

has been appointed

West India Regi-
man, of the same regiment.

has resigned the appointment of Major General A A T
the 2nd Infantry

Master-General to be succeeded by Lieut-Col.

Prendergast, M.D., Chatham, and returns leave of absence.
Majorship of Hong Kong, has left that ap-proceeded from the September, to report accommodation in book, RA, has been

and has left Natal

A.—The permanent cavalry at Cape Town, for now almost a matter
of forty horses (remounts)
per the Mardon.

the two senior officers
of Royal Marines,
B., at Portsmouth,
mouth, are to retire
January.

consisted of 523 vessels.
Of the above 523
2 in India and China
Eleven line-of-battle
forty-six war steamers
dry with great des-

new of T. Boyce, Esq., and Lieutenant in the

who were in collision

have been sentenced to early of this city, is presoughin island, and a al, by the Bishop of

y, of Cork, addressed
nt Hall, on the inter-
of Life, in connection

lecturer treated this language replete with stances from the lives

y power of the mother
an observation of Nair success or failure in ery: and how trans-

such training when

—Rev. Benjamin
the able and eloquent
his custom to eulogise
from him by an oration
it was pleasing to see,
a large staff of clergy.
—Rev. J Gabbett in

the late James Hampton, Esq., of Dorset-square, London, to Ellen Jemima, daughter of the late Rev Thomas Evans, incumbent of Longdon-on-Tern, Salop.

D E A T H S .

On the 1st Jan. inst., in Dublin, Mrs Cromie, the beloved wife of John Cromie, Esq., DL, Portstewart, sister to Sir Hunt J Walsh, Bart, Stradbally, and mother of the Right Hon Wm Monell, MP, deeply and deservedly regretted by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

On Monday morning, 3rd inst., at his residence, 40, Patrick-street, John MacDonnell, Esq., nephew of the late Sir Joseph Barrington, Bart.

At Rome, after a lingering illness, Mary Alathea Beatrix, wife of Filippo Andrea VI, Prince Doria Pamphili, and last surviving daughter of John, 16th Earl of Shrewsbury and Waterford.

In Baggottstown, county Limerick, Catherine, relict of the late Mr Michael M'Auliffe.

In Glin, the wife of Mr Michael Danne.

At Grange, near Nenagh, Mrs Gleeson, relict of the late Mr Wm Gleeson.

In the Causeway, Ennis, Mr Patrick Keuny, Excise Officer.

At Archerstown, county Tipperary, Henry Langley, Esq.

At South Mall, Cork, Margaret Frances, daughter of Mr M J Collins, solicitor.

Mr Charles Cullinan, of Ballymacolinan, county Cork.

At Mount Beamish, county Cork, Mary, relict of the late Walter Baldwin, Esq., of Maryville, same county.

At Waterloo, county Cork, Charles F Smith, Esq., Lieut RN, Commanding Coast Guard.

At Kinsale, Miss Jane Walton.

At Mitchelstown, Margaret, relict of Francis Hanan, Esq., of Tallow, county Waterford.

At Nun's Island, Galway, Mark D'Arey, Esq.

In Dublin, the Rev Hugh Smith Cumming, rector of the parish of Loughinisland.

At Harcourt-street Dublin, Isabella, wife of the Rev Wm Wallace, curate of Glanealy.

At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Mrs Grace Flin.

In Dublin, Clementina, widow of John Siree, Esq.

In Dublin, Ellen, daughter of Mr James Tier, of Emmett Cottage.

In Dublin, the Rev Augustine Murphy, officiating clergyman of the Catholic Cathedral, Marlborough-street.

Suddenly, at South Circular-road, Dublin, Mrs Winifred Leonard.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, the Rev J Mulloy, rector of Castleblaney, county Galway.

At Kingscourt, county Cavan, Mrs Annie Lynch, relict of James Lynch, Esq.

Kate, daughter of the late Mr John J Hipwell, of Edenderry.

In Dublin, Elizabeth, child of Mr P Swift.

At Newbliss, county of Monaghan, at the advanced age of 83, Miss Anne Ker.

In Belfast, Robert Standfield, Esq.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, Richard, son of Mr Francis M Sarsfield, of Plumley, and grandson of Lieut Sarsfield, RN, of the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company.

At Upper Clapton, London, Anna, relict of Alfred Lloyd, Esq., formerly of Birmingham.

At Bath, Mary Matilda Crawley, daughter of the late Admiral Edmund Crawley.

At Guildford, William Henry, son of the Rev Henry Ayling, of Frampton Cotterell Rectory, Gloucester.

At his seat, Treriffe, Cornwall, the Rev George Valentine Le Grice, MA.

At Bashey-heath, Herne, the Ven John Williams, AM, Oxon, Archdeacon of Cardigan, Canon of St David's, and Prebend of Brecon.

At Bury St Edmunds, Edward Atholl, infant son of Robert Ferguson, Esq.

At Peterborough, Mr Wm P Stanley, the eminent agricultural implement manufacturer.

At North Brixton, Amelia, daughter of the late S B Gomperz, Esq.

At Glasgow, Jane Maxwell, daughter of James Dale, Esq., merchant.

James Percival, son of the late Percival Foster, Esq., of Cleint House, Stourbridge.

At Cadogan-place, London, Maria Louisa Victorine, daughter of the late George Laurenos, Esq.

At Kensington-park, London, Frederick Devon, Esq., Assistant Keeper of the Public Records in the Record Office, Chapter House, Westminster.

In London, Rosalie Charlotte, wife of Wm Geddin, Esq., of Golden-square, St James's.

At Russell-square, London, George Salt, Esq.

At Vienna, the Archduchess Marie Anne (of Austria), sister of the Emperor Ferdinand I., who abdicated in favour of the present Emperor, and of Archduke Francis Charles, father of the latter. She was consequently aunt to the present Emperor of Austria.

vows, Railway Debentures, Reversions,
tion Loans, Personal Security, Deposit
without the expense of Mortgage Deeds, aristocracy or other substantial persons money upon their own personal security commuted, by applying to Messrs. ELLIS
Civil Engineers and Surveyors, Tavistock Southampton-street, London. The strict may be relied upon, but no agents treated v Jan 5.

STUDIES HAVE BEEN RESUMED AT THE CHRISTMAS VACATION

Limerick School of ATHENÆUM, CECIL-STREET COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

1—Elementary, including freehand dra-copies; ornament and figure outlined at elementary compositions in colour; practical and perspective.

2—Advanced, including outline and shament and figure from casts; anatomical at studies; painting landscape, fruit, flower water colour, tempera, and oil, from the fl nature; elementary design, as applied branches of manufacture; modelling orn
figure from casts or drawings; flowers, fruit nature.

3—Technical, including mechanical and ral drawing.

HOURS OF MEETING, AND FEES.
Morning Classes—Male and Female, — Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 10 to 1
Fees. Five Shillings per month, or One Session.

Evening Classes—Male and Female
Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and F
7 to 9 o'clock. Fees, Two Shillings per h
All Fees to be paid in advance.

* * The Sessions commence on the 1st and 1st September, and end on the 30th 31st January, respectively.

PRIZES, SCHOLARSHIPS, &c.
Government offers to deserving stu-
school the following advantages, viz.:—

1st—Prize Scholarships, giving the admission to all classes in the school.

2nd—Pupil Teacherships, giving in ad-advantages offered to prize students, a p ment of £20 per annum, in considerapective Candidates having passed through grade of art, viz.:—free-hand drawing, gespective, and drawing from models; and o
ing 2 lessons per week in schools for the p

3rd—at a public examination of the wo
by the students of the school, bronze me awarded to the most meritorious; such ex provide for the inspection of the work
hitherto taken place in the Metropolis, performed by an Inspector of the De Science and Art, London, assisted by the of the school, and if necessary by the he a neighbouring school. The works which wards in each provincial school are c gether into a National Exhibition, and S are awarded to the most deserving of them.

Copies of this Prospectus may be obt
School, and of the Secretary.

January 5.