Mr. Gustavus Geary's Vocal Entertainment of the musical loving people of Limerick again on last night of enjoying a rich amount of attention was paid to this artiste on yesterday evening as was on Monday evening last, and his reception, more enthusiastic. Several fine songs were sung, and Mr. Geary most graciously encored, and Mr. Geary most responded to the calls, and substituted for his "Tis ever welcome gem," "Tis of summer." We have on former occasions at length the most prominent features of Geary's vocalization, and we may now say a year since we first had the pleasure of listening to the registers of his voice seem to be more under his command over the mezza voce voci, and his falsetto with the full chest voice is his variations being entirely imperceptible. Mr Geary to proceed to New York for six months, but his professional talent will be duly appreciated. On the 20th of October he will give an entertainment in Dublin, under the patronage of the Royal Academy.

RE—Last night it was gratifying to hear a numerous and respectable audience which gathered to witness the performance of "Juliet," which was produced with admirable and dramatic taste, under the able direction of Mr. Edgar. The part of "Romeo" was sung by Miss Marriott, and on no previous occasion had so talented tragic actress appear to be on our boards, the repeated plaudits which she was greeted throughout the piece showed the high estimation entertained of her talented abilities. The comic singing was also excellent, and the entertainments went off with great success. Marriott's benefit is announced for next evening, when we trust there will be a
