

clerk of the Military Store has been promoted to be Barrackmaster at Sheerness, Storekeeper at Hull (abolished), is ordered to do J. Jones, Storekeeper at Ham, and Mr. C. K. Cleave

Militia struck their tents at and proceeded to barracks at regiment is now comfortably (about 500 men) are at the remainder in Anglesea estershire Militia, under the 7, have assembled at Gloucester. The Essex Rifles have also drill at Colchester. men from the Royal Antrim, have volunteered for the ick has arrived at the See his recent visitation. edings at the last monthly Orphan Society is unavoid-to be preached at Killasulla for the Tipperary Protestant y, (formerly a Roman Catholic) has been appointed by the e charge of three parishes in Mr. Leahy, after embracing a considerable time under the ction Society.

rch at Kanturk has been con- Cork, assisted by the Ven. e Rev. John Galbraith, Rec- clergy, there were present Morten, Day, Stewart, Ches- on was very numerous, all the district having attended ceremony. The building was rd Bishop, who expressed his d execution. At the close of collection was made in aid of y for the Propagation of the a church at Portadown, has yan, R.C.B., has arrived in House, after a month's so-aches to-morrow in Carlow. rt week.

in Queenstown next week.

of the late Capt F W Burgoyne, RN.
At Salford, Monsieur Charles Louis Van Tenac, late Lieutenant 2d Regiment of Zouaves, to Frances Marie, daughter of Mr John De Burgue, of Clonmel.
At Chilfroom, Dorsetshire, James Crane, Esq., of Southover, Tolpuddle, to Jane, daughter of the late Ezekiel Pope, Esq., of Chilfroom.
At Sydney, Edward, son of the late Lieut-Colonel Renwick, of Londonderry, to Susanna, daughter of Mr Robert Melville, of Sydney.
At Bangalore, Madras, Catherine Arthurina, daughter of Laurence Blount Williams, Esq. RN, Bath, to Charles Richard Levett, Esq, 1st Dragoon Guards.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, at his posting establishment, Henry-street, Mr Wm Henihan, father of Mr Martin Henihan, of Brunswick-street.
At Tulla, on Sunday, after a lingering illness, which she bore with truly Christian fortitude, Mary, relict of the late Mr Patrick Ready, iron merchant, and sister of the Rev Mortimer Hartney, C.C. Corofin.
At Woodroffe, county Tipperary, on Wednesday, Mr Maurice Kielly.
Of scarletina, at Mitchelstown, on Friday, William Patrick, third son of Eugene O'Mara, solicitor.
Lady Isabel Anne Dashwood, the only surviving daughter of James, 7th Earl of Landerdale.
At Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Mary, the wife of Jacob Owen, Esq.
In Holles-street, on the 9th instant, after a lingering illness, Mr Patrick Magee.
On his passage home from Melbourne, Harman William, son of the late Sampson C Hope Cooper, Esq.
At Westport, county Mayo, Charles MacDonnell, Esq.
At Willyfield, county Westmeath, Mrs Eivers, relict of the late Wm Eivers, Esq.
At Lissadell, county Sligo, John Jeffcott, Esq, MD, late of the Royal Navy.
At Maida-hill west, Jane, relict of Major James Pattison Adye, Royal Artillery.
In London, Mr James Rowland Carr, one of the representatives for the Ward of Bishopsgate, in the Court of Common Council.
At Whitefriar-street, John C Cooke, MD.
At Bond-street, Mr Nicholas Geary.
Mr George Head, printer, of Bath House, South Lambeth.
Mr John Wells, of High-street, Southwark.
At Shrewsbury, the Rev Charles Inge, of Benn-hill, near Atherstone.
At Hythe, near Southampton, General T A Parke, CB.
At Henley-in-Arden, Capt Wm Nott, 83d Regt.
At Eastcott, Middlesex, Capt Robert Wm Tute, RN.
Mr Thomas Bonsor Crompton, of Fanworth Nills, near Manchester, extensively connected with the cotton and paper trade.
At Ringwood, Hants, Captain John Francis Byrne, late Scots Fusilier Guards.
At Folkestone, J Atchison, Esq.
Mr W Doring, of Epsom.
Joseph, son of Mr J White, of the "Roehdale Observer and Standard."
At Edinburgh, Elizabeth Charlotte, daughter of the late Francis Earl of Seaforth.
Near Paris, Maria Josephine Auger, widow of the Right Hon Robert Cutler Ferguson, MP.
In Canada West, by the accidental discharge of his rifle, whilst out with a surveying party, Thomas, son of the Rev T Lloyd, Vicar of Kilglass, county Roscommon.
In Bundelcund of sun-stroke, while serving with the Central India Field Force, Capt J O Forster.
At Dinapore, of dysentery, brought on by exposure and fatigue, William Henry Scales, Esq, F R C S, Surgeon Madras Army.
At Calcutta, of cholera, Lieut John Dawson Hope, Royal Marine Artillery.
At Poonah, of dysentery, Lieut-Colonel Wm Morris, CB, 17th Lancers.

Married Man, and native Situation, as Under Stew can produce excellent Testimoni and good Character.
Letters, addressed A. B., O be attended to.
Sept. 11

MESSRS. CURRY and Accountants, Dublin, b respondents, and the Public, addition to their Business in every Branch of the Accounta Country,
Local Managers of the Irish Royal Insurance Co
Offices, 45, L
Sept 11

LOST
ON MONDAY Afternoon, STATION, a small Cocker nearly all white on the back, with a white stripe down foreh posed to be kept up near Foynes to MR. HOLAHAN, Ellen-Street, Station Master at Foynes, a rev and if the Bitch is kept up after he or they will be prosecuted.
Sept. 11.

CAUTION
THE Public are hereby C Credit to Captain THOMAS the Crew of the Barque "AJA Port, from Quebec, as the Own sible for any debts they may in MUI
Limerick, Sept. 11

UNDER THE PATRONAGE
THE MARQUIS OF V
MR. MAC
THE AMERICAN HORSE tor of Mr. Rarey's 1,000 (Bell's Life, 30th May, 1858), in LIMERICK in the Great Sy as practised by him with such lin, London, and the provinces, Establishment, Henry-street, and Wednesday, 14th and 15 o'clock precisely. Terms:—Sin men, £1 1s. 0d. Double Ticket, Gentleman, £1 11s. 6d. To be tory only.
September 11.