

At the Parochial Church, Westland-row, Dublin; Julius Ste-venhagen, of Plymouth, to Sarah, daughter of Mr Richard Glennon, of Suffolk-street, Dublin.

At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Carlow, Mr James Connor, of Patrick-street, Dublin, to Mary Teresa, daughter of the late Mr Laurence Kelly, of Carlow.

In Belfast, Herbert, son of the late James Darbishire, Esq,
Green Keys, near Manchester, to Maria, daughter of the Rev
Wm Bruce, The Farm, near Belfast.

At St Peter's Church, Notting-hill, London, Lieut Owan Ivan Chalmers, of the 4th Bengal European Regiment, to Emma Gordon, daughter of George Gordon Moir, Esq, of Chepstowvillas, Bayswater.

At Longsight, near Manchester, Mr James Oldham, Dublin, to Lucy Jane, daughter of Benjamin Bradley, Esq, Victoria-park, Manchester.

In St Mary Abbott's Church, Kensington, Robert Baldwin, son of the late Hon Robert Baldwin, OB, of Toronto, Canada, to Jemima, daughter of the late A MacDougall, Esq, of Wester Hall, Grenada.

At Cawnpore, Lieut W Astell Franks, 12th Regiment Bengal
Native Infantry, to Emily Harriett, daughter of the late Morgan Thomas Davies, Esq, of Swansea.

At Berhampore, Bengal, Charles Henry Ewart, Esq, Lieut
5th Bengal Europeans, to Rebecca, daughter of the late Edmund Scott Barber, Esq, CE.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his son's residence, Adare, Mr Joseph Moore, for many years a corporate officer, and who previously served as constable in the city Constabulary, with credit and respect to the force. He died as he had lived, a good and faithful Christian, rejoicing in the Lord, and his death is much regretted by relatives and friends.

This morning, Mr James O'Connor, chief clerk of the potato market under the Corporation. He was most attentive to his duties, obliging as a public officer, and his death is regretted by all who knew him.

At Ingoldsby Cottage, Castle Connell, after a lingering illness,
Mr Richard Coe, aged 56 years.

Mary Young Townsend, daughter of the Rev Thomas Townsend, of Summer Cove, county Cork.

At Clonakilty, Emma, daughter of Mr John Spiller.

Yesterday, in Nelson-street, Limerick, Mary, the infant daughter of Mr John Hourigan, compositor.

At Kilmacthomas, co. Waterford, Ellen Florence, daughter of Hugh Green, Esq, MA.

At Lismore, Louisa, relict of the late Stephen Henry Waring, Esq, RN.

At Brighton, Captain Christopher Foss, late Secretary and Adjutant of the Royal Hibernian Military School, Dublin.

At Kingstown, Lieut-Colonel Toole, of Carracloe House, co.
Wexford.

At Wesley-place, Dublin, Thomas Ball, Esq, solicitor.

At Crettyard House, Queen's County, Charlotte Mary, daughter of John Edge, Esq.

At Williamstown, county Dublin, Charlotte Powel, widow of Wm Powell, Esq.

In Bagnelstown, Carlow, Mrs Anne Singleton, aged 82 years.
Near Moate, Mr Thomas Manion, officer of excise.

Isabella, daughter of John O'Dougherty, Esq, Killygordon, county Donegal.

At James's-street, Dublin, Kate, wife of Mr Jas D Rourke, vintner.

At Castlebar, the Rev John Hopkins.

At Enniskillen, James Constantine, son of Jas Creden, Esq.

At Topsham, Devon, General Tothill, of the Royal Marines.

At Cheltenham, Lieut-Col G Barker, formerly of the 33rd Bengal Native Infantry.

At Great Malvern, Miss Mary Moncrieff, daughter of the late General Moncrieff.

At Denbigh, Lieut Twiston, 63d Regiment.

At Bridge of Allan, Scotland, Capt Wm Henderson, Bengal Engineers.

At Gosport, John Simpson, Esq, Surgeon Royal Navy, son of the late Wm Simpson, Esq, of Larne.

At Calcutta, one of its oldest British-born inhabitants, H V Ingles, Esq.

At Kurrachee, East Indies, Lieut Joseph Cleland Cumberlege, 1st Bombay Europeans.

At Bangalore, Emma, wife of Lieut-Colonel H Colbeck, sen.
magistrate of police.

At Barrackpore, Bengal, Captain G W Elliot, 15th Bengal
Native Infantry.

not much used.

Fourteen Horses, of which the following tail:—2 Carriage bay Mares, specially br late Baron, off a favourite Mare, by Quins and trained to single harness; 1 bay family considerable power and action, fit for any or gentleman's use; 1 steel gray Horse, some, standing over 15 hands 2 inches; a roadster or Park Horse, and goes in harness Mare, highly bred; 5 Farm Horses, of great and quick movement; 1 Colt, 1 Filly, 2 Mule, 1 Donkey.

Thirty-six Berkshire and plain Store Pig
Sows, 14 well-grown Stores, and 18 Bonham
THE CROPS are—40 Acres of Hunter
Wheat, Black Tartary Oats, Potatoes, P Crops, &c., which will be sold in lots to su venience of purchasers, and proper time gi move the growing crops at maturity. About of first rate New and Old Hay, in Ricks Cocks, including Old Meadow and Rye-gra

The FARMING IMPLEMENTS, which good repair and preservation, are well wort Amongst them are 4 two-horse Iron Plough and Pairing do., 2 Drilling do., 1 Furro double Harrows, in sizes, 1 Grass do., 1
Scuffles, 6 Tumbrils, and Harness, 4 Drays Manure Cart, by James, of Cheltenham, order, and very little used; Winnowing
Turnip Cutter, Oat Bruiser, Metal and Wood
Triangle, Beam, Scales, and Weights, C Tools, 4 Water Barrels and Carts Mule and Carts, Ladders, Winnowing Sheets, Sack
Racks, Water Barrels and Cools, all th
Utensils, Grinding Stone, Corn Stones, C
Tools, a quantity of Manure, 1,200 Barrels
50 Barrels of Culin, 50 Barrels of prime old Oats, 1 Rick of Straw, with divers minor art

In the Coach-house—a beautiful roomy, durable Barouche, in excellent preservation, ler, with plated double harness, not much u outside family and one hack car. and single full sized and children's saddles and bridles criptions, with horse covers, &c, &c, &c.

Of the In-door Establishment—Several claret, port, and sherry, will be sold if not p arranged by private contract; and a man laundry.

☞ Sale to open sharp at eleven o'clock farming implements. Terms—cash, and purch pay 5 per cent. auction fees.

N.B.—The Demesne Lands, about 250 I all in rich old pasture, with the Dwellin Offices, &c., and an adjoining Farm of Ti Pasture Land of 90 Irish acres, to be Let.
CAPTAIN DANIEL CANE.

Subscribers have the honour to state that of this Valuable Property is of that sub honest and unalloyed character that might expected to belong to their late pure-mind priest, and beg to assure the Nobility and of Ireland that his revered memory shall no lied in the Sale of his Stock.

GANLY, SONS AND PARKER, Auc
Smithfield Salesmen, and Wool Brokers
Quay, Dublin and Longford.
Sept 7.