ht toknow if the Mesure. Russell were act (cries of No. no. and Yes, yes) 15on, having allusted to the anicide at he did an act which, in one sense, d -omewhat decent (roars of laughter). having the courage to kill himself, sout man last week in Nanagh-Jury were directed by Keough to to one of the witnesses, was not an th common sense told he was, and on) there publiely declared that ve to answer for the bland of those After some further observations the resummed his seat.

a to Mr. John O'Donnell, the con-Mr. Spright, was then proposed by r, PP., seponded by Mr. Michael R.

rried with acclumation.

nuell rose and said - There were ocheart was tou full for speaking, hing eloquence was sience. The of them. To attempt to express a he telt would be a fruitless effort, ed the gloquence of all the gentlecen that day. A life of labour would y the honor they had that day done red twice within the short space of 3 public approval of his fellow sit sons. mpensate far beyond their deserts, the e had rendered. Independent of the he derived from the compliment in the medium of its transmission, enhanced its value. Should be not hat the vote of thanks just passed, by the patriarch of the Limerick honored and beloved by all, and from his childhood, Father Watt .) How doubly dear to him was any im through that ornament of his order virtue, as well as in piety, that bulno when the independence of his native d, and when by means of an unworthy ptains and ensigns were struck down e beginning of the fray, rushed into olding aloft the banner of civil and led the men of Limerick to victory He was also proud that the man nd that resolution was his friend, Ryan, the descendant of one of the of local independence, and who hime protracted struggle which had just acted so consistent and energetic a ie time and circumstances also made nor they had conferred on him. made to injure his professional temporary failure which was due to schery was ascribed to professional members of his own profession, he maelf, and say a member of his own tound disreputable and me in enough ile bim, in the hope possible in build inself on the ruin of his. That man proceedings of that day were the mnies uttered against him by the paid crown office. Whilst he received retain the approval of the men whom

, he could afford to treat with scorn

to Elien, eldest daughter of the late Pullip Deceny, wal, co Waterford, Ireland.

At No. 121 Sixteenth-street, New York, Mr. Joseph dussell, son of the late Patrick Russell, Key, Mitchelstown, co Month, to Anna, oldest daughter of James Channen, Esq. Troy, U. S.

DEATHS.

On the 17th of May, at Clongmaraid, in this county, James P. Massy, Esq. J. P. aged 77

Yesterday, at her house, .Iluratouge-street, at an advanced age, Mrs. Keane; a lady much esteemed and respected by all who knew year.

In Killaice, Dr. John Nihill; an old and respectable inhabitant, whose death is generally regretted.

At Dungarvan, on Thursday, the Earl of Ranfierly.

Mr. Thomas Espan. for 24 years clott at the Franciscan Chapet, in this city, much regretted in Durdin aged do. Mr. Rubet beilty, printer.

At Growende-road, Bothgie, Emine Handlots, Goto Shields. Leg. At Phibaborough, Thomas Kelly, Esq. furmerly of Maddens-

At 32, Castle-street, Matilda Marion, the beloved child of John Charles Jose. As his residence, Lower Gardiner-street, from the effects of a se vere accident, R. M. White, Req. On Wednesday last, at his house. Namauna n berrace.

Dublin, Robert Deame Franklin. Esq. eldest son of the late Surgeon Franklin, of this city. He was a very distinguished officer in the Peninsular War, and served with the 39th tegt. in all its engagements, and obtained a medal and 8 clasps. He died rejoicing in the Lord.

At Killbride Mary Anne, relict of the late George Rous Keogh, Esq. D L., and daughter of the General Sir Thomas Molynoux, Barts

At 8. Charlement-street, Cork. Mr. William Moore, son of the late Mr. James Moore, late of Dublin.

At Frenchpirk, Mayo, after a long and prinful illness. which he bore with Christian fortitude, Joseph Grey, Maq. sged 80 years Seldom has our obituary column recorded the demise of a mau so generally or so deservedly regretted in his rank of live as Mr. Gray. Throughout a long life we believe be never made an enemy for himself—his whole life being characterised by a straightforward and honest course.

At Unionissinvoire co Armagh, Mr. Thomas M'Keone, at the advanced age of 103 fears.

In Kensington-park-gardens. Notting-hill, Frederick Sharp, Esq. formerly of Clapham, Surrey. At Plymouth, a few hours hfter landing from Melbourne, Rupers B B. Bowen, Esq. Deputy Assistant Commissary General.

The Rev. Edward Bird rector of Wyton, Huntingdonshire. At Greenwich, Martha, wife of Stephen Clark, Esq. in her

82d year. Benjamin M Turk, Esq. of Hull.

At Margate, George Michael Perry, surgeon, late of Lamidon.

At Folkestone, the Rev. Thomas Erancis Bashe, Incumbent of Rathaspic and Vicar of Russah, fourth son of the late Robert Bushe, Esq. of Trinidad.

At Glasgow, John Brownrigg, Esq, sewed muslin manufacturor.

At Weston-super-Mare, Emily Brances, wife of Sir John Kennaway Bart.

At Tunbridge, accidentally drowned. Frederick William Markby. Ensign in H.M's 18th (Royal Irish) Regiment of Foot, eldest son of Frederick Markby, Esq. of Tunbridge.

In Edinburgh, Randal William, son of the late Colonel James and Lady Elizabeth Callander, of Craigforth and Ardkingines. At Douglas, lete of Man. Marion, youngest daught r of the late Patrick Brenan, Esq. of Newsantle, Sub-Inspector of Constabulary

At Pointon, Lincolnshire, Benjamin Handley, Esq. formerly of the 9th Lancura.

111 Queens's-road, Peckham, Miss Sophia Chester, daughter of the late Henry Chester, Esq.

At Reading. Mary, wife of Henry Simmonds Isahella, wife of the Hev. Wm. Decree Williams, at Guildford. Western Australia.

Killed in a sortie from the introuchments at Asimghue, Louis Henry Bedford. Esq. Captain 37th Regiment. At Akyab, East Indies, Thomas William Hatch, Esq, eldest sou of John Hatch, Feq. M.D. At Brussells. Elizabeth, the widow of the late Samuel of his opponents (cheers). He said | Faddy. Esq.

to collect

present O

ceived by

Tender

Office.

NOTIC FOR TH MOTIC men situated in the above Acts for

The R Electoral Electoral Division do

do

do do do do do do do do do do > do do do do do

do

do

da

do

do do do do

do

do The abo tions and

do

credit or Poor Law The Raf

any Rute house, and tween the Four o'Cle days next days.

Sig

May 22