LIMERICK.—We more than once attended at the prayer meetings at the Wesleyan Church, in George's-street, in Limerick. There have been also prayer meetings in several churches and the Presbyterian on Tuesday evening there was a meeting at the Wesleyan place of worship at which an introductory address to a series of give-in that church, by the Rev.
Mr. St. John, where he has been located for some time, has been very much concerned in the work which has resulted in the conversion of many souls to righteousness, holiness, and peace—for both must be united if the work is to be permanent; and, therefore, it is a fruit of the work of the Spirit in the souls who were heretofore red hot partisans of the black and green, giving the right fellowship, and love to each

DEATHS.

At Head Quarters of the 27th Regiment, Bengal, after a brief illness, to the inconsolable grief of her parents in this city, the affectionate and attached wife of Captain John Vise O'Donnell, of H. M.'s 27th Regiment, and daughter of Timothy O'Brien, Esq. J. P. Crescent. This lamentable visitation has diffused the most poignant grief amongst the many families who were acquainted with the estimable qualities of Mrs.
O'Donnell. She was a pattern of excellency. To her afflicted husband, bereaved parents, and a babe of tender years, her loss is irreparable. Her time was occupied in discharging the several domestic duties of life, and her care of the wives and children of the regiment to which she was attached, will never fail to be remembered by the old Enniskilleners.

On Thursday, 25th inst., at his house, George-street, Thomas Vokes, Esq. a young gentleman universally regretted. His remains will be removed for interment in the family vault at
