

office, yesterday, the only Magistrate Mr. Hartigan.—James Flynn was re-charge of stealing horse tackling from Keyes, veterinary surgeon. Thomas Kennedy's house. Several drunkards of the magistrates praying for a remission passed on parties convicted of as been complied with by the Lord and yesterday morning a communication the Mayor from his Excellency con-charge of 27 of the prisoners who y released from custody, and left the making hands with each other. Office this morning, Robert M'Gorley ly were remanded on a charge of being the Army. Mary O'Neil and Mary bound over to keep the peace for dis- in the streets. Three drunkards were

BANKRUPTCY—YESTERDAY.
re the Hon. Judge Macan).
of the Limerick Observer Newspaper.
in this case was to consider the sign-rupt's certificate.
id the manner in which the bankrupt was really very unsatisfactory. He n on the 15th of October, 1857, and final examination until April last. as an argument by counsel in his is opinion it was quite the contrary, wed how carelessly his accounts had dividend of 2s 1d had been declared on in all to £3,000, incurred in a very all in establishing a great public in-ry, the Limerick Observer (laughter).— at a great portion of his wife's fortune, of borrowed money. The dividend it of the debts collected by the trade had in what could be called property g to about £10. He came next to his lessors. Cowan and Armstrong, paper whom he had contracted a debt of d paper, in his opinion under very mstances. Messrs. Cowan and Arm-aper stamped for the bankrupt's con- debt was one of honour, which he n most strict in discharging. He his bounden duty—and he hoped it —to suspend the bankrupt's certi- ths, th Mr. Findlater, solicitor, appeared n and Armstrong; and Mr. Kernan ecommends emigrants for America circumstances will permit, to secure steamer in preference to sailing ven- the former will be found the cheapest health, and comfort are fully con- the significant fact that during the mortality at sea had been confined nt one death was reported on board a. United States is more expensive, in at of any other power in the world.

late William Bracken of the city of Waterford, Esq.
At Bangalore, Madras, Doctor Jephson, Surgeon, King's Dragoon Guards, to Mary Harden, daughter of the late Col. Noble, 40th Regiment, N. I.

DEATHS.

At Kilkee, on the 23d inst, Elizabeth, wife of Roger Keatinge Sheehy, Esq. J.P. late of Liskennit, in this county— Exemplary in every relation of life—an affectionate wife—a tender, careful mother—a sincere and unchanging friend, the death of this respected lady is very generally regretted in the large circle of her acquaintance; but, poignantly so, in her immediate domestic sphere, where her death is an irreparable loss to her sorrowing husband and children. Her remains will be interred on to-morrow, in her husband's family vault, at Monegay, in this county

In this city, Jane, widow of the late T. T. Baylee, Esq.

At Clonskoran, county Waterford, the infant daughter of Sir Nugent Humble, Bart. an interesting child.

At Ballyglan, Lady Paul, after confinement

At Newtown, Mary, relict of the late Eaton Edwards, of Newtown House, county Kilkenny, Esq.

At Cork, Anne Caroline, relict of John Ringwood, Esq., of Waterford, aged 79 years

The wife of John M'Donogh, Esq. of Carrowkell, co Sligo.

Matilda, daughter of Henry Fry, Esq. Roscommon.

At Kilbarron, co Clare, Ellen, wife of Edmond M'Grath, Esq. and sister of the late Doctor Edmond M'Grath, of Ennis.

At Glin, Anna Maria, the beloved wife of Captain John Hamilton, of Glin, J. P., co Limerick, and daughter of the late Lennox Bigger, Esq. J. P., of Richmond House, near Dundalk.

At the Glebe, Killaloe, on the 23d inst, in his 79th year, Rev. Richard Martin, 40 years perpetual curate of Killaloe, and 55 years Registrar of the diocese of Killaloe and Kilfenora, in which office he succeeded his father.

In Dublin, Emma, wife of George Webber Bretton, of Spring-park, co Longford, Esq., and daughter of the late William Butler, Esq. of the noble family of Ormond.

At Wellington-street, of small pox, Clementina, the infant child of Ebenezer Ure, Esq.

At Donville Cottage, Grand Canal, at an advanced age, Mr. James Colgan. His remains will be removed for interment to Glasnevin, on to-morrow morning, at eight o'clock.

Joseph Blake, Esq. Ballinglin, co Wicklow.

At his residence Gardiner's place, Dublin, Lieutenant-Colonel Sir George Morris, D. L., of the co Dublin.

At Kilkenny, Margaret Stewart, wife of the Rev Robert H. Rogers

Mary, wife of James Rutledge, Castle villa, county Mayo.

In London, Sarah Sheehy, eldest daughter of Mr. C Austin, 52, Parliament-street, Westminster.

At Leamington, R. Benson, Esq. solicitor, of Cokermouth

At Cambridge Terrace, Rathgar Road, David W. Bissett, Esq. late Paymaster of Constabulary.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, Marion, youngest daughter of the late Patrick Brennan, of Newcastle, Sub-Inspector of Constabulary.

At Weston-super-Mare, Emily Erancee, wife of Sir John Kennaway Bart.

Isabella, wife of the Rev. Wm. Dares Williams, at Guildford, Western Australia.

Killed in a sortie from the intrenchments at Azinghur, Louis Henry Bedford, Esq. Captain 37th Regiment.

At Akyab, East India, Thomas William Hatch, Esq. eldest son of John Hatch, Esq. M.D.

At Tunbridge, accidentally drowned, Frederick William Markby, Esq. in H.M.'s 18th (Royal Irish) Regiment of Foot. eldest son of Frederick Markby, Esq. of Tunbridge.

In Edinburgh, Randal William, son of the late Colonel James and Lady Elizabeth Callander, of Craigforth and Ard-kinglass.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, Marion, youngest daughter of the late Patrick Brennan, Esq. of Newcastle, Sub-Inspector of Constabulary

At Pointon, Lincolnshire, Benjamin Handley, Esq. formerly of the 9th Lancers.

In Queen's-road, Peckham, Miss Sophia Chester, daughter

At Armagh, Mr. James Simms, editor of the "Northern Whig"

In Brooklyn, New York, Mrs. Honora Raymond, wife of the late Mr. George H. Raymond, of Tralee.

At Castlemaine, Victoria, Thomas Le Ban Kennedy, the only and much-lamented son of Mr. Thomas Kennedy, of Rathville, co Carlow.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, the Rev. Richard Watson, youngest son of Richard Watson, formerly Bishop of Llandaff.

Th
Law
Qode
the C remo
grant
wice
Com
the G
Com
with dava
Unio
Co
a det
must relief
Unio
sq. w healt
it wa
Ta
there
union
Conn
The
factor
satisf
fite.
Guar
not ab
on th
can sh
they l
took lute,
cause
—mi
ers, t
I h
of op
resist
tute
Cour
decis
the d
Com
office
their quest
into t
the d
were essit
fore,
show
Mo
Cap
Re
ferre ges i merit
be us
with Boar
the R
FROT