CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.
re of the Young Men's Christian vered at the Protestant Orphan evening, by William Cochrane, times of the Rev. John Wesley. er commenced by showing the gious character of the times when d up as a witness for God—the to the wickedness of man, and gave licentiousness. A most graphic tion was given of that memorable age of six years he was rescued his father's burning house. The a lucid account of Mr Wesley's in college, his high classical at-y habits, gentlemanly deportment, occupation, voluminous writings, untiring zeal, and exertions in l through the United Kingdom; hich followed the labours of this patent to all—his end was peace; as, in his 88th year. This lecture rly two hours in delivering, was and marked attention by a large eience. We were glad to see so thered to hear this very interest-cture, and would recommend all is city to avail themselves of the ered, to hear such lectures as the an association annually provides.
