

the late election there were allowed Edward Carr; £4 to Mr. Denis Grimes; Mr. D. Cullen; £3 15s to Mr. E. S.
£2 3s to Mr. John Quin; and other smaller amount.
Council then adjourned.

London and North Western Railway Company £100,000 short since the 1st of January, in consequence of the competition between that Company and the Great Northern.
The gentlemen of the North of Ireland were appointed by the magistrates the last week.

Meeting on an extensive scale is to be held in the Grand Orphan Hall on Tuesday evening next.
Lectures on interesting subjects will be delivered by several young men of this city, and the proceedings already made on the cards issued at the meeting in April last will be received, so as to enable the committee to proceed with the completion of the building. In addition to sums already accepted, we are requested to announce the following names and donations which have been paid to date:—Mrs Henry Mansell, 17l.; Miss Mansell, 17s.; Mrs Brady, 1l.; Mr Journeaux, 2l. 6s.; Mr Hill, 1l.; Miss D'Esterre, 1l.; and 1l.
from the Rev. William Mansell and the Rev.
John Jordan. Meetings in aid of the Protestant Society will be held in Rathkeale on Tuesday, on Wednesday, and Aakeaton on Thursday.
An efficient deputation will attend.
A general Field Meeting by the members of the Methodist connexion of this city, and previously held on Wednesday, at Adare, in the demesne of the Earl of Dunraven, which was arranged for their reception. The attendance was very numerous, and the religious services were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Grant and Duncan. The weather was favourable, and all enjoyed the delightful which the pleasure grounds afford. On Friday there was a meeting in the chapel of Adare.

demptorist Fathers, Mount St. Alphonsus, received the receipt of £2 14s. from Mrs. Bunton of Aquay, as being the overplus of goods sold in the house belonging to Mary Ryan, who died lately, and which she wished to have masses said for the repose of the appeal of the Archbishop in aid of the convent of the nuns at Thurles was most successful on Friday throughout Cashel and Emly.

On Friday, the Right Rev. Dr. Juncker, Bishop of Illinois, United States, sailed from Kingsdown for America, accompanied by Father and the following missionaries from all Colleges, Messrs. Jacque, Petit, Kollop, Carel &c.

The Archbishop of Halifax, N.S., Dr. Walsh, is indisposed.

On Friday last being the octave of Corpus Christi, celebrated by a procession at the Laurel Hill Convent, the Roman Catholic Bishop, from Greece, whose name would not well be spelt in English, and whose ecclesiastical dress has excited much admiration throughout the city, officiated on the occasion.

Yesterday, in St Anne's Church, Captain Macke, of Drilling-ham House, Galway, to Harriette, daughter of the late Capt Graham, 73d Regt.

At Killyman Church, John, youngest son of the late John McClelland, Esq. Milltown House, Dungannon, to Nannie, eldest daughter of the late Edward Lyons, Esq. LL.D. T.C.D. of same place formerly of Newry.

At the Church of our Lady of Refuge, Rathmines, Mr John Greally, South Richmond-street to Jane, eldest daughter of the late Mr Henry Maxwell of Dublin.

At St George's Church, Captain George Campbell, brother of Sir Archibald Campbell, to Miss Margaret Anne Burroughs, daughter of Sir Edward Burroughs.

At the R.C. Church, Rathmines, Mr John Greely, Pertobella, to Miss Jane Maxwell, Sarzy, Rathgar.

At Wimbleton Church, Lord Henry Thynne, to the Lady Ulrica St. Maur, second daughter of the Duke of Somerset.

At Penzance, Walter J H Stephenson, Esq. Bombay Artillery, to Charlotte Anna, daughter of Leonard R. Willan, Esq. M.D.

At the Church of St Mary Magdalen, at St Leonards, James Mill Walker, Esq. of Pettistree, in the county of Suffolk, Major in the Suffolk Militia Artillery, to Caroline Mary, youngest daughter of the late Colonel Tylden Pattenson, of Iboruden, county of Kent.

At Hove parish church, Brighton, Henry Byerley, second son of the late Dr. Anthony Todd Thompson, and her Majesty's Advocate for Ceylon, to Sacita, daughter of the Count de Beaumont.

DEATHS.

At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Mary Luishina Jantha, the beloved child of Captain O'Donnell, 27th Regt, aged 15 months. The remains were this day interred in the family vault, at Tragh, co. Clare.

On Thursday, in Roche's-street, of consumption, Mr. George Glynn, modeller and figure maker.

In Mungret-street, Mrs Catherine Fitzgerald.

At Ballyvara, Barrington's Lodge, Mr Edmund Whelan.

In Cork, the Very Rev John O'Connor, S.T.M., for 50 years a member of the Dominican Community in that city.

At Harbour-row, Queenstown; Ellen, relict of the late Capt Thomas Fox.

At his residence, Tralee, Capt James Aaron Roy, formerly of the 71st Highland Light Infantry, and for many years Barracks-master in Tralee.

Of pleurisy, in the town of Galway, Nichola, wife of Andrew Veitch, Esq. M.D.

At Trim, county Meath, Thomas William Smart, Esq., Solicitor.

Suddenly, Clayton Bailey Savage, Esq. of Norelands, Kilkenny.

On yesterday, in Westland-row, Dublin, after a severe and protracted illness, which she bore with the most Christian piety and resignation, Margaret, the beloved wife of P. O.
Howley, Esq. R.M. Tipperary.

At Springvale, Marion Fletcher M'Crene, wife of S. M. Greer, Esq. M.P.

At 38 Amiens-street, Miss Alicia Price, of bronchitis, after an illness of only four days.

At Northumberland Avenue, Kingstown, near Dublin, Charlotte Emma, youngest daughter of Daniel Desmond, Esq.

At Malahide-road, Clontarf, Henry Hughes, Esq.

In Belfast, Mr. Wm Pirrie.

At 6, Donegal-square, East, Belfast, John Bredin Poasett, Esq. late Surgeon 2d Regt Cavalry, Turkish Contingent.

In London, Sir E. N. Buxton, M.P.

At Chatham, Caroline Munster Lady Hardinge, wife of Henry T. Jones, Esq. and relict of Sir Richard Hardinge, Bart.

After a long and painful illness, the Rev Godfrey Everth, M.A. Vicar of Christhall, Essex.

At Chapelizod, Charles Maguire, Esq.

At Harepore, Northumberland, Anne Seymour Conway, widow of Oswin A. B. Groswell, Esq. and daughter of Sir Wm Gordon Cumming, Bart. of Altyre.

At Qyington-square, Brompton, John Terence O'Seian, Esq., killed in Oude, Alfred Jennings Bramly, Lieutenant, 42nd Highlanders
Killed near Azimghur, in India, Rogers Adolphus Hamilton, Lieutenant and Adjutant of 3rd Sikh Irregular Cavalry, formerly of the 10th Bengal Light Cavalry, and second son of Hans Henry Hamilton, Esq. of Fitzwilliam-place.
At Azimghur, from a wound received in pursuit of the enemy, Edward Frederick Venables, Esq. son of the late L. J.
Venables, Esq. barrister-at-law, of Liverpool, and of Woodhill in the co. of Shropshire.

THE
Au
day, a la a high m
post.

June

A T C on material
ing six l
purchase
quantity

June

THE
W
will rece
RE
at Bohe
accordan
at my O Tende
the 23rd

Office

NOTIC

A S t will for cipal Fr
of rated
Ex-Offi
Given t and the omitted
recently current names i
Board
any Pe
to be s are at most sa
DAY, th

Office