

... excellent House.

Id,
... ly, or Housemaid in
... on two Ladies.—
... a respectable young
... ation; can be highly
... ss; is a Protestant;
... ling and attentive.—
... y, or to Travel.
... ll Post-office, County

'S 24th August, 1858.

oods,

Turpentine.
... entine.
... g the Price per Hun-
... to the 6th of SEPTEM-
... iver of Wreck, Custom

credane, Kilkee, and
... on application to the

UMBING WORKS,
VETERINARY SURGEON)
N CHAPEL.

T R E E T .

MERICK CHRONICLE.

valuable Journal for the
... mber Pump Maker not
... man's Steward that a
... in the well; this state-
... f a Pump, and put him
... ne. I beg Mr. Editor to
... tion, as it was totally
... ient proof that such is
... be misled in the same
... mploy some of the best
... re they not; and have
... he Timber Pumps in the
... wn in their stead Metal
... l Pump would injure
... or their Engineers, run
... ealth or constitution of ... ater to drink? On the ... elamalcula and worms;
... and purifies the water:
... everybody knows, it is
... orth half its own value
... your obedient,
JOHN DALY.

Lytohett Maltravers, Dorsetshire.
At Bury St. Edmunds, Louis Mallet, Esq. to Frances Helen, daughter of the Hon and Rev E Pellew.
At Melbourne, Robert T Firebrace, Esq, to Isabella, daughter of Thomas Black, Esq. MD.
At South Australia, Edward French, Esq. of Port Adelaide, to Emma Mary, daughter of the late George Laurie Dean, Esq, of London.

D E A T H S .

At Versailles, Caroline, wife of Comte Lionel de Bonneval, and daughter of the late Sir Wm Payne Gatlway, and cousin of the Earl of Dunraven, of Adare Manor.
At Ballycorney House, O'Brien's Bridge, Peter M'Millen, Esq, Proprietor of the mills.
Yesterday, in Shannon-street, Mr Patrick Fitzgerald, for many years clerk in the timber yard of Messrs. Spaight.
In John-street, of decline, after a tedious illness, Mr Thomas Blanford, tin manufacturer—a quiet and inoffensive young man.
In Mill-street, Ennis, Mr John M'Key, of Ruan
In Peter-street, Clonmel, Mr Wm Head Mason.
In Clonmel, Margaret, daughter of the late M. Butler, Esq.
Walter Wall, of Tourneena, near Ballymacarbry, aged one hundred and eleven years.
In Cork, Mr James Eaton Murphy.
In Galway, Rev Wm Wade, OP, West Convent.
In Galway, John Kilkelly, Esq. of Mossfort.
In Rutland-square, Dublin, the wife of Geo. Medlicott, Esq
In Dublin, Mr John C Fulham, of North Anne-street.
At Clontarf, Mrs Maria Hickey.
At Fitzwilliam-square, Robert Tottenham, Esq. of Annaghmult, co. Kilkenny, and late of New Ross.
Anastatia, wife of Michael Derham, New-row West, and daughter of Mr John Hickey, Kilkenny.
At his residence, Pakenham-place, Monkstown, Abel Labortouche, Esq.
At Ennismagg Glebe, of typhus fever, Anna, wife of the Rev
Richard Paake.
In Wicklow, Mr Abel Woodrooffe
At St Joseph's Convent of Mercy, Tullamore, Margaret, daughter of Wm Horan, Esq. Kilbeggan, county Westmeath.
At Maryborough, Elizabeth, relict of Mr Robert Metcalf.
In Charles-street, Sligo, Mr Patrick Hart.
In Charles-street, Mr John Shaw.
Frances S Fetherston H, daughter of the late Theobald Fetherston H, Esq. formerly of Mosstown, county Westmeath.
At the Forest, Swords, Jane, daughter of the late Patrick Forde, Esq.
In London, Mrs Ceocarini, daughter, of Wm Spackman, Esq.
of Belfast.
In Fenchurch-buildings, Fenchurch-street, Thomas Joseph Jordan, Esq.
At Russell square, E F Conduit, Esq.
At Kensington-park, Hannah Maria, wife of Joseph I M M Scott, Esq. and daughter of the late Captain Thomas Sheppard, of Waterford.
In Baker-street, Portman-square, Philip Southby, Esq.
In Brompton, Wm Henry Kerr, Esq.
John Mitchell, Esq. of Berkeley-square.
In London, of apoplexy, Thomas Jones Hamerton, Esq, son of the late E Hamerton, Esq of Dublin.
At Minehead, Somersetshire, Francis, son of the Rev Marcus M'Causland, Rector of Birr.
Drowned while bathing at Windsor, Henry Edward Cole, son of the late J R Cole, Esq. of Chertsey.
At Holloway, Mr J Whitaker, late of Carburton-street, Fitzroy-square.
At Douglas, Isle of Man, Francis Blackburne, Esq, son of W
Moyers, Esq.
At Upper Tulse-hill, Brixton, Grace Penelope, daughter of Mr Thomas Watts.
At Lynton, Angel Heath, daughter of the late Admiral Wm
Heath.
At Broad-green, near Liverpool, J P Brandreth, Esq. MD.
At Greenwich, Anthony King Newman, Esq. bookseller and publisher, London.
On board the Indiana, on his passage from Calcutta to England, on sick leave, the Hon Crosbie Ward, Lieutenant 73rd Regt, son of the late Viscount Bangor.
At sea, on his passage home from Calcutta, Alexander Greet, third son of Thomas Ingleton, Esq, late of her Majesty's Ordnance.
At Camp, Kirwen, of dysentery, Assistant-Surgeon G Dun-man, A Troop Horse Artillery.
At Simla, Capt E S Garstin, late 5th Regt N I.
At Simla, Edmund Tritton, CB, Inspector-General of Hospitals N. W. Provinces.

James Sheehy and Michael Holahan as truth telling? who said they were (if I mistake not) shewn some interest of Mr. Hedderman, or a member of assisting to get him a farm; and I do anything in my power to be kind the respectable farmers of my Parish can truly say I have received uniform period of eighteen years. But, Mr. Ento raise a quarrel between me and designated, by the word "gentler sex-ing class. But it won't do—" Diviis a jesuitical rule when fair m-I tell you very plainly you separate me from any class in parish, be they Roman Catholics rich or poor.—I shall continue to ac-of all (yourself included), if they are w-me as their clergyman. Well, but if o-not endeavour to force my spiritual but continue to do them all the ten-may be in my power to bestow. I shto Mr. Enraght, and I believe I ha-knowledging my courtesy, when refus-the proprietor a field which would b-possible convenience to me, on the would not be acting courteously by courtesy has not been reciprocated manner.

Mr. Enraght wont meet me in p-wont notice anything I may write, simplicity asks that I should write a tered number of baptised and received pose I stated I owe Mr. Enraght n-which I may fairly say. But I will trrible fact" from the parish registry, been received at the Baptismal Fon-cumbency, over 60 persons young parents were Roman Catholics; o-confirmed; 10 have been married; according to the rites of the Establisthose interred, eighteen were adults sively of the "Reconciled." That a-able and well informed persons, still ranks of life, capable of giving an a-that is in them, is a matter of fact.
Enraght be desirous to test their po-discussion (for two are in holy ord-the Church of Rome in this neighprevail on them to accede to such a

And now I tell Mr. Enraght, w-me or the Gospel which it is my du-have a hand to write or a tongue to be silent; and, "when the grass smy dust," faithful pastors shall, God up to take my place.

Our country, thank God, has a "
an "OPEN BIBLE." Education is ex-of Irishmen; the Repeal agitation less) has thought "Young Ireland intended by the Priests of Rome,—v-and the people no longer sigh for thdespotism of France, Austria, or them.

Not being desirous to make any on Mr. Enraght's "elegant extrac-
I remain faithfully yours,
G.