

ethard and Kinsale.
The second Battalion of the 20th Regt. left Waterford this morning for Tralee barracks, to be replaced at Waterford by the Royal North Lincoln Artillery, commanded by the Hon. John Monson.

Lieut. Colonel Hort, 36th Regt., has been the last three weeks on a Court of Inquiry in London. His remuneration is two guineas a-day.

Cornet G Lopes, 16th Lancers; Major the Hon. W. Krux, 51st Foot, and Captain Brace, 100th, have retired from the service.

The second detachment of the corps of the Royal Engineers under orders to proceed to British Columbia which left head-quarters Chatham, on Thursday morning, embarked yesterday at Southampton, and will proceed by the overland route to their destination. The officer in charge of the detachment is Captain J M Grant, R E. The remainder of the expedition, to the number of 128 non-commissioned and men, under the command of Captain H R Luard, embarked at Gravesend, on this day, on board the Thames City.

The 4th Light Dragoons are ordered to Nottingham.

The 9th Regt. arrived at Canterbury from Sunderland on Saturday last.

The 12th Regt. of Foot, just arrived from the Cape of Good Hope, are stationed at Fort George, Inverness.

Major Jones, 54th Regt. is returning to England, in ill health.

Lieutenants Cox and England, 13th Light Infantry have been granted leave of absence to England on medical certificate.

The 18th Royal Irish, second battalion at Londonderry, was inspected on Monday, by Major-General Gough, C.B. who, it appears, had been sent down by General Lord Seaton to examine into the cause of the disturbance created by some ill conducted men in the Regiment. At the close of the inspection the General briefly addressed the men, alluding to the recent excitements and exhorting them for the future to take pride in maintaining the high character of the Regiment.

The Secretary of State for War is of opinion that chapel schools, school rooms, or other buildings, used for purposes of Divine Worship, cannot be appropriated, under any circumstances, to instruction in musketry, and will take immediate steps to ascertain the expense of providing separate accommodation for this purpose, at stations where such a course may be considered necessary.

Sergeant Jordan, of the Royal Artillery, a fine young man, not above 26 years of age, and Pay Sergeant of his company, committed suicide by throwing himself off the rock at Gibraltar. The unfortunate man's intention was to seek self destruction by drowning, he was, however, precipitated on a projected piece of rock, and his body dreadfully mutilated; death must have been instantaneous.

Captain Barnes, 27th Inniskillen, Bengal, has got leave to Simla and the hills north of Deyrah on medical certificate.

Brevet Lieutenant Colonel McKenzic, 92nd Highlanders, has been appointed Deputy Adjutant-General to the Forces in Bengal and is at Calcutta.

Lieutenant the Hon. J. C. Dormer, 13th Light Infantry, has been appointed an Aide-de-Camp to the Commander-in-Chief in India.

The 28th, 67th, and 99th Regts. obtained their second Lieut. Colonels on Friday last, previous to proceeding to India.

of Lancaster.

DEATHS.

Of typhus fever, the Archduchess Margaret, daughter of the King of Saxony, and wife of the Archduke Charles, brother of the Emperor of Austria.

On the 17th instant, at Folkestone, Margaret Caroline, the wife of Robert Heyrick Palmer, Esq, Barrister-at-Law, aged 22 years.

At Fethard, the Rev John Wall, O S A.

At Castle Connell, the wife of Mr Patrick Hartigan, inn-keeper.

At Queenstown, Mrs Elizabeth Patterson, wife of Mr Alexander Patterson, Fermoy.

In Cork, Mr Wm Egan.

At Winter's Hill, county Cork, Edward England, Esq,

In South Main-street, Cork. Mr Daniel Boland.

At New York. James Draddy, of Middleton, county Cork.

The Rev Patrick Dunne, Parish Priest of Danesfort, near Kilkenny.

Captain Jeremiah Easter, late Lieutenant of the 23rd Light Dragoons.

At Leinster-road, Dublin, P J Daniell, son of the late Wm Daniell, Esq, of Ballymackney, county Monaghan.

At Barrow-street, Dublin, Joseph Jedson, Esq.

In Dublin, Wm Henry Dunn, Esq.

At Shankhill, Dublin, Mrs Plunket, relict of Michael Plunket, Esq.

At Royal Canal, Dublin, Mr S P O'Brien.

At South Great George's-street, Dublin. Mr John Heyfron.

At Grafton-street, Dublin, Mr John Fannin.

At Gardiner's-place, Dublin, William, the infant son of Wensley Bond Jennings, MD.

At Rathlin, county Dublin, John, son of Captain Gage, 15th Regt Madras Native Infantry.

Near Carlow, Adam Jackson, Esq.

At the Rectory, Ballybay, Maria, daughter of the Rev John Dunbar.

At Bray, county Wicklow, St Leger, son of the late Thomas Stuart, Esq, of Rathmines.

At Mullantane, Stewartstown, Richard Staples, son of Wm Magill, Esq, MD.

William F D Falkiner, Esq, of Osbertstown-hill, county Kildare.

At Rath, county Westmeath, the residence of Thomas West, Esq, Anne, daughter of the late Stephen Stock, Esq, of Dublin.

In the house she was born and reared, in Tomquile, county Wexford, at the advanced age of 102, Mrs Mary Kavanagh. She was the mother of sixteen children, of whom the eldest is 85, and attended his mother's funeral.

On his way from India to England, Major Earl, R H A.

At Sandymount, county Dublin, Eliza, wife of Charles Eastwood, Esq.

At Killoolman Rectory, county Mayo, in the 70th year of his age and 47th of his ministry, the Rev John Wm Moore.

At Lough Park, county Westmeath, the Rev Francis Evans, D C L.

In London, the Chisholm of Chisholm.

At St Andrew's College, Bradfield, Berks, the Rev Charles Marriott, B.D, of Oriel College, Oxford, and late Vicar of St Mary's (the University Church), one of the most able of the leaders in the Tractarian movement in 1836.

At Holy-hill, Sussex, Sarah Anne, Lady Sheffield, relict of the Rev Sir Robert Sheffield, Bart, of Normanby Park, Lincolnshire.

Thomas Ashton Smith, Esq, proprietor of extensive slate quarries in Bangor.

Captain Cheyne, Royal Engineers.

At Holyhead, Colonel Henry Vaughan Brooke, CB, A D C to the Queen, late of the Scots Fusilier Guards.

At Carlisle, of cholera, Jane, wife of John Morrison, Esq, and daughter of J Carrey, Esq, Carrickfergus.

At Wells, Norfolk, Mary, relict of Major Cassidy, of the 67th Regiment.

At Lucknow, from the effects of sun-stroke, received at the battle of Nawah Gunge. Lieutenant Charles Edward Wynne, Royal Engineers, son of the Rev Henry Wynne, Rector of Ardcolm, county Wexford.

At Calcutta, of dysentery, Eugene Matthew, son of James Allingham, Esq, of Dublin.

At Oxon, Elizabeth Charlotte, wife of the Rev H De Saumarez, Rector of St Peter's, Northampton, and daughter of the late Lord Churchill.

At Brighton, Anne, widow of Captain Wm Nugent Glascock, Royal Navy.

At St Margaret's-next-Rochester, Louisa, relict of the late Capt George Stephenson Wintour, Royal Navy.

At Winchester, Robert Morris Robinson, son of Lieut R M Hazen, 60th Royal Rifles.