

collected at a sermon preached of Ennis on Wednesday, by the the relief of the sufferers by the the Limerick Protestant Orphan Crawford, curate of Clontarf, has the curacy of Kilmore, Myheralin.

OGHUE, Organist to the Right of DUNRAVEN. (late Conductor of Rathkeale and its neighbourhood made arrangements with Dr. of the choir of Rathkeale Church. two days in the week, and will give instructions in English and on the Piano-forte.

NOTIFICATION CARD

leave to tender his most sincere regards to the Nobility, Gentry, of the County and City of adjacent Counties, for their kind soliciting a continuance of it— he has returned from London ; instruction in the POLITE ART to the newest and most applicable and Paris. instruction in the useful and elegant in Kalithenic Exercises ; so for the promotion of HEALTH and of Mal-formation, resulting or constrained or careless habits. BURKE—when alluding to the knowledge of the Sword to be of first presents itself ; and that it every sudden exigence, as one man, is accustomed to determine best to be done ; and this will the effect in general emergencies." country attended as usual. addressed to Mr. M. 14, Upper the Albion Printing Establishment will meet with attention.

October 10.

Limerick, Oct. 10th, 1857. Thank the Shipwrecked Fishermen for £3 10s., through the hands Agents here, Messrs. RYAN, forwarded me for this year, in con- of my husband, Thomas Magee, while on board the Limerick " in the Clyde.

her
MARY X MAGEE.
mark.

Catherine Hayes.
At St. George's, Hanover-square, Henry Arthur William Hervey, son of the late Lord Wm. Hervey, to Mary, daughter of the late Henry Cox, Esq.
At St. George's, Hanover-square, Laurence, son of Michael Kieran, Esq. of Balrath Lodge, county Westmeath, to Mary Frances, eldest daughter of the late Henry Conington, Esq. of Ranby, Lincolnshire.
At Ventnor, Isle of Wight, John Hancock, Esq. of Cardiff, to Isabella, eldest daughter of the late William Tharle, Esq. of Ventnor.
At Aldbourne, Wilts, the Rev. Francis Charles Willis, rector of Letcombe-Bassett, to Rose Anne, daughter of the Rev. G. P. Cleather, vicar of Aldbourne.
At Hereford, Captain Charles Price Glinn, Royal Navy, to Helen Mary, youngest daughter of Richard Johnson, Esq. of that city.
At the Catholic church, Deptford, John Langford, Esq. of Greenwich, to Mary Anne, daughter of Henry Playsted, Esq. of Newcross.
At Newhaven, Connecticut, Dr. W. P. Stearns, to Annie Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Captain James Stover, of Magherafelt.
At Harbor Briton, Newfoundland, A. Drevar, Esq. MRCSL, to Fanny Alicia, daughter of Thomas Bell, Esq. barrister-at-law.
At Fredericton, Henry Jefferey Robinson, Esq. Lieutenant in her Majesty's 76th Regiment, to Agnes Strachan, fifth daughter of the Hon. John R. Partelow, Auditor-General of New Brunswick.

* This name was misprinted in our last.

DEATHS.

October 6th. at Castlewood-avenue, Rathmines, Mary Maria, the only surviving daughter of the late Thomas H. F. Royle, Esq. DL, of Nantunan House, county Limerick.
At Sweetbriar Park, Tramore, on the 3d inst. Jane, relict of the late Matthew Canny, Esq. of Castlefergus, county of Clare, and sister of the late General Gage Hall, 70th Regt, aged 84.
In St. Francis's Abbey, Mr. Patrick Kennelly, son of Mr. Daniel Kennelly, pipemaker
In Dublin, Dorothea, wife of Major Hamilton, formerly of the 34th Regt.
In Grenville-street, Jane, widow of Frederick C. M'Carthy, Esq. MD, of Greenfield, county Cork.
At Herbert-place, William Sisson Cooper, Esq. Principal Assistant, Court of Exchequer.
Mr. Peter Maskey, of Pill-lane, in the 74th year of his age.
Mrs. Edward D. Stokes, of Farnakilla, Dingle, of effusion of the brain.
At Ballyharty, in the county Wexford, Captain Samuel Green, JP.
In Ennis, Mr. Jonathan Smith, late governor of the county gaol, Nenagh.
In Dunbar-street, Cork, Mr. John Mulcahy.
In Enniscorthy, Mr. John Breen, merchant.
At Beechpark, county Clare, Jane Mary, eldest daughter of Marcus Keane, Esq.
At Loughbawn, county Westmeath, in the 85th year of her age, Betanna, widow of the late Right Hon. John Radcliff, Judge of the Prerogative Court.
At Lower Tawnies, Clonakilty, William Stewart, Esq. MRCSE, son of the late Rev. Dr. Stewart.
In Castlebar, Mrs. Mary Murdock.
At Dover, Lieutenant-Colonel William Monins, of the East Kent Militia, and Deputy Lieutenant for the county of Kent, aged 66.
In London, William Henry Ladd, Esq. Captain HEIC late maritime service.
At Margate, Mr. Sinclair, the vocalist.
At Calcutta, Captain Duncan, of HM's 29th Regiment, son of the late General Duncan, RTCS.
At Coonoor, Lieut-Colonel Robert Macnair, 17th Regiment Bengal NI.
At Gwalior, after 25 years' service, Captain Alexander W. Hawkins, Bengal Artillery ; and at the same time, his two children.

KILMALLOCK
THE Proprietor has su commodious Field for adjoining the Town, now begs to announce to the will be holden on Monday 1857 ; and the Pig Fair, of Novembrr, 1857.) Buyers from Cork, Du Clonmel, Carrick, Tipper Scotland will attend. The other Fairs in the ber ; 21st of February May ; 6th of July. N.B.—Any of these Sunday, will cause the Monday following.

Kilmallock, October 6th Oct. 10.

Anthracite

Suitable for Steam purp Maltsters, Lime

THE Anthracite Coal attention to the Coal at Llanelly, South Wales, and will be found on trial requiring a strong, smol ducing, (and generally above Company can offer Lists of Prices and obtained on application to the Company, 17, Grace-or to the Manager at Llan August 15.

To SAIL ON THE 15th

PASSAGE MONEY

Red Cross Line

PACK FOR ME THE SPLENDID "T U THOMAS TILLSON Burthern, A 1 at Lloyd's, been built expressly for Trade, is expected to make ship at present on the ber accommodation for First, Passengers. For Dietary Emigrants' Guide, immed made personally, or by letter S. WRIGH

Oct 10