

When in the Crimea. This, however, with some difficulty, owing to the lapse of time has occurred. There is doubt that the work will be complete in a few days, when the subject will be put on his trial—an event which is looked forward to with much interest.

"FAMILY" FAMILY.—A field officer asks us to solve the following rather posing question:—"Can you explain why the 85th Light Infantry, a sea-service Regiment, is uselessly retained at the Cape? Is the Lieut-Colonel is Grey, the Governor-General, Admiral Grey, the Bishop Grey, that it is necessary to break up or separate such a nest of family influence? Therefore, for family reasons, the ser-vice Regiment is lost where it is most needed." S. Gazette.

A soldier of the 13th Light Dragoons was killed a few days since, by his horse falling over him.

Naval Service is so hard up for medical men that it is not to be able to spare one to act as agent for the Government at Valparaiso.

An order from the Horse Guards, dated 30th September, directs that the following instruments will henceforth be included in the band—12 brass drums, 12 field drums, 2 F do., 1 F piccolo, 1 E flat do., 1 bugle, and one flute per company.
