DEATHS.

At Benares, while in the Civil Service of the East India Company, J. Caulfield, Esq. son of the late Major-General Caulfield, of Copswood, in this county.

On Thursday, at his residence, Henry-street, in the 29th year of his age, Mr. George Hall, Composer, and late Overseer in the Printing-office of the LIMERICK CHR-NICLE—a young man gifted with intellectual abilities of no mean order, and possessing a suavity of temperament and generous good-nature that endeared him to a large circle of acquaintances, while the sterling qualities of his unassuming worth, and his strictly religious deportment, served to make him a model for his companions. Cut off in the budding bloom of early manhood, his premature demise is a source of the deepest, most sincere, and general regret.

At Cork, Bradshaw Popham, Esq. of Scartnamore, in that county.

At Seaview, near Tralee, Elizabeth, wife of Captain A. G.
Edge, RN.
