DEATHS.

On the 11th instant, at the Deanery House, Gort, in the county Galway, after a long, lingering, and painful illness, borne with the most exemplary patience and pious resignation, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of the Very Rev Joseph Aldrich Birmingham, Dean of Kilmacduagh, and Chaplain to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. She died trusting solely in the merits of her Redeemer, and beloved, respected, and regretted by all acquainted with the amiable qualities of her heart, her warm, expansive, and irrespective benevolence.
Her religious principles and feelings were scriptural and rational without enthusiasm, and sincere without ostentation.
She has left a fond husband, two sons and six daughters to deplore her irreparable loss.
