

CHRISTIANITY
NEWS.
read on the Past
Future Prospects DAY Evening next,
tant Young Men's y the Rev. J. C.
Chair to be taken

Consumers

Debenturers will be 5 per cent., less by t, on application to office, 15, Thomas made direct by the House

the Board of Superolon SATURDAY, ty Court House and pecifications, now at enters works, to be une next.
the Governor County

Independent ON,

ON FITZGERALD, ALE,

h JUNE.

and Independent of Complimenting is constant advocacy
o send in their names
bers must necessarily

DONOVAN,
Sec. to Banquet.
10s.

Union.

l, on THURSDAY.
onsiders TENDERS for Inserting all the NION at per Adver-ll Advertisements for e Number of Lines.
ved by me up to

MOORE,
Clerk of Union.

(2p)

Union.

HKEALE UNION

MAY Inst., als for N G

Work-house, incluital, &c.
k must clearly specify Paint is to be made,
he Paint when mixed.
Woodwork, and the ll be completed.
to the approval of the proval of such person
e same.

work, properly ento 12 o'Clock on the Board, L FITZGIBBON,

rk of Union.

In London, Frederic John Scheller, Lient AD, to Elizabeth Josephine Halladay, youngest daughter of the late Captain Halladay.

In Cheitenham, Thomas Jones, Esq. youngest son of the late Edward Jones, Esq. of Velindre, in the county of Carmarthen, to Jeanette, daughter of Lewis Price Jones, Esq. of Glannyrannell, in same county, formerly Captain in HM's 15th Regt. of Light Dragoons.

At Frankfort-on-the-Maine, James Henry Hill, Esq. of Riga, to Catherine, second daughter of R. Logan, Esq. formerly of HM 12th Lancers, and Valewood, Sussex.

In New York, Thomas Bligh, of the county Cavan, Ireland, to Anna Maria, daughter of John Smithson, Esq. of Dublin, Ireland.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday evening, in Patrick-street, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. M. Ryan, aged 77 years, Mr. John Cook, very sincerely regretted by his family, to whom he was most affectionately attached by all those ties which endear a fond parent to kind and confiding children, as also to a very large circle of acquaintances, who respected him while living for his truly amiable disposition. Mr. Cook was an old and respectable citizen of Limerick, highly connected, and in his business dealing was remarkable for the strictest probity and integrity. After the passing of the Reform Act, Mr. Cook became a member of the Limerick Town Council.

Wednesday morning, at his residence, Blackrock, county Dublin, Major Charles Kingsley—deeply regretted by his family and large circle of friends.

At Shamrock Cottage, near Corofin, after a few hours illness, Laurence Foley, Esq.

In Shannon-street, Mr. James Pierce, car proprietor.

In Charleville, Mr. Patrick Murphy.

At Barnacarroil, county Mayo, Capt. John Thomas Egan, formerly of the Galway Militia.

In Galway, Annie, child of Mr. Myles Ward, of that town, merchant.

In Galway, Mrs. Broughall, mother of Dr. Broughall, of the Galway Dispensary.

In Bandon, Robert S. Wheeler, Esq. apothecary.

In Cork, Anne, wife of Mr. Gibbs R. Dyer.

At Killeshandra, county Cavan, aged 16, after a short illness, Belinda, the youngest daughter of the late William Sheridan, Esq. of Killeshandra.

At Castleblayney, John Henry Boyle, Esq.

In Lower Mountpleasant-avenue, Alice, relict of the late John Harley, Esq.

In Eccles-street, Mrs. Frances Stewart, widow of the late Abraham Stewart.

The Rev. John Smith, for many years pastor of St. James's parish, Dublin.

In Dublin, Charles H. Jordan, Esq. a native of Ballyhaunis, Mayo

In Dublin, Mrs. Harley, relict of the late John Harley, Esq. of Clonroad house, near Ennis.

At Riversdale, Holywood, county Down, Louisa Nora, daughter of James Strachan, Esq. Inspector of Branches Provincial Bank of Ireland.

Eliza, relict of George Guy, Esq. late of Reading, Berkshire, and daughter of Richard Corbet, Esq. Rock Lodge, county Cork.

Mr. Frederick Scott Archer, to whom the world is indebted for the perfection of photography, by his discovery of the colodion process.

At Elgin crescent, Kensington gardens, Captain Robert Pollock.

In Edinburgh, Eliza, relict of John Collis, Esq. of Grangemore house, county Kildare.

Frederick, third son of John Levion, Esq. of Devonshire-place, late Lieutenant 15th Regt. Bombay NI.

At Norwich, Henry Burton, Esq.

At Ryhall, Rutlandshire, Proby George, the infant son of Lieut-Colonel R. Cautley.

At York, George William Vernon, infant son of Lieut-Col. Erskine, Military Train.

Mary Anne, wife of Charles Morrell, Esq. of Sloane-street, and Wallingford, Berks.

In London, Sarah, wife of Hilary Evans Jefferys, Esq. late of the Island of Jersey.

In Glasgow, James Reid Hunter, Esq. of Cessnock Hall, Lanarkshire.

At Plas Clough, near Denbigh, Mary, relict of the Rev. Henry Tatlock.

By an accident at Putney railway station, William Sprout Boyd, Esq.

James Gudge, Esq. clerk of the journals, House of Commons, aged 62.

At Surrey, Mrs. Sarah Isaacs.

William Potter, Esq. of London, merchant.

In London, Major Campbell HEICS.

In Glasgow, Ellen Smith Foote, wife of Lieut. Charles Henry Young, RN, HMS Blenheim.

Dr. Weekee, Bishop of Sierra Leone.

At Pau, Caroline, daughter of the late James Scott, Esq. of Shepperton.

At Pisa, Henrietta, relict of Lieut-General Henry Eustace, daughter of the late Peter Count D'Alton, of Grenanstown, granddaughter of Lieut-General Edward Count D'Alton, of the Imperial Service, and of Nicholas Lord Trimbleston.

At Beyrout, Syria, Jasper Chasseaud, Esq. late British V. Consul at Tyre, United States' Consul General for Syria and Palestine, Consul to their Majesties of Prussia, Russia, Sweden and Norway, and of Naples.

Mr. Frederick William Ollard, on his passage to Newfoundland.

Drowned at St. Thomas, with three of his crew, from his boat being swamped, and in consequence of giving up an oar to one of his men who could not swim, aged 24, Joseph Bushman, Esq. of the Royal West Indian Mail service, eldest son of Dr. J. S. Bushman, Fellow of the College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

At Enfield, near Sydney, N S Wales, William Hobart Seymour, Esq. late of HM 99th Regt., and youngest son of the late Admiral Sir Michael Seymour, Bart. KCB.

At Sydney, NSW, Alexander John, eldest son of the late Michael Evelyn, Esq. JP, of Waterford.

Brass, covered and lined—and placed on silver mountings, manufactured under his own supervision, and finished in the first style. A large and selected stock of Saddlery, comprising every article connected with the trade always on hand on reasonable Terms—No Second Price.

May

A CARD.

AUCTIONS AND VALUATIONS.

JOHN BERNAL

ACQUAINTS his many kind Friends, and who may require his Services, that Business of a pressing character necessitates his presence in London and Manchester for a few days.

Any Instructions left at his Establishment, George-street will be promptly arranged and carried out, on his return.

May 13.

Bank of England.

UNCLAIMED STOCK.

APPLICATION having been made to the Directors of the Bank of England to direct the re-transfer from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of the sum of £195,000 Reduced 3 per Cent Annuities, heretofore standing in the Names of FRANCIS BRODERIP, of Little Inn, Esq., and RICHARD BARRY, of Rathfriland, Esq., and which was transferred to the Commissioners, in consequence of the Dividends on not having been received since the 16th October 1845.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, on the expiration of three months from this date, the said Stock is to be transferred, and the Dividends thereon payable to FRANCIS BRODERIP, the Survivor, who claims the same, unless some other claimant sooner appear and make out his claim thereto.

May 16.

REDUCTION IN THE PRICES

OF

Genuine Wallsend Coal

RICHARD MILLER

HAVING availed himself of Low Freight reduced prices of Coal at the mines, and the advantages that defy competition, and is now bringing his first cargo of Wallsend Coal, at Quay (Palace) per the

"Sydney Jones,"

AT 24s. PER TON (MAST PRICE)

N.B.—They are double screened, fresh from the mines, very bituminous, clean and lasting.

Also the Cargoes per

"Fairy," "Ballot," and the "Amanoa" (UNLOADING AT HARVEY'S QUAY)

These vessels have on board a very large quantity of Coal for Housekeepers use, and are cheaper than any other at the low price of 19s per ton ex ship.

And on Sale at his Stores, ROCHE'S-STREET, Three Casks of very prime FISH, comprising Cod, and Pollock, half corned, cured and salted. RICHARD MILLER can confidently recommend them, and a trial as his intention is to be regularly supplied with all kinds of Fresh Fish, &c. at low prices, and shall have all parcels of Fish packed and forwarded.

Early application invited by

RICHARD MILLER,

ROCHE'S-STREET and UPPER CECIL-STREET, Limerick, 13th May, 1857.

Tenant-Right

THE Friends and Supporters of Tenant-Right Independent Opposition are hereby invited to a Public Meeting of the County will be held at Rathkeale on the 11th June, at 12 o'Clock, for the purpose of establishing a Club on the political principles of the Irish Independent Opposition Party.

DANIEL DOYL

Secretary of the Preparatory

May 9