

Magistrates at the County Petty Sessions were—John Watson Mahony, Michael R. Ryan, and Pierce G. Several persons summoned by the breaches of the road act were fined with costs. Several drunkards were office on Thursday, before the Mayor, one case for trial, a fiddler, charged woman, who was remanded.

All bench of magistrates at the Petty yesterday, William Hartigan, Esq., in as Heffernan, an apprentice, was to gaol in case he did not return to his master, John Madden; several g's Police court, before R. M'Mahon, Namara and Thomas Molony were assaulting the Night watch.

s ago, copied from a Belfast cotemporary respecting the expenses attending Royal Commission; we afterwards had ect the error of that paragraph in stating the rate of fees paid to Mr C. We find that our cotemporary isinformed as to the fees paid to Mr and we believe the remuneration to the oners to be usually much higher than e paragraph referred to.

of the 16th, 28th, 57th, 86th, and embarked at Queenstown on Wednesday; also drafts of the 8th Hussars anders.

y, second battalion, 23rd Royal Welsh himself at Brecon on Sunday.

John Ellis has been appointed Brigade Marines at Canton, vice Col. Tra-Assistant Quartermaster-General. The Brigade will not leave Canton till the December. Last accounts left all in good ens succeeds to a Majority in the 23rd the death of Major Lumly, and Lieut. Daniel Fiennes obtains the company.

32nd Regt. succeeds to the Lieutenant at Corps, by the death of Lieut-Col. main Clapcott gets the Majority, and btains a company.

man, Roche, and Lettice, 69th Regt. ted in Cork for the highway robbery night, of Mr. Reuben Harvey, Solicity. He was knocked down and deprived ngs, and money. The party consisted of the County Limerick Regiment are e Isle of Wight.

rd Militia Artillery are stationed at ery Militia corps are to be embodied. efficient, and well-conducted City of ia corps daily expect an order to that

At St George's, Hanover-square, London, Wm Knapp, Esq, of Wolverley, to Philadelphia, widow of the Rev James Mackenzie, and daughter of the late Sir Percival Hart Dyke, Bart, of Lullingstone Castle, Kent.

At Jamaica, Major Frederick Cherburgh Bligh, her Majesty's 41st (Welch) Regiment, to Emily Matilda, daughter of the Hon Hinton East.

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning, in William-street, of fever, Edmond O'Connell, Esq, aged 38 years, leaving a bereaved widow and young family to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father. The deceased much lamented gentleman was highly esteemed by all classes in the city. The burgesses of the Irish-town Ward elected him a member of the Corporation shortly after the passing of the Municipal Reform Act, and on the re-election of the Corporation under the Improvement Act, conferred on him the Aldermanic honours of the ward. A sincere friend, or one more kind-hearted and generous than Alderman O'Connell it would be rare to find, and the large assemblage that this morning followed his remains to Mount St. Laurence cemetery testified to the general feeling of respect entertained towards him among his fellow-citizens.

Henry Blake, Esq, of Ballina House, brother to Martin Joseph Blake, Esq, formerly MP for the borough of Galway.

The Rev Gerald Doyle, P.P. Naas.

In Mungret-street, Johanna, the interesting infant daughter of Mr James O'Connor.

At Newcastle West, county Limerick, John, son of the late Mr Michael Minihan, Land Surveyor.

At Roscarbery, Frances, daughter of the late R Starkie, Esq of Burgetia.

Suddenly, Mr John Martin, of Watling-street, Dublin.

At Carnew, county Wicklow, Margaret, wife of the Rev Peter Wilson.

At Kingstown, Sarah, widow of Joseph G Hill, Esq, Lieut-Col of the 13th Madras NI.

At Clontarf, Anna, wife of Henry Davis, Esq, Coroner of the County Dublin.

At Parsonstown, Mary Anne Aloysius, daughter of Mr R Kennedy, and niece to the late RC Bishop of Killaloe.

At New Zealand, the Rev James A Wallace, son of the late Hugh Wallace, Esq, Downpatrick.

Joseph F Taylor, Esq, formerly of the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham.

At New South Wales, Juliana Maria, wife of Wm T Walters, Esq, and daughter of John Cantwell, Esq, of Birr, in the King's County

At Prahran, Ellen, daughter of Mr John Grace, of Kilkenny, and wife of J S Merton, Esq, late of Oxford.

At Little Patrick-street, Belfast, Mr Patrick Stewart.

Mr Abraham Matthews, of Belfast.

At North Boundary-street, Belfast, John, son of Mr Hugh Montgomery.

At Donegall-street, Belfast, Mr John M'Bride.

At Cincinnati, U S A, Eliza Thornhill, wife of Mr John B Mooney, son of Mr Edward Mooney, Victoria Hotel, Maghera, county Derry.

At Acrelands, near Lancaster, John Armstrong, Esq, a magistrate and deputy lieutenant for the county.

In London, James Rhodes Banks, Esq.

At Aldergate, London, Levy Ephraim Green, Esq.

At Kensington, Mr Joseph Gould.

Mr George F Grimes, of Whitechapel, London.

George S Hawthorne, Esq, MD, of Liverpool.

At Calais, the Hon Anne Rodney, daughter of the late Admiral Lord Rodney.

At Ferozepore, Helen, wife of Francis Anderson, Esq, MD, 4th European Light Cavalry.

On board the Simla, off the Island of Socotra, Col C A Fitzhardinge Berkeley, 32d Light Infantry, and formerly of the Scots Fusilier Guards.

Oliver Goldsmith, second officer of the Dunsandle, son of the late Commander C Goldsmith, RN, and a great grand-nephew of the poet Oliver Goldsmith.

On board her Majesty's ship Fury, returning from Pecheli to Hong Kong, Lieutenant James Buckland Cockell, 59th Regt.

At New South Wales, Rachael, relict of Nicholas Dunbavin, Esq, late of Dublin.

At Tasmania, Marcus, son of the late Capt Walter Synnot, 89th Regiment.

At Honduras, Loudon de Lancy, Lieutenant 2d West India Regt, son of Lieut-Col de Lancy, of Guernsey.

Steampacket, Forward
tralian, and A 20, EDEN
October 23.

Great M

WHOLESA

Boot & Sh

117, GEC

EDMOND V
his Cust
tronage they ha
and to call their STOCK OF
his own manufa

He has now of Hunting and
TO CLERGYM
lar attention to
dia Rubber Gai riding.

TO SPORTSM
Stock of Sho made of Water
few India Ru
which will be s

DAMP FEET.
cold feet, rheu
his cork-soled surprising the wearing those and cold weath

Ladies' Boot
made to order,

October 23.

VERY RE

The great Advocat

A LECTURE

At t

Young

CHAR

On Thur

AT

IMMEDIATELY
Gentleman will ad
those who may come to

The Rev. HENRY C
co-operation of the M
ers, and Trades of th
perance, and hopes t
selves of the opportu
Rev. Dr. SPRATT off
perance.

Oct. 23

GALOSHES.

BOOTS,

SHOOTING

AND

BOOTS

FISHING