

and Brigadier Miller are brothers-in-law. A. V. Watson, of Limerick, who composed the general court-martial at the new barracks in this garrison, for trial of private Daniel Meehan, 3rd Buffs, for attempting to desert, of that corps, in presence of which he returned to their different stations on leave, of Colonel Stack, the district devolves on Major Field, whose quarters are in the Ordnance Barracks, at Sheffield, received orders to be prepared for embarkation, at Portsmouth, for Malta. The corps is very forward in discipline. The Depot Battalion, from Limerick, received the route for Clonmel, and on Wednesday last, to occupy the place by the 20th Regt. Thomas Stone, 9th regt, now serving in the Militia, at Aldershot, will be discharged this month. Color-Sergeant Stone has three war medals and 4 clasps; also a good conduct. He served for many years as a sergeant, and is a very clever musician. Orders have been issued to the several recruiting battalions, 9th Regiment, to resume the recruitment, as men are required to be established. This corps is stationed at Edinboro and is in a high state of efficiency. Orders are ordered to Eden. The 9th Regt. has arrived at the Cape of Good Hope. Belcher, 37th Regt. is ordered to sail next month. Nett Williams, 99th Regt. sails with the 10th.

Limerick Regiment under Major Sir Richard B. Bart. expect to move to Wexford, to the assistance of Wight. Captain M'Craith left Limerick this afternoon for the depot camp to join the county Limerick Regiment. Cambridge, upon his recent visit to the depot, found that the Kerry and Sterlingshire regiments were as fine as any in the service. He is Surgeon Royal City of Cork Artillery, and has performed his Dispensary duties at Kilbrittain. Captain M'Craith, Esq. Lieut. South Cork Light Infantry, obtained the highest number of marks in the examination lately held for a civil commission in London. M. Hayes, Esq. Assistant Surgeon, 1st Battalion King's Own Light Infantry, is on a tour of duty in Bandon. A meeting of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral was held yesterday, and attended by the following: Rev. Dean Kirwan, Rev. Thomas Gabbett, Rev. Thomas Beers, and Rev. Maurice De Burgh. In the course of some ecclesiastical matters, the subject of a stained window in the east wing of the Cathedral immediately over the choir was brought forward and discussed, and having been approved of, the project met with the sanction and approbation of the Dean and
