

ned by Mr. Slade—I am I was member for Limes returned on account of d on petition; Mr. Rus-rried on a very extensive ong period; they are very ch I belong is, I believe, and I are Protestants, and an Catholic; I issued my ril; there were five can-O'Shea and Mr. John omination; I arrived in 18th, and at once prod a fortnight's canvass be-any excitement until after d, which appeared on Sun-was a placard which desig-Limerick as a "handful of tion I had of any excite-the 16th. On that day I y, a butcher in Limerick, s was an active member of and it was proceeding from l me. Mr. Kelly accosted and asked me if I was really e contest. I said I was, and for we have determined to to hunt you and all belong-n. I told him I thought he as I had given all assistance n the house. He said that ill paint you the blackest ted for the blood of a Catho-"I was shocked, and said to hat is not true." He said—I know it is not true, but it will do it." That was the The placard was a very long ed breach of contract, and atholics "Were they going o a handful of bigots?"— ard I observed the greatest nt among the lower classes s and non electors. I was violent threats and abuse, se-gut!" I was pelted and s of violence if I persisted. would break my head, and ould be thrown over the
to be—"There he is the ver the bridge! I heard of the arrangement or Gavin. I myself knew at arrangement. Originally written by me to Mr. Roche as that I had planned such ronosed, and I would settle I was then advised it would terfere myself, where money t it all to my brother. He was made. I afterwards con-from resigning in favour of whole thing was a matter of oche I would leave it to any
