

DEATHS.

On Charlotte's-quay, very deservedly lamented, the widow of the late Patrick Goulding, Esq. TC.

Last night, at the residence of her brother, Mr. William Latchford, Mrs. William Shine, of Lisamote Castle, Ballingarry, of disease of the lungs, brought on by a neglected cold.

At Farm Lodge, aged 6 years, Wilhelmina, third daughter of John Potter, Esq.

At Springfield, near Nenagh, James Vincent, aged 13 years, second son of Edward Flin, Esq.

In Dublin, at the advanced age of 85 years, Mrs. Blood.

At Cork, Mr. J. O'Connor, aged 81 years, one of the Christian Brothers.

In Middleton, Margaret, relict of the late James Nagle, Esq.

In Lismore, Maria, relict of Major Stephen Ormaby.

Edward Richards, Esq. of Harbour View, Courtown Harbour, county Wexford.

At Passage, Dorcas, seventh daughter of Thomas Parsons Boland.

At Fermoy, Color Serjeant J. Pierce, 48th Regt. a native of Galway.

In Kilkenny, Ellen, wife of Thomas Wall, Esq. merchant.

At Carysfort avenue, Blackrock, Mary, relict of Major Thomas Newcomen Edgeworth, of Kilshrewly, county Longford.

In Dublin, Sarah, wife of William Swaine Barrett, Esq.

In Dublin, Sydney, relict of John Connor, Esq. MD, Oakley Park, Portumna, and niece of the late Rev. George Lewis Shewbridge, FTCD.

At Fort View, Haddington-road, Daniel Scully, Esq. aged 75 years

At Rathmines road, Mr. Wm. C. Evans, jun.

At Armagh, Hester Emily, youngest child of the late Stewart Maxwell, Esq. of Armagh.

The infant son of Mr. Henry Webb, lessee of the Queen's Theatre.

On Sunday, at 4 o'clock, from the effects of strychnine, Lieut. William Dunlevie, of the Chatsworth Rifles, at Chatham Barracks, whither he came to see his brother.

At the Rectory, Pewsey, Wilts. the Hon. and Rev. Frederick P. Bouverie.

At the Moat, Charing, Kent, Lieut-Colonel Percy Groves, aged 85

At Liverpool, Capt. James Bickerstaff, HM 35th Regt.

At Newcastle-upon-Tyne, William Armstrong, Esq. an alderman and a magistrate of that borough.

At Plas Teg, Flintshire, Elizabeth Mary, wife of Capt. P. M. Briggs, 19th Regt. Bombay NI.

John Holdsworth, Esq. of Shaw Lodge, Halifax, in Yorkshire.

In Guernsey, Harriet, wife of Col. de Havilland, Madras Engineers.

At Hastings, Mary Ann, relict of the late James Middleton, Esq. of Funnival's-inn.

At Hackney, Mary Ann, wife of the Rev. John Gill, of Sudbury.

In Brighton, Elizabeth Jane, wife of George R. Gainsford, Esq. aged 56.

Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, wife of Richard Williams, Esq. of Bath.

In Regent's-park, Dr. Rowley.

At Deal, Sarah, wife of G. Curling, Esq.

At Holloway, Mary, daughter of the late Rev. Levi Walton, curate of Wendling and Longham, county of Norfolk.

James S. Dodd, Esq. of Portman-square.

At Croydon, Sarah, wife of Henry Stedall, Esq.

In Bath, the wife of Edward Harman, Esq.

At Old Charlton, Susan, daughter of the late Thomas Rawlings, Esq. of Somerset.

Daniel Olney, Esq. of Tring.

At Denmark-hill, Francis Morris, Esq.

John, youngest son of James Simpson, Esq. of the Clone, Wigtonshire.

At Dunkerque, France, Lt-Col. Colin Pringle, of his late Majesty's German Legion.

At Brussels, Margaret Lucy, only daughter of Capt. Laffan, RE, aged 3 years.

At Berhampore, Ensign Charles Mellish, 5th Madras Native Infantry.

At Bangalore, of cholera, Capt. Wm. T. K. Rolston, 14th Regt. MNI, Deputy Assistant Commissary General; and at Jaulnah, after the same fatal disease, Capt. George R. Rolston, 47th Regt. MNI, sons of the late Thomas Rolston, Esq.

MD. Staff Surgeon to the Forces at Malta.

On board the Gosforth, on his passage from India, Lieut-Colonel James Pratt, HM 9th Lancers.

Dated this 9th day of June, 185

JOHN LOCKE

DESCRIPTIVE PART

Lot 1.—The Mansion-house and namuck is situate within eight mile of Carrick-on-Suir, and fourteen of ford. It is beautifully situate in the banks of the Suir, a tidal river salmon and trout, and to which it of more than a mile. The ground quality, inclining towards the riv streams & springs, capable of being It is well planted. The house and off gardens, are of a superior descripti fish pond, containing more than se which commands a fall to the river feet, which can be rendered availa salmon weir attached to this esta and could easily be let to a solvent of 20l. per annum. This lot is w of any nobleman or gentleman des demesne and residence combining convenience, and in the vicinity of demesnes in Ireland, including Cu of the Marquis of Waterford, C Anner, &c. The timber on this lot at £1,527 3s.

Lot 2—The lands of Kilconnel raghrasna. These lands are situa ing from Cashel to Fethard, abou half from Cashel, and six from G tion of the Great Southern and V They have the advantage of th in the south of Ireland, being dis from Fethard, nine miles from T lenaule, and ten from Clonmel.

The quality of the land is very s that portion adjoining the Castle and dairy purposes, cannot be sur of Tipperary. Since the purcha the Incumbered Estates Court in seventy acres have been well laid

To a proprietor wishing to cor favourable an opportunity seldo chaser will be entitled to the po plantation acres on the 1st Nove

There are on the lands two sh ard and herd, three substantial two lime kilns in working orde prime quality, and an abundant

Lot 3—The portion of Kill Ballyvillode, forming part of thi six miles from the Pallas stat branch of the Great Southern a The portions of Timoline Upper the residue of Lot 3) are situ Doon, and about seven miles station.

For Rentals and further par Office of the Commissioners, Dublin; to

Mr. P. J. BYRNE
Messrs. KERNAN
tors, Lower Don
JAMES DILLON
having the carri
14, Upper Ormo