

connected with the Irish years ago, showing the of human wishes. The appointed Bishop of a ear translated to one of a that this Prelate had rank and consequence, imagine that his dignity nished if he should have possessed of wealth and order to accomplish his vast expense, and as the essors, it is said of him red the See against the his eyes, was merely a ed away, and entered distinctions are for ever looked back in a few e, he would have been o succeeded him could story, for it is a remark-d was oftener filled with humblest and lowest ld have been even more builder were he of his not at all thought unce. One of them had a the R. C. Church in his of an illegitimate father, a had been an insolvent, ly a tin-plate manufac-he grandson of a brave and country faithfully easing to think that the acle to the advancement ore pleasing that we live ent will in all likelihood rived in Lisdoonvarna of Cork, Dr. Keane, Rev. Dr. O'Shea, have of Bishop of Ross. The to the Pope, who is to who lately joined the ative of Tralee, and ne

Young Men's Society will for Adare, the Earl of phanage of Mercy is to Limerick to-morrow.

aid the first stone of a the Convent in Bruff, of this city, was apon Thursday, by the ointed parish priest of iafty, who has taken up or have received nearly

At Madras, Lieut. James Stewart, of the Madras Horse Artillery, to Louisa Charlotte, eldest daughter of the late William Butler, Superintending Surgeon Hyderabad Sub-diary Force.

At Allahabad, Lieut. G. H. Hawes, Interpreter and Quartermaster 6th Regt. Bengal Native Infantry, to Eliza Aurelia, eldest daughter of Major Bernard Carey, 6th Regt. Bengal Native Infantry.

DEATHS.

On the 11th inst. Henry Joseph, son of John Bouahier, Esq. of Frankfort, in this county—a very interesting child, aged two years and three months.

On Tuesday, the 14th inst. at West House, Galway, Arthur Gibbins Chester, Esq. youngest son of Rev. John Chester, late vicar of Ballyslough, county Cork.

On Thursday, the 16th inst. at Victoria Park, London, Eliza Jane, the infant daughter of William Goulding, Esq. of H. M.
Customs.

In Bandon Presentation Convent, Miss Shaw, daughter of Mr. Michael Shaw, RE, of Queen-street Limerick.

Yesterday, at Charlotte's-quay, Miss Catherine Boyle, aged 60 years.

In Castlebar, Kate, wife of G. B. Aston, Esq.

At Gurranekeagh, Kilmallock, Catherine, daughter of John O'Donnell, Esq.

In Borrisokane, Mrs. Baldwin, relict of the late Egan Bal-win, Esq. of Ballycolliston.

In Kilkenny, Kyran, son of Thomas Hayden, Esq.

The widow Myles, of Youghal.

Miss Rose White, of Cork.

In Birr, Mr. John Sutherland.

In Birr, Mr. William Taylor.

In Birr, Mrs. Maetler, aged 70.

At Rosebank, Merville, John Irvine, Esq. Surgeon RN, aged 72.

In Dublin, the Rev. William Augustus Dawson, son of the late Henry Dawson, Esq. of Drummarin Castle, Dundrum, county Dublin.

At Monkstown, Adelaide Mary Augusta, child of Francis L'Estrange, Esq. of Dublin.

At Booterstown avenue, Bridget, wife Mathew Magrath, of Dublin.

Catherine Maria, eldest daughter of the late Hon. Robert Johnson, formerly one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas.

In Dublin, William Maunsell Reeves, of Westersberg, co.
Cork, Esq.

At Rath, Lismore, John Carroll, Esq. aged 74.

Aged two years and three months, Francis A., child of John Kavanagh, Esq.

At Newport, Monmouth, Susanna, daughter of the late Nicholas Marshall Cummins, Esq. of Cork.

In London, on Wednesday, John Henry Loftus, Marquis and Earl of Ely.

At Hammersmith, Lieut. James F. St. George McDonnell, RN, eldest son of the late Dr. James M'Donnell, of London.
He was the intimate friend and companion of the late Lieut.
Bellet, in the Arctic seas.

In Liverpool, Mrs. Catherine Henley, formerly of Dublin, Anne, the only daughter of Capt. Joseph Norris, RN, of Walworth.

Suddenly, at Hawkshead, Charles William, second son of Capt. James Anderson, RN.

At Rugby, the infant daughter of the Rev. C. T. Arnold.

In London, Lt-Col. G. Warren.

At Tunbridge Wells, Louisa, the wife of J. G. Teed, Esq. of London, and Lincoln's Inn, QC.

At New Romney, Kent, Thomas Roberts, Esq. Surgeon Royal Navy.

At Peckham, Thomas Hill, Esq. aged 70.

At Bayswater, Robert Kerr, Esq. late of the 60th Rifles.

At Naples, Dr. Robert White.

At Pau, Basses Pyrenees, Robert Wilmot Schneider, Esq. of Billericay, Essex, a magistrate for the county of Essex, and formerly of the 79th Highlanders.

Near Montauban, France, Louisa, daughter of the late Mon.
Arth ur Cesar Tellemache.

lent land, becom-growing these least £200 to £ will have full are held under ever.

Woodpark H
ains Parlour, I Hall, commodi
necessary for th

On the Land a Well of pure a constant sup the building of prevention of which are mo
Kitchen Garde
their exuberanc on the lands, a a remunerative

MICHAEL H.
Sale affords an purchasing a the pictureque and thus secur enjoying the brated. Every of the kingdom finding that en proving, and t months the R will be opened feels it unnee it will then be locality. The moderate pris mired locality any party not set it at a high pectable and s

Woodpark
walk of Castle tating propert
firmed by visit genial atmosp
Medical Facu
sojourn there.

Woodpark
Dublin road,
Castleconnell
on any day p o'Clock, on a give an order

The usual C in; addition to Any furthe

THA

MICHAEL

July 16th,