

take care not to do it! I e which the clergy bear the he zeal which they have od report, could be tar r that their Christianity y an ebb. This is the time hfulness and zeal, when an minister comes forward to the support to the cause as fellow christians and ublic who give their money in his views. Now a word was erected with a distinct d be available for all pur every department of the its widest signification, as ain cause, which is not . Protestants of all shades to erect this as a Protec meetings for Protestant pective of denomination. meetings of Protestant Protestant or Protestant the building has been tees in whom the public hat this will be carried which not the least dub Honest men receiving a from the subscribing pro pperly and early declare , and leave nothing to r, or misconception. In the hall
 dear Sir,
 edient Servant,
 , and a member of the

not a Rev. as inadvertently Church during Passion enry R. Bayly; Tuesday Wednesday, Rev. Thomas
 R. H. Jones; Saturday liman, of Ballinrobe, was onday, and brutally assaul part, whose immoral char nce.
 appointed Dean of Guernsey ceased.

of Limerick has been Dr. Ryan, R.C.B., for the of great devotion in the C.C., St. Munchin's, in mon in the Augustinian and the Rev. Laurence sion sermon in Kilrush.
 RCC, acknowledges the ards the repairs of Nanta Lord Southwell, 5, John
 ; Philip O'Reilly, Esq., Ferguson, M.; Doctor

At the Bank of Ireland, Tullamore, the wife of Geo. Johnston, Esq. of a daughter

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, William, son of Samuel Elliott, Esq. of Rath-croge, co Carlow, to Sarah Isabella, daughter of the late Wm.
 Tucker, Esq. of Petersville, co Meath.
 At St. Peter's, by the Very Rev. the Lord Fitzgerald and Vesey, Dean of Kilmore, George Sandus, Esq. of Dunowen House, county Cork, to Mary Jane, relict of Richard Dundas Graves, Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. Stanislaus O'Grady, of Eiton, co Limerick.
 At St. Peter's church, James Graham Thomas, Esq. Captain H.M.'s 28th Regt. to Mary Ann, daughter of Thomas Elliott, Esq. Johnstown House, Carlow.
 At Whitechurch, Clement Taylor, Esq. of Newbrook, Rath-farnham, Queen's Proctor, to Mary Anne, daughter of George Hatchett, Esq. of the Priory, Rathfarnham.
 In London, Isaac de Butts Powell, youngest son of the late Isaac Powell, Esq. of Riversdale, co Sligo, to Mary, youngest daughter of the late Joseph Sandford, Esq. of Derry Lodge, co Roscommon

DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at his residence, Kenmare Castle, in this county, after a short illness, sincerely and deservedly regretted, James Gubbins, Esq. J.P. He was a very sincere friend, and an intelligent, upright, and useful magistrate and country gentleman. His many circle have now to mourn the loss of a most kind-hearted and affectionate husband, father, and brother.
 On this morning, at an advanced age, at Thurles, Miss Cullley, Superiress of the Ursuline Convent in that town, in which she had been an inmate for the last 42 years, called by the Religious Sister Mary John, most sincerely regretted by the community for her exemplary piety and her constant solicitude for their welfare, as also by her own family and friends in this city, of which she had been formerly an inhabitant.
 On Thursday morning, at Blackboy, near this city, the Rev.
 Thomas Meenan, third son of Mr. James Meenan, and brother of Rev. Dr. Meenan, P.P. Glenroe and Ballyrogan, in this diocese. The rev. gentleman, who only received St. Denoon's orders in January, was not more than a fortnight returned from Paris, and his unexpected death is universally regretted by his family and friends. The funeral obsequies were attended by the clergy of the city, who yesterday accompanied the remains for interment in the family burialground.
 At Summer-hill, Nenagh, Teresa, wife of Mr. W. J. Cleary, and daughter of William Harding, Esq. Through life she was kind, affectionate, and generous, and is universally regretted by all who knew her.
 In Dublin, Julia, relict of the late James Sturcott, Esq. of Eyresfort, co Galway.
 In Fitzwilliam st, accidentally burnt, Miss Smith, daughter of Lieut-Colonel Brampton Smith, A.D.C.
 In Upper Leeson-st, Johannes Maria, relict of the Rev. James Smyth, rector of Churchtown, co Waterford.
 At Blackrock, Eliza, relict of the late Rev. John Digby, of Osberstown, co Kildare.
 At Mount Jerome, Harold's-cross, Charles Edward, son of C. B. Johnstone, Esq.
 At Kingstown, Mary, wife of Colonel Hodges, CB, Charge d'Affaires for the Hansa Towns At Kingstown, Wheeler, son of the Rev. Henry Heisham, of Thornbury, Gloucestershire.
 At Monkstown, co Cork, Mrs. Babington, sister of S. Lawson, Esq. of Sligo.
 At Norehampton, Emily, relict of the late Benjamin Bunbury, Esq. of Kilsenny.
 At Killan Glade, co Wexford, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Edward Moors, Esq. of Moorefort, co Tipperary.
 At St. Catherine's Park, co Kildare, John Trench, Esq brother of the late Lord Ashdown.
 At Belfast, Beattie, third daughter of Professor Ferguson.
 Abraham, only son of Abraham Colles, Esq. of Ballysalmon, co Westmeath.
 The Rev. Thomas Meade, CC Dunboyne.
 At Bangamon Park, Tyrone, after a lengthened illness, the Earl of Bantary.
 At Swanlinbar, co Cavan, the Rev. John Murray, P.P.
 In London, the Hon. Mary Eleanor Fraser, daughter of the late Hon. William Fraser.
 Robert Schindler, Esq. solicitor, of Chatham.

the past year, we beg to assure will be wanting on our part to of their confidence.

The numerous flattering Testireceived, (a few of which we ann aginn, and tend to show that a g ticle cannot fail to be duly appre We have lately made extensiv mises, and have secured the pers of Professor NESBIT, the celebra mist, under whose directions all future be Manufactured, and wh same will, (if required) accompan In soliciting your increased br Season, we strongly recommend

BONE DUST

HALF INCH BONE DUST. whole of the FINE DUST as The quality we believe has give tion, and our future deliveries equal to the past.

PULVERISED BONE DUST erected a New Mill for reduc degree of fineness, which we sh at a slight advance in price.

SUPERPHOSPHATE made by dissolving Bones, or any Sulphuric Acid. In accordance of Professor Nesbit, we make our contain about 32 per cent of Pho considerable portion is soluble, insoluble; the soluble portion givi pulse to the Turnip in the earlier thus safely carrying it past the r whilst the insoluble portion prev ging in the latter part of its grow about 2 per cent of Ammonia. †

BLOOD MANURE

To those who prefer it we can st Manure, containing the same amo as the last preceding, and an extra genous matter.

"I speak from my own person I assert that the bones ground in L other places, are often mixed in la oyster shells. These oyster shells h splitting up into nice fragments, and takes out his glass and examines th the view of discovering bits of m. th probably be unable to discover the spurious article. There is frequent twenty five per cent of this adultera of course, so long as farmers wil without reference to character, a sole consideration in purchasing. expect to get oyster shells instead of Nesbit's Agricultural Chemistry.

† "If you do not buy from a resp will be sure to have large mixture and in some cases seventy-five, of being mixed with the genuine subst

RYAN BROTHERS
AGENTS.

Limerick, March 27, 1858.