

ch; the subject is lting elements, and parishes of Rookhill, on the Rev. Messrs

ay last, (10th inst.)
n the handsome sum ionate and eloquent
Mr. Thomas Dun-
o which each of the complimentary and

nts of fresh butter to nich were seized by ent in weight.

ahir, has subscribed
f a nunnery in that
a. R.C.B., £50.

l visit Limerick and subscriptions for the k.

P, Bulgaddin, will
7. The Rev. John reach in Kilmallock
mas Fitzgerald, late
, will preach in Kil-
v. Richard O'Brien, Kilfinane on Holy

the receipt of £5 for
ev. Michael Malone, sq.

Society, Brunswick-
t of 10s. from J. o aid the English

7. in the face of the s, ordered payment
y as chaplain to the

Rome after Easter.
f Oxford has become

Business; he must ated lad.

April 13, 1859.

m.

NEWSOM

Alexander," Cap-
a Cargo of 194 Tons burning. Although ures has greatly in-yet the large cons a stimulant, proves ultural community.
for about ten days,
a St. Barbe," with a

L YARDS,
street, Limerick.

In London, Wm K Chalmers, Esq, MD, 19th Regiment, to Eliza Crichton, daughter of the late David M'Ewen, Esq, of Dundee.

At the Church of St Mary, Newington-butts, Samuel Harley Cheshire, of Grosvenor-park, Camberwell, to Elizabeth Anne, daughter of Mr George Frederick Batchelor, of Newington.

DEATHS.

At the house of her sister, Mrs Bouchier, Victoria-terrace, Lucy Emma, eldest daughter of the late John Bold, Esq, of this city.

On Wednesday, 2nd March, at her residence, Mount Joshua, in the Island of Antigua, aged 59 years, Lucy, youngest daughter of the late Kilner Brazier, Esq, of Saffron-hill, county Cork, and Rivers, county Limerick, wife of the Hon Bertie Entwistle Jarvis.

At Cannes, South of France, Margaret, widow of the late David Mahony, of Grangecon, in the county of Wicklow, Esq, and daughter of Wm Perry, of Gambonstown, in the county of Tipperary, Esq, deceased.

Yesterday, in Catherine-street, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Mary Anne Josephina, relict of the late Mr David B Wallace, of H.M's Customs, daughter of the late Mr James Quin, wine and spirit merchant.

At Nelson-st, Lizzie, daughter of Zachary Myles, Esq, T.C.
In Rathkeale, after a short illness, Miss Eliza M'Carthy, Roche's-street in this city, much regretted.

At Bonchurch, Isle of Wight, of consumption, Mary, only daughter of the late R Harte, Esq, of Coolruss, county of Limerick.

At Cawnpore, Mr Charles Forde, son of the late Mr William Forde, formerly of this city.

At Ballinard, county Tipperary, of inflammation of the lungs, Edward Butler Chadwick, Esq, much regretted.

At Templemore, Miss Agnes Graham Mitchell Kerr, daughter of the late James Kerr, Esq, Comptroller of Customs at the port of Glasgow.

At Millfield, near Cork, George Downe Atkins, Esq.
At her residence, Sunday's-well, Cork, Margaret, relict of the late Mr Simon Daly.

Cecilia, wife of the Rev Jas Hagge, Vicar of Templemichael, county Waterford.

At Clonakilty, Charles H Starkie, Esq, apothecary.

At Moyne, near Templemore, Mr Michael Cantwell, lately returned from Philadelphia.

Suedenly, at his residence, Cashel, Mr James Ryall, hotel keeper.

At Cashel, Mrs Sarah Dutton Kyte.
Suddenly, on arrival in London, of disease of the heart, Charles Frederick O'Meara, 4th Light Dragoons. He served through the Crimean war, and was one of the glorious 600.

At Lucknow, W E Lynch, Esq, 7th Hussars

At Dalkey, Bridget Margaret, wife of James Caraher, Esq, JP, county Louth.

At Michael's-hill, Dublin, Jeremiah Walsh, Esq.

At Dundrum, Wm Robinson, Esq

At Grosvenor-road, Rathmines, Jessy, daughter of R M'Nie-ken, Esq, of Mountjoy-square.

A J Gregory, son of Mr J N Gregory, of Tritonville House, Sandymount.

At Pleasant-street, Dublin, Bartholomew James, son of Mr Henry Manley.

At Church-street, Dublin, Mr Thomas M'Donnell.

At Lower Buckingham-street, Dublin, Mr Thomas Maher.

At Newcomen-place, Dublin, Mr James Joseph Nolan, formerly of Bachelor's-walk, Dublin.

Mary Anne Laming, daughter of William Pike, Esq, of Glendarary, Achill.

At Roscommon, Thomas Casserly, Esq, surgeon.

At Calais, Henry Duncan, Esq, MD.

At Harley-st., London, Edmond de Penhony O'Kelly, Esq.

In London, aged 87 years, Lady Morgan.

In London, Col Robert John Hudleston, HEICS.

In London, Elizabeth Jane, daughter of the late Hon Lionel and Lady Elizabeth Dawson.

At Brailsford Rectory, Derbyshire, the Rev Walter Shirley, in his 91st year.

At Bradford-on-Avon, Lieutenant Colonel James Allen, late of the H.B.I.C. Service.

At Fairview, Butler County, Pennsylvania, Thomas Sweeny, aged 122 years. Born in the year 1737, in Canrahan, parish of Ardfert, county Kerry, and emigrated in 1837, being then one hundred years old.

Mrs Mary O'Shaughnessy, a widow, a native of Ireland, but for twenty years a resident of Canton, Massachusetts, aged 112 years, was found dead in her bed.

I have implicit confidence in your kind feelings towards me; and now, for the respectfully solicit your suffrages.

I am your faithful and obliged servant

WILLIAM

House of Commons,
April 9th 1859.

TO THE ELECTOR OF THE ## COUNTY OF LIMERIC GENTLEMEN.

THE resignation of one of our Mer-vacancy in the Representation of I trust I may not be considered presuliciting your suffrages.

If the absence of any personal mo-honorable determination to devote what possess, without respect to party, creed clusively to my country's welfare, to claim to your favour, I feel that I shall vain.

A long residence amongst you, and nexion with all your interests have, I me capable of judging what measures a-bring Ireland to the condition to which tages of her position, the fertility of her high qualities of her INHABITANTS ENT

In every country in the world Irishguished as the PIONEERS of civilizaeminent in every enterprise, where Ind-lent command success. Be it my task who really love their country, to remove which clog all industry, and advocate will ensure prosperity at home.

As a Landlord, I feel that Property
Maintain and DUTIES TO PERFORM; so and Educated Intelligence:—The com-these elements creates a nation's greatness therefore, advocate a discriminating suffrage, and a fair and reasonable Tax which would ensure to the OCCUPIER enjoyment of his Improvements: at protecting the legitimate rights of Prop-

Measures tending to the improv-DWELLINGS and Social position of CLASSES, will occupy my serious atten-

I trust that the fact of my being a not deprive me of the support of my R-Fellow-Countrymen, who will find me vocate of RELIGIOUS LIBERTY, and an ing DEFENDER OF THEIR RIGHTS.

The limits of an address prevent all subjects on which I shall treat during conclusion I will merely state my opin-land has been too long a political shutabout by the battledores of contending from any political tie, I shall earnestly government the necessity of legislative impartiality, and a view to our real we-

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen

Your obedient

S. A. DICKSON

Lieuten

April 13