DEATHS.

On Thursday, at his residence, Stephen's-green, Dublin.
 Charlotte, wife of Sir Mathew Barrington, Bart. In all the relations of life this excellent lady was esteemed and respected.
 She was a devoted and attached wife, and a fond and affectionate parent. The poor at Glenstal have to mourn the loss of a kind and generous benefactor, the munificence of whose charities saved them many a suffering. In the circle of her acquaintance her charming manners and elegant accomplishments made her the object of general admiration; and the best affections of her own immediate family were centred in this much and deservedly lamented lady. The funeral will take
