Moore, eldest son of Sir R. E. Moore, Bart. aged 17 years.

At Mertoun hall, county Down, John Harrison, Esq. DL, JP, aged 73.

At Ballymena, Dr. John Duffin, 43d Regt. late of the staff.

William Clarke, late of Philadelphia, US, and second son of John Thompson, Esq. Craigmount Cottage.

At Miltown, Dunboe, Mr. William Graham, aged 94.

In Belfast, Mr. Charles Hardin, late of the 77th Regt.

In Aldersgate-street-buildings, London, Mr. William Gough, son of the late Hugh Gough, Esq. Limerick.

At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Mary Gertrude Wallis, only daughter of Lt-Col. Wallis, of Drishane Castle, county Cork.

At Salisbury, Sophia, daughter of the late Major H. A. Boscawen, BNI.

Lord William Fitzroy, third son of the third Duke of Grafton.

After a short illness, Admiral Lord Radstock.

In London, the Hon. Col. Henry Sutton Fane.

At Lincoln, Capt. Francis Kennedy, formerly of the 51st Regt. Light Infantry.

In London, aged 93, the Dowager Lady St. John Mildmay, of Dogmersfield Park, Hants, widow of Sir Henry Paulett St. John Mildmay, Bart.

In London, Agnes, widow of Sir David James Hamilton Dickson.

At Brixton, Charles Boyd, Esq. late Surveyor General of HM Customs.

At Brighton, David Trevena Coulton, Esq. editor of the Press newspaper.

At Hackney, the Rev. B. Woodyard.

At Margate, Catherine Amelia, daughter of the late Captain F. Darby, HEIOS, aged 19 years; also Alice Leita, aged 11 months, daughter of the late Edward P. Beverly, MRCS, of the same town, and grandchild of the abovenamed Captain F. Darby.

At Crewe, James, eldest son of Quartermaster Hollis, half pay 69th Regt.

At Weston-super-Mare, Harriet, fourth daughter of the late Sir Joseph Huddart, of Brynkrir, Caernarvonshire.

At Ayr, Margaret Kibble, relict of the late Captain George Stirling, formerly of the 9th Foot.

In France, Major Irvine, late of the Carabineers.

In Salem, Mass, US, Mr. Edmond Keating, late of Barne, county Tipperary.

At Bushire, Persia, Joseph Francis, youngest son of Mr. Patrick Dowdall, proprietor of the "Newry Examiner."

heartburn, palpitation of the heart, deafness, noises in the head and ea
of the stomach and between the st eruptions of the skin, impurities blood, scrofula, cough, asthma, c rheumatism, gout; nausea and si nancy, after eating, or at sea; l cramps, epileptic fits, spleen, gene ude, sleeplessness, involuntary blu mors, dislike to society, unfitness memory, delusions, vetigo, blood tion, melancholy, groundless fear chedness. It is, moreover, the be and invalids, generally, as it neve weakest stomach, nor interferes diet, but imparts a healthy relish f and restores the faculty of digesti muscular energy to the most enfee

Important Caution against the spurious imitations :—

The Vice Chancellor, Sir Wi
granted an injunction on the 10th Alfred Hooper Nevill, for imitati
valenta Arabica Food."

BARRY DU BARRY & CO.,
London

A few out of 50,000 cures are he Cure No. 71, of dyspepsia, from Lord Stuart De Decies, "I have benefit from Du Barry's Revalenta consider it due to yourselves and rise the publication of these lines.

From the Dowager Countess
Cure 52,612.—Rostrevor, Coun
9th December, 1854.

The Dowager Countess of Cast in the interest of suffering humani Barry's excellent Revalenta Arab her, after all Medicines had failed great nervousness and irritability
ing. This Food deserves the confi and may be considered a real ble be cheerfully answered.

Cure No. 49,832—"Fifty years from dyspepsia, nervousness, asth tion, flatulency, spasms, sickness vomiting, have been removed by food.

MARIA JOLLY, Wartham Ling,
Cure No. 47,121—Miss Elizabeth
Vicarage, Waltham Cross, Hert nervousness, indigestion, gatherin nervous fancies.

Cure No. 48,314—Miss Elizabeth acre, near Liverpool; a cure of
and all the horrors of nervous irr

Cure No. 3,906—Thirteen year and general debility, have been r
excellent Revalenta Arabica Foo

Athol-street, Perth.
Suitably packed for all clima structions. In canisters, at 1s. 1
4s. 6d.; 5lb 11s.; 12lb. 22s.; 11b. 6s.; 2lb. 11s.; 5lb. 22s.;
and 12lb. Canisters are forward receipt of Post-office order. Ba 77, Regent-street, London; Fo Purveyors to her Majesty, 182
following agents :—
Limerick—Thomas Carmody, street; Kilrush, Jos. Brennan
Oct. 7.