

ET,
ER,
K, VL, and Y DRESS,
are now ready for Inspection.
6, GEORGE-STREET.

to obtain a Situation as Butler or Gentleman's family; has no country; has lived both in with the highest and most res-will feel an interest in recom-
OFFICE of this Paper.—Will be March 12

Wanted,
Produce in Ireland, on Com-LEATON, Hacken's Hey, Liver-

ns Wanted.
STONE MASONS wanted at minus for the Season.
the men have a shed to do rough ther. March 9

Fruiterers.
offers for sale a large assortment Fruit to dealers at moderate

Oranges.

ns, auts,
ice, 8, SHANNON STREET,
March 12

Tartary Seed Oats,
AND TURNIPS.
RY has for Sale at Curragh Bridge, superior Black Tartary Seed Oats; Prime Hay, Swedish and Aberdeen

March 12th, 1859.

to be Sold

Three Dwelling Houses, Nos. 1, et-street, near Mr Wm. Sheehy's ent, held for an unexpired term of 85, and now producing a clear 0 a year. Also,
TO BE LET,
William-street, opposite the Police s most central and business part of ulars apply to THOMAS ELLIOTT rth-street.

At Telford, Wm. At Fane, Esq., of the Manor.
In London, James Gilbert Esq., of the Provident Institution, Trafalgar-square, to Catherine, daughter of Wm Bullen, Esq., solicitor, Dublin.
In London, George Fead Lamert, Esq., Paymaster 60th Royal Rifles, to Maria, daughter of the late Monsieur Grillion.
At Paris, Henry Needham Knox, Esq., Lieutenant in the Royal Navy, to Minna, daughter of Monsieur and Madame Lavit.

DEATHS.

This morning, after a few hours' illness, being in the streets yesterday in apparent excellent health, John W Owens, Esq., retired Town Clerk, and at the time of his decease Secretary to the Committee of the Corporation, and to the London Water Works Company, in this city. In private life he was most affable and amiable, and in the discharge of his public duties a most efficient and exemplary officer. His death is sincerely and deservedly regretted. His brother, an eminent banker, died in Madrid a short time ago.

On the 9th instant, at her father's residence, Ringwood, in this county, aged 21 years, Mary Jane, eldest daughter of Conyers D'Arcy, Esq. Her decease is a source of deep affliction to her relatives, and of sincere regret to all her friends, soothed, however, by the knowledge of her having fallen asleep in Jesus.

At Chelsea, on the 5th instant, deeply and sincerely regretted, Anna, relict of the late Dr James Darrac, of this city.

At Litter House, county Kerry, at an advanced age, Thomas Wren, Esq.

In London, Henry Eagar, Esq., son of John F Eagar, Esq., of Blennerville, Tralee.

At Killarney, Maryanne, daughter of the late Mr D Layne.

At Blarney, Mrs Schreiber, of Inishannon, county Cork.

Laonora, daughter of M'Carthy O'Leary, Esq., county Cork.

At South Terrace, Cork, Catherine, widow of George Davies, Esq., formerly of London.

At Paris, Richard Greene, Esq., MD, late of Dunkitt House, county Kilkenny.

At Prospect, near Dunmore, county Galway, Julia, relict of the late Bernard Daly, Esq.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Susan, daughter of Patrick Gaul, Esq.

Sir John Archibald Murray, Lord Murray, one of the Judges of the Second Division of the Court of Session, Edinburgh.

At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Sarah, wife of Robert Partridge, Esq.

At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Marian Emily, daughter of the late Wm Haliday, Esq., of Clifton, county Down.

At Dundrum, Lucy, wife of Joseph Garratt, Esq.

At Wicklow, Captain Frederick Halpin.

At Wicklow, the Rev Robert Porter, formerly curate of that town.

At Crossmolina, Mayo, George Mestyn, Esq.

At Barenstown Rectory, Robert Leslie, son of the Rev Isaac Aah.

At Kingstown, Mr George Nesbitt.

At Monkstown, county Dublin, Isabella, relict of H Irwin, Esq., MD, Deputy Inspector-General of Army Hospitals.

Catherine, daughter of Guy Stone, Esq., JP, Comber.

In Londonderry, Frances Arabella, relict of the late H Cole, Esq., Annstown, county Waterford.

At Rathfarham, Annie Teresa, daughter of Pierce Cox, Esq., of Waterford.

At Ely House, Wexford, Robert W Hughes, Esq., late of the Bengal Civil Service.

Mrs M J Butler, Superiress of the Presentation Convent, Wexford.

At Borlsem, Carlow, Ellen, wife of Charles H Tuckey, RM.

At Cheltenham, Eleanor, relict of the late Captain Garstin, of the 66th Ghoorkas, and daughter of the Rev O Garstin, rector of Ballyrosey.

At Shawesfield, Hants, Rear-Admiral Sir Richard Grant.

At Bruton, Somerset, Major Dickens, late of her Majesty's 95th Regt.

At Kingston-on-Thames, William Charles Monck Mason, Esq., late of Dublin.

At Cheltenham, Sarah, widow of the late Lieut General
Spencer Claudius Parry, Colonel-Commandant of the 7th Batt.
Royal Artillery.

At Faversham, John Buck Toker, Esq., RN.

At Paddington, General Fraser, Madras Army.

UNDER the immediate and Royal Family, late Governor General of In-Commander in Chief in Ind-
Now Open, HAMILTON
PANORAMA of INDIA scenery of Hindostan—its and scenes and events of the outbreak at Meerut to the Colin Campbell, painted on vass, from the original sketch
by the most eminent Lord Louis Haighe and Mr. Phil-followed by a Magnificent Iof the NATIVITY at Charles Marshall, of her M-Exhibition every evening.
A grand fashionable After-liantly illuminated by gas day, at 2 o'clock.
Reserved Seats, 2s; Sec-
Tickets to be had at Mess-
George-street.
The magnificent Hi-Benares brilliantly Illumi-admiration.
Saint Patrick's Day,
Special Desire, a DAY EX-

THEATRE ROYAL

Grand Fashion

THURSDAY NE

Under the Imm

COLONEL

OFFICERS OF THE

HAMILTON

Colossal Moving

ILLUSTRATING the

Lieut.-Colonel LAURD.

Viscount Gough, late

twice visited the Panor

London, and expressed accuracy and beauty.

Stalls and Boxes, 2s. ;

It being SAINT P

Grand Afternoon Exhib

illuminated by Gas.

Evening Exhibition at

Tickets to be had at

George-street.

March 12