Court s of a celeoverithout ent of ollect, Sym: Smar o give Want ie as (1) to g up ect to true rvices in & many e the f the lantheir omdis-)eing iciee hich, for not vhat s in ress ags of two will idle in nd, the as tte, to toxaive of W n.

sy

Elizabeth Laura, daughter of the late Right Hon Lord Chief Justice Doherty. At Paramatta, New South Wales, Lawrence Hartshorne Scott, Esq. late Captain 11th Regiment of Foot, to Miss Rebecca Bettington, daughter of the late Hon J Bettington, of Sydney.

At Madras, John Ord Hasted, Esq. Lieutenant Madras Engineers, to Elizabeth Maria Anderson, daughter of the late

Captain J S Shearman, 13th M.N.I.

New South Wales.

DEATHS.

On last evening, at Fort Anne, in this county, Margaret, the dearly beloved wife of Mr R B Corneille. She was an affectionate mother, a sincere friend, and a true Christian. She "fell asleep in Jesus," rejoicing in the hope of a blissful immortality. Her remains will be interred at St Munchin's on Monday, leaving Fort Ann at 8 o'clock a.m.

At Shanganagh, Francis White, Esq. F.R.C.S, late Inspector

General of Lunatic Asylums in Ireland. Mr John Parrell, of Clonmel.

In Dublin, Mrs O'Connor, wife of Thomas O'Connor, Esq, of Beagh Lodge, Ballylongford.

At Cloughjordan, Ellen, wife of Mr John Comerford, Benedine, aged 31.

At Cathedral-square, Waterford, Thomas Dillon, Esq. Mrs Commins, of the Commercial Hotel, Quay, Waterford.

At Kinsale Wm Corbett, Esq. At Kinsale, Mr John W Barry.

Mr John Coffey, Freagh, Newport, an industrious and independent farmer, much regretted by a large circle of friends.

At Upper Castle-street, Trales, Mr Patrick Brosnahan, senior guard of the county gaol.

At Galberstown, near Holycross, county Tipperary, Patrick Doran, farmer, at the patriarchial age of 118 years.

In Paris, Lord Henry Seymour, founder of the Jockey Club in that city.

In New York, Rev Dr Alexander, Minister of Princetown. In Dublin, Cornelia Matilda, daughter of the late J Woodroffe, Esq, MD.

In Dublin, Francis Russell Caddell, solicitor, son of the late Edward Caddell, JP. of Rathfriland, county Down.

At De Gray-terrace, Dublin, Frances Letitia, child of Lieut-Colonel Higginbotham.

At Athboy, co. Dublin, Charles Dixon, son of John Nolan,

At Asphodel, Canada West, Godfrey John, son of Godfrey John Greene, Esq, of Greenville, county Kilkenny. At Dalkey, Miss Ellen Brangan.

James Armstrong Henzell, Esq. son of John Henzell, late of Moles worth-street, Dublin, Esq.

At Carrick-on-Shannon, Captain Charles Theophilus Clement, Ceylon Rifle Regt.

At Banbridge, Eliza, wife of George Tyrrell, Esq. MD. On board her Majesty's ship Cyclops, in the Red Sea, Anthony Fitzgerald, Assistant Surgeon RN, son of the late James Fitzgerald, Esq, of Lackendurra, county Waterford. In Grosvener-street, London, the Lady Suffield.

At Hackney, London, Jane, widow of the late Lieutenant Wm Avery, RN.

At Southwood, near Ramsgate, Sarah, widow of Captain Boxer, RN.

At Bath, Fanny Agnes, daughter of Lieut-Gen. Wemyss. Charles Lyon, Esq, son of the Hon Thomas Lyon, of Hetton House, Durham.

On his passage home from Calcutta, on board the Hougomont, Edward Larkin Ellis, Esq. of the Bengal Civil Service. At Reading, Major Inglefield.

At Brussels, Lieut Richard Hammond White, RN. In New Zealand, Colonel John Gray (unattached), late of the 40th Regt.

At Cawnpore, Lieutenant Robert William Dent, let Bengal Light Cavalry.

STEAM COALS, various kinds, for steam and cooking purposes

PUREST ORRELL COAL -the ver richest imported

Best Wallsend Coals

These Coals are delivered at 8d. t dition to the above prices in any p at the Railway Terminus, so that warded by Rail to the country.

Ordinary "Dray Carts" cannot unless in Sacks, but we supply Cos we charge a Deposit of 6d. each, t they are returned in good order with enables Country Gentlemen so se their return Market Carts, and save ing "Box Carts" specially for Coal. PHILLI

May 21.

GENERAL NEWSPAPER, BOU TIONERY ESTABLISH

20, George's-Street.

(3 DOORS FROM THE CLUB B FLYNN, acquaints the Public U. ditions have been made to her TIONERY, BOOKS and PERIODICALS, in NEW PUBLICATIONS.

The Morning News, and Preema ceived Daily, at 2 o'Clock, (p.m.) co despatches by Magnetic and Electric the seat of War!

The Illustrated London News, Il Weekly Freeman, Irishman, Nation, nolds, &c., all of which are received publication, and delivered instantly acc

NEW MONTHLY PERIODICALS, M Rook," splendid portrait 1s.; Moore's improved edition, 6d.; Moore's illust ls. Nos. ; the 'Harp,' the 'Lamp,' '(History,' and many others, at 6d. ea of useful information, 3d.

WEEKLY PERIODICALS—Haverty's land, 4d. each; times and speeches of inent Irishmen, 6d. each; Dickens' ne the Year Round." 2d.

THE CIRCULATING LIBRARY is reg with all the new works of merit. Th Guide, complete, 2s 6d.; the Catholic Gaslight and Daylight in London, 6s. prayer books, every style of binding.

GROCERS AND OTHER SHOP-PAPERS, Parties in the country are requested to GOOD VALUE ON FAIR TERMS.

June 25