

...will soon regain their
...the support which they
...of Rathkeale, atten-
...ing horses, in pursuance
...of several others;
...his manner of conducting
...to the gentry who
...lovers of the turf.

DATE.—Major General Sir
...has just presented to his re-
...and massive silver vases, they ...tion;—Presented by Major
...Catterton, Bart, K.H. to
...th Royal Irish Lancers, upon
...Regiment, on the 3d Feb-

...provisional Battalion in this
...ngratulations Adjutant Ross
...the second Battalion of the
...otion to that rank, and he
...them same evening.

...draft from the depot of the ...art from this city under the ...quohown, to join the 1st

...the depot of the 17th Regt.,
...Major M. Kinstry, will leave
...to join the 2d battalion at

...Light Dragoons. Captain
...vet Lieut-Col. Henry Moore,
...25th, Lieut-Col. Kelsall 83d,
...th, retired from the army on

...Artillery, is appointed Equerry

...beneficial change has been ...nceforward all ships are to be ...instead of three years. This ...to naval officers, and effect
...ear to the Country.

...Militia have volunteered
...nd 42nd Highlanders.

...Militia at Clonmel is placed ...his superiors. The Regt. are

...Militia have succeeded the
...the second Battalion of the

...the editor of the LIMERICK
...gina's design having been to
...of those churchmen who in-...; he has no intention what-...onal brawl with any literary ...think proper to blot paper.
...Christian public is particularly
...ment of the annual meetings
...the Irish, Orphan, and Church
...been able and efficient deputa...ocate the cause of these most ...societies.

...Dublin waited upon the Lord
...and presented his Excellency
...atulation.

...to view the House &c.
April 17.

BIRTHS.

On the 15th inst. at Kilpeacon House, the wife of Major Gavin, M.P. of a son April 10th at John's-place, Parnstown, prematurely, the wife of U. W. Alcock, Esq. of a son, stillborn In Dublin, the wife of L. A. Preston, Esq. barrister-at-law. of a son In Lower Dominick-st. the wife of Richard Parsons, Esq. of a daughter.
At Grove-avenue, Blackrock the wife of Emanuel Henry Bayly, Esq. of a son.
In Kiltash, the wife of Mr. John Grogan, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Thursday, at one o'clock, in the Chapel Royal, Greyville Vernon, Esq. son of the Right Hon. Vernon Smith, to Miss Cockerell, stepdaughter of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and niece of Archbishop Goold, of Abbeysfeale in this county. The marriage ceremony was performed by Archbishop Goold, assisted by the Very Rev. the Dean of Ardagh. The bride was given away by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and amongst the personages present were—Lord and Lady Ingestre, the Right Hon. Mr. Vernon Smith and Mrs. Smith, Mr and Lady Fanny Lambert, Lord Otho Fitzgerald the Earl of Howth, Lord and Lady Kilmaine Coigne, Doyle, Lord and Lady Concurry, the Right Hon. J. W. Fitzpatrick, Dr. Hughes, Major Bagot, the members of his Excellency's Household, &c. The bridesmaids were—Lady E. Montgomery, Lady Mary St. Lawrence the Hon. Miss Lawrence, the Hon. Miss Browne and the Hon. Misses M. and Augusta Browne, Miss Goold, Miss Tighe, and Miss Codrington. The bride wore a wedding dress of rich white satin covered with two magnificent bunches of Brussels point Veil of the same costly material with wreath and bouquet of orange blossoms. Pearl necklace, with pendant of emeralds and diamonds. Ear rings and bracelets to correspond. Travelling dress of Eugene blue moire antique. Collar and sleeves of rich point lace. Scarf of Brussels ditto, and bonnet of the same, trimmed with blue forget-me-nots. Bridesmaids' dress—Treble skirts of tulle, over white glace silk. High tall bodices, confined at the neck and wrists with a ruche of the same. Long tulle veils, and wreaths of shamrock. After the marriage ceremony had been performed, those assembled in the Chapel Royal were conducted to the long room or picture gallery, where his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant received and entertained them at a magnificent dejeuner, and that being over, the happy pair set off to their appointed retreat to spend the honeymoon.

At Miltown Malbay church, by the Rev. T. Fitzgerald French Vicar of Kiltarboy, Henry E. Somerset Bolton, third son of Henry Bolton, of Maryville, Miltown Malbay, and Millview Ennis, to Mary, eldest daughter of Antony O'Dwire, of Annagh House, Miltown Malbay, and niece to the late John O'Dwire, M.D. Physician-General to the Forces

At Ennis church Gayin Clarke, Esq. V.S. of Limerick, to Anna Maria, eldest daughter of John Charles Ryall, Esq. of Ennis

At St. Michael's parish chapel, by the Rev. Joseph Darrac, P.P. Mr. Thom's Sheehan, Merchant's Quay, to Miss Charlotte Russell, Honan's Quay

DEATHS.

On Thursday evening, at Merton Cottage, Kiltree in his 80th year, Hughes Russell, Esq. formerly a most respectable inhabitant of this city. He was for many years Treasurer of the Fever and Lock Hospital in this city, during which, such was his zeal for the welfare and good management of these charitable institutions, that regardless of the risk of infection, he never failed to visit them twice weekly, and personally inspect each of the wards. His end was peace—his hope of salvation being in CHRIST his Redeemer. On Tuesday morning his remains will be privately interred in the family vault at St. John's church, in this city.

At his residence, Templemore, of malignant fever, Edward Guest, Esq.—a gentleman of mild and unobtrusive manners, and whose death is much regretted by his family and friends.

On the 16th inst. at her residence, Great George's-square, Liverpool, Anne Frances, the beloved wife of Thomas U. Jones, Esq. of Halifax, Nova Scotia, and second daughter of Mr. Thomas M. Cormick, Victoria Hotel, Cork.

In Roche's-street, of bronchitis, Mr. John Fitzgerald, grocer and spirit retailer.

Limerick, 15th April, 1868.
Wants a Sit
A S HEAD GARDENER;
A Farm; thoroughly under Vines, Peaches, Cucumbers, Me Garden, Forcing, and Greenh present employer, from whom and a half years good discharg change in his establishment; h similar testimonials from respect he was employed.
Address G. M., Mount Co
April 17.

No. 117, Georg
SALE BY AUCTION, ON APRIL 23
Of superior Modern Furniture
Carpets, Rosewood Piccolo P Paintings, Books, Plated W
Table Cutlery, Double G Beds, Mattresses, Bedding, Saddlery, New Outside Car, Poney, and other effects, by o of the late Wm. Wright, Esq
JOHN BEE
RESPECTFULLY announce I instructed to sell those var effects by strictly unreserved a allowed for its inspection prior following are deserving of notice hair cloth, telescope and centre do., pedestal sideboard, two c wood piccolo piano, 6½ octaves sweet tone; chimney ornament fenders and irons, easy chair, ca curtains; paintings in oil, sever paintings, copper case of valcab Indian bows and arrows, club, butler's tray, table and cha piano stool, work frame, table o ter, wines, rummers, pickles, salad bowl, juze, salts, hot wat trays table and desert cutlery, china, dinner ware, plated tea u liqueres, pickles, tea and coffee and engravings in handsome fra clock, tarpaulin, carved mah with hangings, hair mattresses, and pillows, two mahogany win stands, dressing tables and glass service, horses, commodes, Fre table iron bedsteads, curtains presses, &c., cane and rush cha ting, cooking and pantry uten a new Dublin built outside o running tax, phaeton, a new large quantity of sundry saddler do., stable requisites, horse clo Sale at 12 o'clock
JOHN BEE
The house is to be let, unfurn possession can be given after sa April 17.