VALUABLE INVESTMENT.

Auction of Houses.

P. COLEMAN

AS been directed by Mr. David Punch, to Sell by Auction, at his Mart, 6, Rutland Street, on WEDNESDAY, the 25th instant, the interest in 13 acres, situate in Vizes Fields, 12 of which are one story, and one two story high. They are held under a lease of lives renewable for ever, at the nominal fine of one shilling, paying £54 per annum, and subject to a small yearly ground rent of £12; they leave an annual profit rent of £42.—The rent of each house being exceedingly low, there is never a want of Tenants; there is also building ground for four other houses. The proprietor is selling the above property on account of his Cooperage being too far from the Public Markets.

The plan of the Houses can be seen at the Mart on the day of Sale.

Purchasers to pay 5 per cent in addition to their Auction fees.

Sale at 12 o'Clock.

 perty, feel that they do their client best justice by stating all fully and fairly in description, simply restating, intending purchasers to view the premises, the soundest proof of substantial value, and by
