

Jameson, parish of Killavy, of Kilmahon. Deacons—Burnett, Thomas G S Phil
nes, Wm. Robert Tagart, Halahan, Esqrs. are about to increase the r from a fund which many tribution from the see of on is to preach next week psom, where he expects to tendance of "outsiders."
s to preach in the Athen and Friday, and in the In-ity, on Sunday next.
shes are about to be erec-

THE REDEMPTORIST FA-tators assembled at Mount to witness the ceremony of of the new chapel, which ht Rev. Dr. Ryan, R. C rite, was conducted with malities which the Roman on the occasion of great Catholic institutions in on the occasion. The Very of the Order in Eng-attendance. The Earl and and Lady Killeen, the dell, Mr. Corbally, M.P. ngst those present. The was engaged to preach on d to attend in Paris to in-the row in the Irish college plied by the Very Rev.
Dapham convent. In the entertained the Bishop, ngall, Lord Killeen, Mr
, &c., &c., in the new Ree dinner was most sump-
, and the entire arrangeegree creditable to Mrs Hotel, who superintended dinner was given on lesmen employed by Mr. recting the foundation of St. Alphonsus. 76 persons ing men engaged as dra-& Co.'s, have subscribed ow being raised for build-t St. Alphonsus, and the & Co. £7.
Shepherd thankfully ac-eary, in aid of the new re-street.
nd for building the new ceived £5 from a Friend e, Esq. High Sheriff, of

In London, Lieut. Col. James John Graham, eldest son of the late Gen Graham, Governor of Stirling Castle, to Isabella Louis, daughter of the late General Walker, R. A., of Bushey, Herts.
In London, Edward Angelo, son of Edward Goodall Esq. of Albert-street, Regent's-park, to Frances Smith daughter of Andrew Chittenden, Esq. of Uxter-piase, Regent's-park.
At Aberdeen, John Barlow Bowes Elliott, Esq. Captain 43rd Light Infantry, to Mary, eldest surviving daughter of James Corbett, Esq. late of the Hon East India Company's Bengal Medical Service.
By special license, at the church of the Holy Trinity, Brompt-ton, C. S. Cahill, Richmond, Surrey, and formerly of Rivers-ton, co of Clara, Esq. to Mary Shannon, Maion Mahon, daughter of Wm. Mahon, Esq. formerly of the county of Roscom-mon.

DEATHS

At Team, on Saturday, Mrs Watson, wife of James Watson, Esq. of Garrykennedy, co Tipperary.
At Waterford James Henry Bayly, Esq. aged 58 years
At his residence near Corofin, Mr. Peter J. Owens, a Guardian of the Union.
On Sunday last, at Oldchurch, near Limerick, the residence of Robert O'Brien, Esq. Emily, fifth daughter of Edward Sharman, Esq. Grove House, Tanbridge Wells.
The Rev. Thomas Flynn, P. P., Passage, diocese of Cashel.
In Dublin, Mr John Jones, well beloved and regretted by all.
In Dublin, Charles Henry, infant son of the Rev Charles J. Dickinson, rector of Maraghmore.
At his residence, Upper Gardiner street, Stephen Coppinger, Esq. Barrister-at-law, son of Thomas S Coppinger, Esq.
Leemount, co Cork.
Archibald Elliott, youngest child of Mr B. B. McVittie, Dr. Steeven's Hospital.
At Rutace-street, Mrs. Margaret Ridgway, relict of the late Mr Thomas Ridgway, of Dublin, deeply regretted by her relatives and friends—R. I. P.
At Kingstown, Jane, relict of the late George Watson, of Ashgrove, Rathmines.
At Great Denmark-street, Margaret, relict of the late John Law, Esq. of Newmarket, co Down.
At Dollymount, Thomas Behan, of Middle Gardiner-street, much-regretted.
At Lombard-street, Mr John Brady.
At the Glebe Johnstown, co Kilkenny, the Rev J. W. Despard, rector of Partagan.
In Cork, Mr Daniel Daly.
At Spring Hill, co of Londonderry, William L. Conyngham, Esq.
In London, Captain Augustine Fitzgerald Evans, half-pay 37th Regiment, one of the Captains of Invalids of that establishment, who served throughout the Peninsular war, and was awarded a medal with nine clasps.
In Torrington-square, George Radley, Esq. of Southampton, aged 34.
At Spring-gardens, Whitehall, Elizabeth, the wife of Mr.
Thomas Roberts solicitor.
In Hyde-park-street, Julia, wife of Captain Mortimer J Slater.
At Tavistock-street, Bedford-square, Mrs. Woodstock, in her 81st year.
Mrs. Bacon, of Studley-road, Clapham-rise.
At Staffordshire, Maria, widow of the Rev Dr. Mill, Canon of Ely, and Regius Professor of Hebrew, in the University of Cambridge.
At Herts, Elizabeth, Countess Dowager of Hardwicke, in her 95th year.
At Colne House, Iver, Sophia, relict of the Rev. Edward Ward, incumbent of Iver.
At the Field Hospital, unknown, of small-pox, after a few days ill, was the Rev Hyacinth Kirwan, Chaplain HEICS, Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, son of the late Patrick Kirwan, Esq. of Cragg, co of Galway.
Killed in action, Lieutenant Percy Charles Smyth, 97th Regiment.
On passage from Bombay, Lieutenant Fredk. Keays, 11th Regiment Bombay N. L., son of George Keays, Esq. of Folkeston and late of Mitcham.
At Rugby, Edward S. Swainson, Lieut. in H. M.'s 71st Regt, youngest son of the late Charles Swainson jun, Esq. of Frenchwood, Lancashire.

R Athlon
TUESD
May W Wine-strong
Brand
The Lir
TH
1858, person
At
For T
of C Killin
The
the d
The
posal with Sea
the h
W
MED
T tor f
of th
Inst
date
In
to be Butt
risk
T
to be Ten
by