On Wednesday last of consumption, at her father's residence, Kiltrush, Margaret, the eldest daughter of Mr. John M. Namara.
 The deceased, who led a life of unexampled piety, had devoted herself, from her childhood, to a conventual life, and with that view entered her novitiate this year at Castlebar. Before six months had elapsed she was called to her Heavenly Father, to enjoy the rich reward promised all those who love and fear His holy name on earth.
