

Peace on earth, and the orangemen of the North processions and flags, they see the Saviour's cross, to the face of life and drum, they swelling forth sounds of (applause). The officers voted. The Rev. Mr. Re-Sibthorpe seconded a vote for, who briefly responded, and with the Doxology and ral assembly of the Presby- in on Wednesday last. The ast, read the report of the ommittee, in which it was 5,000l. be placed under a 5l. each for the erection of The report was adopted. of Belfast, read a report on hich there was notice taken time back by the Rev. Mr. Belfast, on the subject of v. Mr. Dill said that steps he attention of the Govern- after much discussion the e evening meeting the Rev. moved that the next meeting a Belfast, and the Rev. Mr. the motion, it passed.

of Presentation have taken at Bruff.

Cooper Hill.
SALE OF MEADOWING
FOOT
AUCTION.

GAN has again received in- a James C. Cooper, Esq., to rved Auction, at Cooper Hill T, 14TH JULY, commencing noon (so that all may be dis- e second portion containing ACREs, meadowing, an extraordinary e surveyed and marked out rder to suit purchasers. eadowing should avail them- m the scarcity of meadowing t have another opportunity of The above lands are well traordinary heavy crop, and a fourth of the amount of the paid down as a deposit, at the rder on the taking away of the out and saved at the expense asers. Time of removal and

EL HARTIGAN,
Auctioneer, Limerick.

Smith, of Paris.
At Woolhope, W H Power, Esq. to Margaret, daughter of the Rev Francis Merewether, Vicar of Woolhope and Clehonger, Herefordshire.
In London, George Heather Rouse, Esq, War Department, Whitehall, to Sarah Anne, daughter of John Lamb, Esq, of Tower-hill, London.
At Montreal, Canada, J P Sexton, Esq, Recorder of that city, to Letitia Catherine Keys, relict of the late Fras. M'Donnell, Esq, formerly of Ballina, county Mayo.

DEATHS.

At Richmond-hill, Rathmines, Dublin, where he went for medical advice, Wm Scanlan, of Ballynookane, in the county Limerick, Esq, deservedly regretted by his family and numerous friends. This lamented gentleman was a magistrate of the county Limerick, and served the office of High Sheriff.
In London, on the 3rd inst., Hugh Henry Hickman Massey, Esq, third son of the late James Fitzgerald Massey, Esq, of Cloughnarold.
At Gardenmorris, John Power O'Shee, JP and DL, after a protracted illness. He is sincerely regretted by the gentry of the city and county of Waterford.
At Newtown, county Waterford, George, eldest son of H Ridgeway, Esq.
The widow of Anthony Power, Esq, of Waterford.
In Tipperary, Mr Patrick Londregan.
At Queenstown, Florence Elizabeth, child of A W Olden, of Milboro'.
At Coleridge House, John Michael Allen, Lieutenant H.M.'s 91st Regt.
Edward Ledwith, Esq, JP and DL, Treasurer of the county of Longford and Captain in the Royal Longford Rifles
At Pembroke-road, Dublin, Adeline Eliza, wife of Rev Geo Edward Eagle.
At Newtownards, John Knez Powell, Esq, JP.
At Naas, Eliza, daughter of J T Pellett, Esq.
Sarah, wife of the Rev Thomas Twigg, Rector of Pomeroy.
At Mountpleasant, Dublin, Jane Anne, wife of E Stokes, Esq, late of Tuam.
At Birr, Henry Magenta, the infant son of Captain Eagar, 40th Regt.
At Belgrave-road, Rathmines, Dublin, Valentine Hines, Esq, solicitor.
At Church-street, Dublin, Miss Ellen Scally, sister to the Very Rev M Scally.
Eliza, daughter of Mr Thomas M'Donnell, Great Brunswick-street, Dublin.
The Rev Alexander Pollock, of Ballyeaston, near Belfast.
Mary, daughter of Mr Wood Gibson Jones, of James'-street, Dublin.
Maria, daughter of the late Wm Speer, Esq, of Dublin.
In London, Bidget Teresa Ryan, daughter of the late Philip Fogarty, Esq, Borrisoleigh, and widow of Patrick Burke Ryan, Esq, Currane Manor House, county Mayo.
In London, the Right Rev Edward Maltby, DD, late Lord Bishop of Durham.
At sea, Francis Berkeley Drummond, Esq, of the Bengal Civil Service.
In London, Lieut-Colonel George Edward Raitt, late Bar- rack Master, Bristol, and Deputy Adjutant-General of the Forces in the Mediterranean from 1814 to 1828.
At the Rectory, Ludford, Lincolnshire, the Rev Edward Alington Cooper.
At Lavenham Rectory, Suffolk, Eliza, relict of the late John Dillon Croker, Esq.
At Thorp Perrow, Yorkshire, Mary Emily, daughter, of Mr and Lady Augusta Milbank.
At Nice, Juliana, wife of Rear-Admiral Holt.
In Australia, Mr Henry, an independent minister, one of the first band of missionaries despatched to the South Sea in 1796.
In Australia, the Rev Walter Lawry, the first missionary to the Friendly Islands.
At Tours, France, Lieut-Colonel Patrick Campbell, of H.M.'s 40th, 48th, and 95th Regts.
At Longsight, near Manchester, James Hudson, Esq, Secre- tary to the Royal Agricultural Society of England.
At York, Rachel Ford, wife of John Ford, Superintendent of the Friends' School in that city.
At Poona, of cholera, Captain E G Brackenbury, H.M.'s 61st Regiment.

DEAR SIR,
WE, the undersigned Clergy, and Inhabitants in Ge District, having heard with reg from amongst us, cannot allow a residence of nearly Eleven Y without expressing our entire conduct as a gentleman, and e department to which you belo and uniform courtesy to all cl titled you and your amiable pa and with sincere good wishes f speedy Promotion in the Const We remain,

- Henry Fry, Clk. Rector Mar
of Kilkeedy, Pat
R. F. D. Jervois, Clk. Wil
Rector of Killinaboy, Fre
Stephen Walsh, P.P. Wil
Mortimer Hastings, C.C. Tere
Thomas Crowe, J.P. and Mic
D.L. Joh
Edward W. Burton, J.P. Mar
Neptune Blood, J.P. Joh
Jonas Studdert, J.P. Fra
William Spaight, J.P. Joh
Marcus Patterson, J.P. Tho
Michael M'Namara, M.D. Jan
Thomas Finucane, C.C. Pat
Charles W. Studdert, Ge
Thomas Lingard, Ge
Mortimer O'Brien, Joh
Miles O'Brien, Joh
Mortimer O'Brien, Jan
Augustus Moran, Pa
John O'Donnell, Hi
James Darling Wilson, Th
John Stephenson, C.E. Ja
Thomas Curtis, Pa
Patrick Shannon, Jo
Patrick Catrrix, W

R E P L
To the Clergy, Magistrates, of Corofin I
MY DEAR FRIENDS,
With feelings of deep grati receipt of the very flattering pleased to forward.
I am happy in the assur of my duty, my humble exe tion. I beg in particular t Magistrates, whose mutual pleasurable to me.
I left Corofin District wi always cherish a lively reco and kindly feelings evinced and my family.
I have the b
Your
D
Eyrecourt, 7th July, 18