DEATHS.

At Patrickswell, near Bruff, on the 11th instant, Mr Edmond Connolly, whose death is generally regretted. In every relation of life he was greatly esteemed, and all who had business dealings with him found him most upright; and the large cortege—the largest seen in the county for years—which accompanied his remains on last Monday to Knockaney, told strongly how much he was admired. His large family have sad cause to mourn the best of parents.
