DEATHS.

With unfeigned regret we announce the death of George Westropp, Esq, solicitor, of this city, which melancholy event took place, after a few hours illness, on Saturday evening last, at Liscannor bathing village. In his profession Mr. Westropp was highly eminent, and discharged the important trust confided to him with ability of the highest order, and the most untarnished probity and honour. He was an excellent landlord, and in all his dealings was conscientious, upright and honourable. Devotedly bound by domestic ties, he was an affectionate husband and a fond parent. His remains were removed on this morning to the family burying ground at Doonass. The funeral was attended by a large number of private equipages, and a body of tenants wearing scarfs and handkerchiefs. This lamented gentleman was second son of the late Rev. Thomas Westropp, Rector of Doonass.
