

form than ever yet been BELL, PETER, and GALPIN, and all Booksellers.

TRIALS.

CHRONICLE that Mr. Francis had declined to convene a of censuring the law officers pursued in excluding the Jury who tried Daniel

The following is the requisition :-

deeming the conduct prosecutors in the recent trial or conspiracy. in putting by who came into the jury box, confidence of the people in the of the law, to bring into t and most valued blessing of all the Roman Catholic jurors attributing to them sympathy for the sanctity of an oath, iff to convene a meeting on all the friends of civil and county, irrespective of creed gainst so unconstitutional a erryquin, April 12th, 1859.

ved a requisition calling on me for the purpose of protesting the crown prosecutors in the cy, I beg to state that, being crown, charged with the per-uties in connection with the a in this country, I feel that it with my position to join in a f which is to impugn the con-sponsible law advisers.

g of respect for the requisihonour to remain, Sir, your

" F. C. BLAND, Esq., Secretary."

l, brother to the Liberator, pre-meeting in Tralee, to protest Catholics from juries on the cenix trials.

is named for the Colonelcy of nt by the death of Sir Joseph de of Royal Horse Artillery

nday, at the military grounds, onel Shakespeare, before whom ariety of field evolutions, in Dublin yesterday, that the broken up and all the troops the Mediterranean. It is also Artillery of England, Scotland, embodied.

rtly be made in the force of serving in the Mediterranean, War Department having it in ion an additional company at Malta.

Helen Mary, daughter of Lieut-Colonel W Anderson, Political Agent of Serohee and Johdpoor.

DEATHS.

At Victoria-terrace, on the 18th instant, Robert Royse, Esq., formerly of Ballinvirick, in this county, aged 86.

On Sunday morning, at Duagh House, county Kerry, Oliver Fitzmaurice, Esq. JP, son-in-law of the late Richard Gabbett, Esq, of this city, deeply regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends.

On the 17th instant, at her residence, George's-place, Dublin, to the deep regret of her children and family, Anna Douglas, relict of the late Francis Lloyd, jun., Esq, and sister of Col John Douglas Johnstone, CB, 33rd, or Duke of Wellington's Regiment.

At Windsor, Lieutenant-Colonel Clarke, late 66th Regt, a Knight of Windsor, son-in-law of the late Thomas Blood, Esq, of this city.

At Herbertstown, in this county, Mrs Slattery, mother of Mr Malachy Slattery, of George's-street, in this city.

At Windsor, Lieutenant-Colonel George Prosser, late Lieutenant-Governor of the R.M.O. Sandhurst.

At Antigua, Wm Franklin, Esq.

At his house, Ballinacurra, Mr Frank O'Shea, an honest, in-offensive, and respectable man.

At Pau, Basses Pyrenees, Georgina, daughter of the late M A Lynch, Esq, JP, Nile Lodge, and Corrindull, Galway.

At Millfield, near Cork, G D Atkins, Esq.

At Ballyhale, county Kilkenny, Mr James Flanagan, many years attached to the Ordnance and Geological Surveys of Ireland.

In Cork, Mrs Armstrong, daughter of the late Wm Jagoe, of Aghamarta Castle, county Cork.

At Brinny House, county Cork, Mary Darley, daughter of the late Rev Alexander M'Donnell.

At Mallow, the wife of Wm Foott, solicitor.

In Cork, Jane, wife of Mr John Williams, George's-street.

At Mitchelstown, Mr John Slarke, proprietor of the Kingston Arms Hotel.

At Cornwallis-street, aged 73 years, Mr James Mulqueen, for many years letter-carrier.

At Dalkey, Wm Edward Porter, Esq, late Clerk of Recognizance, Court of Chancery.

At Hardwick-street, Dublin, Isabella, wife of Thomas P Swan, Esq.

At Hardwick-place, Dublin, Miss Anne Finn, daughter of the late Edmund Finn, Esq, formerly of Kilkenny.

At Rathgar, Henry Beaumont, Esq, formerly Detachment Paymaster of the Dublin District.

At Leinster-road, Dublin, Ellen Mary, wife of Mr John Kennedy, of Abbey-street.

At Talbot-street, Dublin, Thomas Bennett, Esq, late of Sandymount.

Mary, daughter of J Prendergast, Esq, of Trinity-street, Dublin.

At Cushindall, county Antrim, Penelope, wife of J M'Donnell, MD.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Mr James Tyrrell.

At Chapelizod, Robert H Willcocks, late Lieut-Colonel of the 81st Regiment.

At Harrington-street, Dublin, Eliza Battersby.

At Westmoreland-terrace, Ranelagh, Dublin, Mr Elias North, printer.

At Monkstown, Mrs Anne Helton.

At Dungannon, Louisa Augusta, daughter of the late Wm
Dawson, Esq, MD.

At Belfast, Henrietta Louisa, daughter of the Rev Theophilus Campbell.

Mr John M'Keon, of Carrickmaecross.

At Hampstead, Oliver Francis, son of the Right Hon T Milner Gibson, MP.

At Chester, Bevis Thelwall, Esq, Commander RN.

At Paddington, Susanna Palmer, wife of Captain Percival B Innes, Bengal Army.

At Stoneyhurst College, Lancashire, John Albert, son of Michael Thunder, Esq, of Lagore, county Meath.

At Maesmor, Merionethshire, Catherine Mary, relict of Gen.
Manners Kerr.

At Southport, Sarah, widow of the late Wm Kershaw, Esq, of Liverpool.

At Gibraltar, on his passage home from India, Wm Delafield Arnold, Director of Public Instruction in the Punjab, son of the late Dr Arnold, of Rugby.

At Hundleby, Lincolnshire, James Hairby, Esq, MD.

At Blackheath, Mr Henry Slack.

could think of supporting. Every and child in the county shou man who before their faces pr fender of Catholic rights, and a dastard, nicknames their re diametrically opposed to civil and pledges himself to oppose ments in aid of that religio ever disgraced should that un lowed to represent them in Pa the only man likely to come f of success to oppose Colonel lieve there is no other person for the representation of the clergy of this district would m and therefore the only perso priests of the whole county to members that would fairly politics of all in opposition to religion.

I am aware that anothe
" Liberal" politics has been the county, but his views ar a great body of the priests of expect no active support e Dickson from that large sectio you could arrange and bring laity of the county together Limerick, and I have no dou on some plan of united action total misrepresentation.

I have the hono

Your ob

E. J. Synan, Esq.

Glinquin Cottage,

MY DEAR SIR,—In reply to Inst., I beg to say, we, the had already resolved to ad have very prudently suggeste

We are to meet on to-m Vicar General's, Doctor B counsel with each other, and and scandal, which are inv union, &c., in our body.
spect of success, I think v Your address, &c., has been and people here. But the using all undue influence wit

Every Catholic young O rick Militia is brought down
nel. I think the proper use Address at Hull—it ought t posted up at every Village, a County; and, as to his atte disconnect himself with it, I ment or honesty will conside Wishing you every success,

I re

Edmond Synan, Esq.

Cabin

My dear Mr. Synan,—I you whatever influence I ma

E. J. Synan, Esq.