

in a precarious state of
 has returned to Dublin
 O'BRIEN STAFFORD,
 the east end of Limerick a public memorial to the recommendation of Mr.
 architect, the committee
 purpose a new east window the reredos, and open oak plans have been approved Stafford's attachment to in which place he was a cathedral; and it a re-at his ancestor, Donald about 1168, built and en-castle at Limerick for dral is one of the most ins early specimens of
 We are glad to find that be in accordance with gothic architecture of the

as publicly contradicted to become a Roman Caa dotting old fool if he ge of 77.

GUINNESS.
 gifted preacher delivered theatre on Thursday eve-y to hear him, that long opening the door crowds commencement of the ser-occupied seat in a build-ng two thousand people.
 roof that sermons which d the dullest and driest le deeply interesting and e gay votaries of fashion public amusement, than in Limerick to religious pyren notes of song more temple of Thespis, than inspiration, as its tones
 7. Mr. Guinness, "flow-an honey." There was s discourse to awaken
 a beautiful discourse, bosom the hope of sal-tention prevailed while an gave out as his sub-blotteth out thy trans-and will not remember s discourse were these—believers from His book.
 For his own sake. 4.
 ches this day in Holy-pool, where the largest secured for the purpose.
 d for a month, during ay revisit this city after n, will preach his fare-nt Chapel, Bedford-row x, and at half-past six in

Infantry, to Lucy Fanny, daughter of Joseph Large, Esq. As-assistant Surveyor of the Navy.
 At Bridlington, Benjamin Wood, Esq, of Shipley, to Lucy daughter of Thomas Garton, Esq.
 At Windlesham, Surrey, Henry Robinson, Esq, Assistant Commissary General, to Laura Jessie, daughter of the Rev
 John Charles Lucena, M A.
 At the Parish Chvroh of Haigh, John Thompson, Esq. M A, of Wigan, to Sarah Elizabeth, daughter of Wm Peace, Esq, of Haigh, F G S.
 At St John the Baptist's Church, Liverpool, Mr James Cook
 to Miss Sarah A Sophia Tamlin.
 At All Saints' Church, Liverpool, Mr James Rimmer to Miss H Crawford.
 At Harbledown Church, Kent, Edward John Burton, Esq, Staff Surgeon of the First Class, Cavalry Depot, Canterbury, to Betsy Wheeler, daughter of Captain G Bushman, 2nd Dragoon Guards.
 At St Matthews, Spring-gardens, London, Wm Treadwell, Esq, of East Brixton, to Martha, daughter of the late George Mallam, Esq, of Hammersmith.

DEATHS.

At Ennis, of erysipelas in the head, Esther Elizabeth Phebe Heard, the beloved wife of A N H Heard, Esq, Sub-Inspector of Constabulary, and daughter of the late Eustace Stawell, Esq, of Coolmain Castle, county Cork, leaving an afflicted husband and seven sons to deplore her loss.
 Of croup, Louisa Mary, daughter of George Lysaght, Esq, of Cappa House, county Clare.
 In Skibbereen, William, son of John Collins, Esq, and nephew of the late Right Rev Dr Collins, Bishop of Cloyne and Ross.
 On Thursday, at Newboro', county Limerick, after a short illness, much regretted, Mr Thomas Ferguson, steward, an honest and intelligent man.
 At Meadowside House, Partick, Cork, John M'Gregor, Esq,
 of the firm of Todd and M'Gregor, ship builders.
 In New York, Mrs Ellen Sullivan, of Castlemartyr, county Cork.
 At Kinnegad, Cork, Cornelius M'Donnell, Esq.
 In Dublin, Susanna Chapman, relict of John Chapman, Esq, of Glasnevin.
 At Dalkey, Miss Patterson, daughter of the late John Patterson, of Ballyare, county Donegal.
 At Blackrock, county Dublin, Robert Blakeney Mitchell, Esq, son of the late John H Mitchell, Esq, Coolmeen, county Roscommon.
 At Rathlin, county Dublin, John, son of Captain Gage, 15th Regt Madras Native Infantry.
 At Hyde Park-place, London, Rowland E Cooper, Esq.
 At Southwark, Charles Cooke, Esq.
 Baker Gabb, Esq, of Monmouthshire.
 In London, Mr Richard Shearing, of Haymarket.
 At Hyde-park-gardens, London, Joseph Bainbridge, Esq, late of Madras.
 At Froddington, Elizabeth, widow of the late E Casher, Esq, of Portsmouth.
 In Manchester, the Rev Walter Scott, President and Professor of Hebrew in Airedale College, Yorkshire, and father of Mrs Lewis, Galway.
 At Cheltenham, Isabella, wife of the Hon J H R Curzon.
 At Portishead, near Bristol, Frances Penelope, daughter of the late Col A T Watson, of the Bengal Army.
 At Singapore, on his voyage from Melbourne to Hong Kong, Wm Dawson, of Tarbert, Argyleshire, commander of the barque Cornwall.
 In Bavaria, Mr Andrew Shortrede, proprietor of the "China Mail."
 Sir George Rich, of London, after many months of painful suffering
 At Portobello, near Edinburgh, aged 105, Jane Cameron, second daughter of the late Allan Cameron, Esq, of Glendessary, and widow of Capt Allan Maclean, 36th Regiment.
 At Aberdeen, Conrad Montgomery, late 4th Dragoons.
 At Clapham, James Sumner, Esq.
 At Rhug, near Corwen, Lady Vaughan, wife of Sir Robert Williams Vaughan, Bart.
 At the Cape of Good Hope, on his passage home on sick leave, after the siege and capture of Lucknow, John Mackenzie Fraser, Esq, Bengal Artillery.
 At Melbourne, Mr James Bourke, CE, formerly of Tralee, county Kerry.
 James Davis Dowd, Esq, of the Post-office, London.
 At Weymouth, Frederick John Ffolliott Payne, half pay 60th Royal Rifles.

scenery in Ireland. Trains run to connell three times a day—the Te few minutes walk of the celebrated ferior to those of Germany, and als to the far famed Falls of Doonass well known to be one of the healthi part of Ireland. A rare opportunity Inhabitants of Limerick, who can connell from the City in less than h
 A Lime Stone Quarry and Sar for the Buildings, and a sufficient q for each house.
 A Lease for ever will be granted
 For further particulars apply to JONAS BLACKALL, Sol
 or Mr. WILLIAM CO
 connell.
 September 25.

Ashbourne

SOUTH CIRCULAR
TO BE LET, from the 29th
 next, the House and Demesne present occupied by the Rev.
 The Demesne consists of 11½ Plant the quality of the land is excellent.
 tains 3 Sitting Rooms, and 8 Be Closet, &c. Stabling for 6 Horses, C House, &c., &c., are enclosed in a rere of the house. Abundance of mises.
 Application to FRANCIS HA
 Kilmallock.
 September 25.

SCOTTISH
Widows' Fund Life
Society.
 FOUNDED A.D. 18
 Upon Purely Mutual Pri
 HEAD OFFICE, 5, ST. AND EDINBURGH.

THE NEXT PERIODICAL INVEST affairs of the Society will take of 1859, and all Participating Polic the Current Year will then rank as A YEARS' STANDING.
 The Surplus Fund is allocated amo by way of Bonus Additions to t according to the amount and enduran and provision is also made for the pay INTERMEDIATE BONUS, payable in th emerging between the Septennial In A Publication, containing Practica
 Bonus Additions hitherto declared Policies, and of the various ways i be applied, may be had on applica Office or any of the Agencies.
 The ACCUMULATED FUND now amo
 THREE MILLIONS STE
 And the ANNUAL REVENUE to mor
 FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAN
 JOHN MACKENZ
 WM. LINDESAY,
 Edinburgh, September 1858.
 Agent for Limerick :
 WM. FRASER, Bank of Sept 25