

...wever, that Mr. Ryding's system
 ...eth, comprises a more important
 ...rendered extraction unnecessary,
 ...re the disease has extended to the
 ...ce he has for a long time com-
 ...ut extraction.

LOLA MONTEZ.

Our last, LOLA MONTEZ was one of ...arrived at Galway on Tuesday, by ...New York. Speaking of her, a ...e following:—

...ssengers in the state cabin—and
 ...l attention—was a lady of world-
 ...DAME LOLA MONTEZ, Countess of ...at one period of her eventful his-
 ...with ability and success the affairs
 ...varia. The Countess was received ...and respect by the officials and a ...nt on board on the arrival of the ...a flounced black silk dress (sans
 ...it a rich fur mantle, trimmed with
 ...oonnet was of brown silk, trimmed
 ...and a few flowers, and she wore a
 ...ese cross. In appearance and man...e prepossessing and agreeable. We ...eing introduced to her by Captain
 ...assure our readers that her bear-
 ...se of that high-flying, horsewhip-
 ...h some of our "best public in...n accustomed to represent her as ...ong-minded woman,' as the Ameri-
 ...cribes such persons, there is no
 ...e would tell you so herself.—But ...harming expression of her features,
 ...lady-like style of her conversa-
 ...ith a rich dash of quaint humour ...nce enlist the admiration of every ...We learned from herself that she
 ...for the purpose of delivering
 ...Cork, Limerick, Waterford, Belfast
 ...on "America, its people and its
 ...and she added that she means to ...hey are but not as they have been
 ...Mr. Dickens, Mr. Mackay, Mr.
 ...s who have already "done them"
 ...f very warm affection of Ireland,
 ...nd said she was most anxious to ...rth place, which she left when a ...ghter of Captain Gilbert of the of the 20th the passengers in the ...aptain Trocks to a complimentary

 ...tary to the Committee of passen-
 ...her to Dr. Gray, of the Freeman's
 ...Captain Trocks, on behalf of the
 ...olutions and votes of thanks.

MONTEZ rose and expressed the ...atisfaction she had in the voyage,
 ...kindness and attention she had
 ...e officers, especially from Captain
 ...anity and attention she should ...most kindly recollection of."

...kardacollan, Shanagolden,
 ...25th November, 1858.
 ...turn you thanks, for the prompt ...have paid me for the cow which ...remain Sir, yours &c.,
 ...GEORGE O'CONNOR.
 ...THOMAS NOLAN,
 ...Insurance Company, Ballyan,
 ...Shanagolden.

DEATHS.

On Thursday evening, after a few hours illness, of inflammation of the wind-pipe, at his seat, Belmont, Castle Connell, John White, Esq, J.P, Nantenant He filled the office of High Sheriff of this county three years since. He was deputy chairman of the Market Trustees, and deputy chairman of the Limerick and Foynes Railway. Possessed of a large landed property, his attentions to his tenantry were remarkably kind, while in the domestic circle his affability had endeared him to all his acquaintances. He was a good father and a fond husband. A munificent supporter of the local charities, his loss is much regretted. His remains will be interred at 8 o'clock on Monday morning in the family vault at St. John's church.

On Thursday, the 25th instant, at Blackrock, in the county of Dublin, Mary Frances, eldest daughter of the late Laurence Marshall, of Tomoline, in the county of Limerick, Esq, in the 26th year of her age, sincerely regretted.

On Tuesday evening, at Ardbohill, in this county, after a protracted illness, Edward, third son of Michael Sheehy, Esq.
 This day, at Edward-street, Mrs Granville, very much regretted.

On the 22nd instant, at Dromanig House, county Cork, sincerely regretted by her children and friends, to whom she was deeply attached, as also to the poor, who always found in her a benefactress. Hanora, the beloved wife of Denis Leonard, and mother of Mr Denis Leonard, Mall, Trales.

John Joshua Lord Proby, heir to the earldom of Carysfort.
 At Lucknow, Lieut James Perrin, 5th Fusiliers, son of the Rev Mark Perrin, Rector of Athenry, county Galway, and nephew of Judge Perrin.

At Barbourne House, Worcester, in his 84th year, Lieutenant-General Thomas Lightfoot, CB, Colonel of the 62nd Regiment, and last surviving officer in the renowned 45th Regiment. The deceased was the last surviving officer who entered the Peninsula with Moore and left it with Wellington: He received seven wounds, and one ball remained in him till his death. He received three gold and eleven silver medals, being one more than the Duke of Wellington.

At Weir-au-bois, Samer, France, John Henry Blakeney, Esq, Castle Blakeney, county Galway.

At Belgaum, Bombay, Lieut Patrick Alexander Robertson, of her Majesty's 56th Regt.

On his passage from Cambay to Bombay, of dysentery, John Lewes Philipps, Lieut-Colonel of her Majesty's 89th Regt.

At Montenotte, James Conway, Esq, son of the late Martin Conway, Esq, of Cork.

In Cork, Barbara, widow of George Starr, Esq.

In Cork, John Sims, Esq.

At Kinsale, Julius H Strike, Esq, formerly Captain in the 12th Regiment.

Lord Henry Cecil, fourth son of the Marquis and Marchioness of Exeter.

At Paget Priory, the Rev Dr E Tighe Gregory, Rector and Vicar of Kilmore.

In Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, George, son of Michael Valentine Aylmer, Esq.

At Upper Mount-street, Dublin, William Henry, son of Wm Bloomfield, Esq.

At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of John Parsons, Esq, formerly Commissioner of the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

At Mount Tallant-terrace, Dublin, Rosalie, daughter of John Riddick, Esq.

Charles Edgar, son of Mr Joseph Williams, of Cope-street, Dublin.

At Park-street, Dublin, Frederick Robert Yarde, son of Frederick Robinson, Esq, MD, Scots Fusilier Guards.

At Harold's-cross, George Mack King, Esq, late superintendent of police in the West Riding of York.

At Tandragee, Hugh M'Connell, Esq, solicitor.

At Banagher, Dr George Pierce, jun, son of George Pierce, Esq, MD, Tullamore.

At Dundrum, Mr Stephen B Clarke, late clerk in the Queen's Colleges Commission Office.

In Kingstown, Samuel Elliott, Esq.

At Strabane, North of Ireland, Jane, wife of Mr John Cook, watchmaker.

At Ardee, Elizabeth, wife of Nathaniel Hale, Esq, and daughter of the late Richard Blackburne, Esq, of Mulladillon, county Meath.

At Carrickfergus, Thomas, son of Thomas Craig, of Strabane.

At Newry, John Kearney, Esq, merchant.

At Maytown, near Newry, Mr Joseph Livingstone.

In Derry, Ross Beatty Smyth, Esq.

In Derry, Wm Nimmo, Esq.

Margaret Eliza, wife of Wm Henry Slator, Esq, of Whitehill, county Longford.

At Abbeyderg, county Longford, Eliza, relict of Mr Harman Bole.

In London, Lieut-General Fanshawe, CB.
 At Lunsdowne-place, Leamington, Vice Admiral Bigland, of Bigland Hall, Lancashire.
 At Frome Somerset, Mary Ann, daughter of the late Captain R I L O'Connor, RN.
 At Norfolk, Mary Perry, widow of the late Captain Perry, RN, who served under Lord Nelson at the battle of Trafalgar

South Circular Road walk of the Crescent For particulars app
 D

Nov. 27.

HORSE AND C

THE next great M will be held on next—therefore partic Sheep, and intending please send full par catalogues may be m
 There is a ready sale pository, for hunte suited for general use of the following descr In-calf heifers, 2 ye bullocks, good wethe Application to be m
MICHA
 P.S.—There are se and hunters for priva
 November 17.

H
HORSE AND C
FOR Private Sale from the Breeder matched Carriage Ho high, fine goers and q ranted sound, and fai cation to MICHA
 November 24.

H
HORSE AND C
N
TO BE SOLD at TDAY, the 4th of One o'Clock sharp High-bred well colo distemper.
MICHA
 Nov. 27.

Policy of B
TO BE SOLD by
The Horse Reposit One o'Clock P.M. of
 of NOVEMBER,
RANCE, on the Life Effected with the In rance Company, in £400.
MICHA
 Nov. 27.

Mount St. I
WANTED
THE Committee metery will next, December 2nd the Cemetery. The Lodge; to keep the trees, &c.
 Further particula
 mittee, at their offic
 Nov. 25, 185 8.