

Grace, who, after the dist great length, expressing g such a promising establ city of the North—an lated to promote the glory religion. After the cered the clergy proceeded to elegaut luncheon was laid ot be given to Mr. Bourke, Mr. Magahaye, of Omagh, ich they have exhibited in autiful edifice, and which first houses of education in e now erecting a very fine classes.

berlain to the Pope, will arborough-street chapel, Sacred Heart, Armagh, on eridge, late of this city, late John Beveridge, Capt. nd sister of E. S. Beveridge, s professed a nun. The ser-Father Vincent, Passionist, arold's Cross, Dublin.

anted PERSON to take charge of a establishment in the Country.
d. nicle Office.

N THREE HANDSOME VOLUMES,
yrotechnics ;
OR,
NADES, LAMPOONS,
rking Pleasantries,
THE
ISH WRITERS, IE REIGN OF
TO THE PRESENT DAY.
ological Notes
BY Vice-Chancellor,
AGE WOOD, KNIGHT.

NDON : BET AND CO.,
er's Street.
ND Co., Paternoster Row.

BING, BRASS, AND RING WORKS, STREET, LIMERICK.

Anderson,
Nobility and Gentry of Limending districts, that he has at of the most improved Trash-ward, lift Pump, Brass force and Brass Cocks of all size and all pattern made on stock. criptions made and repaired, tly on the Premises some of neers in the South of Ireland. be most reasonable Terms.

to the daughter of Mr R Bates.
At Bradford Abbas, Dorset, John Peanington Legh, Esq, and Jane Emily, daughter of the Rev Robert Grant, Vicar of Bradford Abbas.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, the 19th instant, at Kilpeacon Rectory, after a protracted illness, borne with un murmuring submission to the will of her Heavenly Father, to the deep affliction of her bereaved husband and children and sorrowing parents, Emily, the beloved wife of Eyre Powell, Esq, and eldest daughter of the Rev Edward Herbert She fell asleep in Jesus, in the sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection to eternal life.

Suddenly, at Tramore, Joseph Lawler, Esq, of Curraghbog, Queen's County.

On Thursday morning, at Rossbrien, Jane, daughter of John Cleland, Esq, aged 19 years—a young lady who had endeared herself to many by her amiable qualities. She is deservedly regretted by many friends and acquaintances, and her early demise is a source of deep affliction to her family

Yesterday morning, at his house, Tipperary, Nicholas Sadlier, Esq.—a gentleman sincerely and deservedly regretted by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

At the Depot, Fermoy, of fever, Capt Edmund Morris, 89th Regiment.

At Victoria, Henry Bowles, son of Maurice Fitzmorris, Esq. of Spring-mount House, county Kerry.

Suddenly, of disease of the heart, at Mount-prospect, county Kildare, the residence of her son-in-law, Amelia, relict of Mr Patrick Dunna, Mountmellick.

At Warrenpoint, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Dr. Foster, of Armagh.

At Ballincar, county Sligo, Catherine Anne, daughter of John Yeadon Ormsby, Esq.

At Great Stanmore, Middlesex, Mr F King.

The Rev William Owen, Rector of Stratton-on-the-Foss, and Afternoon Reader at Whitehall, London.

At Albert-square, Clapham-road, Henry Moore, Esq. late of Tower-street, City.

At Stamford-hill, Henry Richmond, Esq.

At his residence, No. 9, Stockwell-common, Surrey, Henry Grace, Esq.

At Deal, Mrs Wilkinson, of Stoke Newington, relict of W Wilkinson, of Coleman-street, City.

At Camberwell, Rebecca, relict of Mr D Griffin, formerly of Walworth and West Ham.

In Harrington-street, Julia, wife of Robert Emery, Esq. Stipendiary Magistrate of Jamaica.

At Gravesend, Mr Edward Body, of Chelsea.

At Islington, Elizabeth Hazlehurst.

At the Vicarage, Staverton, Devon, Frances, wife of the Rev H F Atherley.

At Kentish-town, John March, RN.

At Ipswich, J F Manning, son of James Manning, Esq, late of Lancashire.

At Dovely's, Derbyshire, Mary Emily, wife of Captain Heywood, of Herefordshire, and daughter of the Lord Bishop of Kilmore.

At Brighton, Mrs E Whitmarsh.

Suddenly, in the grounds of Farley Castle, Mr Simon Usher, of Trowbridge.

John Ranson, shipowner, Sunderland.

Rather Suddenly, Mr Wm Wolryche Whytmore, representative for Bridgnorth prior to the passing of the Reform Bill, and subsequently one of the first representatives for Wolver-hampton.

At Moor-park, near Farnham, George Coombe, Esq, of Edinburgh.

The Rev Harry Cook, Rector of Sandy, Bedfordshire.

Robert John Coulman, Esq. Deputy-Lieutenant of the West Riding of Yorkshire.

Mary Ann, relict of Peter Wright, Esq, of Hatfield Priory, Essex.

At the Elms, Hampstead-heath, John Hodgson, Esq, in his 80th year.

Killed at Gwalior, Lieut Wellington Rose, and died of sunstroke at Kaira, Lieut Arthur Rose, both sons of Col Rose, of Nairn.

Lieut Henry Willecock.

Lieut-Col Hay, Madras Light Infantry.

At Versailles, the Comtesse Lionel de Bonneval.

At Simla, Annie, wife of Lieut Thomas N Walker, 17th Punjab Infantry.

At New Zealand, Mary Charlotte, wife of Alex Knowles Chariton, Esq.

On board ship, on passage from Gibraltar to England, Frances Elizabeth, wife of the Rev J A Crozier, Chaplain to the Forces at Gibraltar.

In India, of dysentery, on his way from Bareilly to N, na Tal, in charge of invalids, Percy Mackie Bosworth, Lieutenant 42nd Royal Highlanders, son of Thomas Holmes Bosworth, Esq, of Kent.

spent amongst you, my beloved friends, sidering how "many things I have left ought to have done;" yet it is an un-tion to me, to be assured that the Lo-favour in your eyes, and that you regard the minister of Christ, and for the tri-pel, which I have, in weakness, endeavfaithfully to all.

I have ever felt that mutual confidence and above all things, Christian love precious links which bind the pastor to have not snapped these links, nor broken chain, it has been owing rather to the ciation of the difficulties of a minister to any power of mind or feeling than My maxim ever has, and ever will be, unto all men"—and if I have suctent, in alleviating the sufferings of denomination, I did so as a privilege duty.

But we have journeyed on together years of thrilling interest and cheer-see almost a new generation sprung sometimes imagine I have outlived where are those many friends with sel and walked to the house of the

"We fall successive and suc-Plague and famine may have stalked withering step, leaving many a be-loving Saviour has preserved the flock and intelligence has enlarged the fold brought up "in the nurture and Lord" shall transmit an honoured name and if these hands have closed to every grade of my beloved flock, to received their little ones at the baptism, dedicated them to Jesus. Such ties are never broken, for they are spirithese are never parted, "embalmed in life."

Farewell! How thankful we are prayer and not as parting! A prayer precious, and in my children's mem-ever they may dwell. It will cheer support me under trials and temptaprayer of faith "moves the heavens the world." Oh, my dearly beloved for your minister.

Your valuable and beautiful testimonies lie before me.—In accepting, I intrinsic worth, however costly, for in my humble life, when sentiments knew me "well and long" were com-testimonies which no bullion could no price can withdraw.

May our mutual love, respect, and advancing years, and as pastor, citi-I learn, at the footsteps of Divine in religious harmony, this three-God may be glorified in winning souls And now the God of peace, that the dead our Lord Jesus, that sheep, through the blood of the make you perfect in every good work working in you that which is well through Jesus Christ, to whom ever.—Amen.

Your very affectionate pastor
GEORGE GOULD
To the Protestant Parishioners other Friends.
August 28.